MONTEPROSE, PA. Thursday, October 1, 1857.

Freedom National—Slavery Sectional. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID WILMOT, of Bradford County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. FOR REPRESENTATIVE, SIMON B. CHASE, of Great Bend. FOR SHERIFF, JOHN YOUNG, of Dimock.

Wilmot and Free Soil! A meeting of the citizens of the Eastern part of the County will be held at Harford, Saturday, Oct. 3d.

REMEMBER! That the Election on Tuesday, October 13th. This week Saturday is the latest that voters can be ASSESSED.

Any division at this time in the ranks of the anti-slavery party, can only be attended with disastrous consequences.—James V. Chapman, Oct. 5, 1855.—Ditto. Ed. Republican, Oct. 1, 1857.

Read the address of the Republican State Convention to the voters of New York. It answers as well for the latitude of Pennsylvania.

Since a statement is circulating among the Democracy of Luzerne county—where E. B. Chase now lives—that Judge Wilmot disapproved his suits for libel against Chase, it may be proper to recall the fact that Chase made a full and general retraction of the charges he had made against Judge Wilmot.

Our "Free-Soil" President has granted to Slavery its extrajudicial claims, and when the doctrines of his latter day are fully adopted, we may consider Slavery as being existing wherever the Constitution of the United States extends. It will be only another step forward, by Slavery.

An old friend narrated to us, the other day, a conversation that took place recently between him and a Buchanan neighbor. Said the Buchanan, "The election this Fall has nothing to do with national politics, or with the Slavery question."

By an act of 1850, every Bank that fails to redeem its notes in gold or silver, on demand, forfeits its charter, and must justly too.

When the Legislature assembled, we have no doubt there will be a tremendous effort by the Banks to obtain some kind of special exemption to aid them in the fraud they are now attempting to perpetrate upon the people of the State.

For the Independent Republican. Letter from Wyoming County, Pa. Sept. 24, 1857. Messrs. Editors:—Mr. Gray filled his point in speaking last Saturday, p. m., at the Depot in our town.

THE FRONT has not done much damage here yet, and in a few days the corn will be all out of the way.

As to the issue of the day, it is a National one. This fact invests the struggle with its real importance. What is the issue? The President himself shall define it.

Such sentiments were not broached by James Buchanan during the Presidential canvass. Opinions precisely the reverse were maintained by his Northern and Western supporters.

Another step in the path of aggression, is likely to be the reopening of the slave trade. We do not see on what principle it can be refused.

People of Ohio, you are then called upon to decide upon a great National issue. If you vote for Mr. Chase, you say that Slavery can exist only by positive law—that the Constitution of the United States does not recognize slaves as property.

This is not all. The Kansas Question is still undecided: to a great extent, it can be affected by your votes. In violation of the rights of the bona fide residents of Kansas, a spurious Legislature was imposed upon them.

Republican Address. The following is a part of the address adopted by the Republican State Convention of New York: Fellow-Citizens of the State of New-York: Two dangers threaten our institutions—Slavery and official corruption.

Mr. Marcy on the Sumner Assault. Governor MARCY was always true to his convictions on the Slavery question. "Slavery is yours," said he to a Southern gentleman, who was endeavoring to command the political right to retain it as long as you please.

That the Missouri compromise, which preserved our peace and harmony for thirty-four years, was repealed by the democratic party, to enable the negro driver to occupy and carve the soil of the great West.

That the Democratic party and the Democratic Administration at Washington are now at work enforcing these barbarous and unconstitutional laws.

That the Democratic President and Democratic party are hopelessly in the hands of the Slave Oligarchy of the South.

Our readers will observe by the proclamation of the Governor, in our advertising column, that the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund report a reduction of the State Debt for one million dollars.

Here is a cheering result, indeed, and one that is well calculated to rejoice the hearts of our honest taxpayers.

GRAND RALLY.—The meeting at Birmingham on Saturday night, to hear the Hon. David Wilmot, was a grand triumph. It rained during the evening, but notwithstanding this, a large number of friends were present.

PREMIUM LIST OF THE SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR AND CATTLE SHOW. The annual fair and cattle show of the society, was held at Montrose, Sept. 23d. The interest is manifestly increasing, and the attendance is fully as large as on any previous occasion.
