Brother Cobb, of the Welleboro Agilator, always writes some good things for his particle last week, on "the price of Liberty" is capital, and needs to be read by the Republicans of this county. Here is an extract from it, which we commend to the serious attention of every friend of Free. He Wise Who Works the serious attention of every friend of Free a Does any freeman lean upon any past success achieved by the noble efforts of the success achieved by the noble efforts of the friends of Liberty? If so, does he dream that the success of the past, however brilliant and how signal soever they may have been this beloved and devoted sister. In all the relations of fife, she sustained a character worthy of general victories to day, or to-morrow? Success yesterday is not a guaranty of success to day. There is no victory without labor, no true defeat without spathy on the part of the defeated. He wins who works, he works who wins.—He works best who is ever alive to the importance of action; and he is a drone who leans on past endeavor. In all the relations of fife, she suitabled leans on past endeavor. A thousand such could not do the work of one traly rigitant freeman; and ten thousand such would lose the best Northern State to Freedom. It is the crying evil of the time in Pennsylvania, that the Republican hive is cursed with drones men who lean on local successes and do nothing. The South and center Counties look up to the Northern tier and gloat over our monster majorities, forgetting their duty. The Wilmot District huga its majority for Fremont, and cries-" Oh, if the lower part some!" Now this is all bosh. The lower part of the State has no right to lean upon our majorities. Mind your own last he should enter into that rest in heaven, where at to lean upon our majorities. Mind your own business, and mind your own feet. Go to young, he united with the Bapust church, but did The lower part of the State has no right work and redeem the lower part of the State -the upper part of the State will get along without your laudations. The Wilmot District need not wait for the lower counties to soon found himself advancing beyond the faith of his do "something handsome." We have something handsome to do ourselves. We must not expend all our strength in hugging that Fremont majority; we must go to work and do 500 bettee. That is what we have to do here in the Banner County. We do not thank say creakers to put on a Sunday-go-to-meeting face and say that Tioga can't do better. The sended at the Baptist church, where a large contains the lield at the house of Store attended at the Baptist church, where a large contains the lield at the house of Store the district composed of the township of Stories will be held at the house of St. D. Sander in said township. The Ricelian for the district composed of the township of Stories are all here, and if they do not get into the ballot-box on the 13th of October next, then the Republicans of the several election districts must settle with their own consciences. There is no escaping the conclusion that if voters fail to come out, their Republican neighbors will have neglected their duty. MR. WILMOT'S PHILADELPHIA SPEECH.-Great have been the effects produced in Philadelphia by Mr. Wilmot's speech, made here recently. Many of the most influential of the old line. HEMPSTEAD & McKENZIE. MONOPOLY: MONOPOLY: HIS is the great principle among our selfish, small merchants. In proof of this look at the late Act passed at Harrisburg, prohibiting hawking and peddling in Susquehanna County; an Act passed to gratify some of the Merchants, who have expressed a desire "to stop some large majons," GUTTENBERG, ROSENBAUM & CO., DOWN WITH MONOPLY Their large wagon will run more regularly than ever before, until their license for peddling expires. In order to accommodate the community and be able to bettle monopoly successfully, they have made arrangements to get New Goods weekly from New York, and they will sell the same from 15 to 20 per cent cheaper, than any other establishment in Susquehanna County. We have now received our NEW SUMMER GOODS! The largest, cheapest and best selected stock ever offered in this market. It is not necessary to onu merate the articles which our assortment comprises it is sufficient to say that we have a general stock of the latest and most hashiouable goods in the market and we cannot full to suit the public, as well in taste as in prices. A few words more to our fellow-citizens, and particularly to those who feel themselves independent and not obliged to purchase at some paricular store. We know that it will be for your interest to examine and price our goods before purchasing elsewhere; that is a true motto that "a penny saved is better than two carned." We are deter mired to spare no pains to give general satisfaction, and we shall always be ready and happy to exhibit
