

How They Deal with Their Own People.—One of the bogus justices of the peace or judges of probate in Kansas is a Virginian named Murphy. He was a candidate to the Constitutional Convention. He happened to remark in a private conversation that he was in favor of admitting the constitution, when he was the popular vote. He was not the time. A committee waited on him.—They were deputed from the law lodge, of which there is a branch in Osawkee. They informed him that he had deceived them.—They had confided in him. Had given him office. They had regarded him as a sound and reliable Democrat. But his declaration that the constitution should be submitted for ratification to the popular vote, had proved to them that he was a traitor to the South.—He was ordered to leave Osawkee immediately. Although confined to bed, he was obliged to leave town. The Virginian's expression of astonishment at such democracy were very amusing to us, who have seen so much of the unadulterated article in Kansas.—Correspondence St. Louis Democrat.

MISSOURI ELECTION TO BE CONTESTED.—We see by the Missouri papers that Rollins intends to contest the election with Stewart. We have no doubt but that this contest will disclose some grand swindling of the part of the Stewart men. Election frauds have now become the settled policy of the party whose candidate he was. Ballot-box stuffing and fraudulent returns have become ordinary weapons with them. But they have got a customer in Major Rollins who will be ugly to handle.

SLAVE MARRIAGES.—We are greatly obliged to Hon. Gerrit Smith for the brief article we lately expressed in reference to the marriage of slaves. The conclusion that slaves as slaves, are incapable of assuming the sacred obligations of the marriage relation, is an inevitable deduction from their dehumanized condition. If they were men, they might marry, but being chattels, they cannot.—Judge them of the guilt of Christendom which forces these millions of Africans to live in a state of concubinage.—Northern Independent.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.—In Washington county the County Commissioners have printed tickets for and against the pending amendments to the Constitution, and will distribute them to the various townships. This is the right course, and it ought to be adopted in every other county. There is no fairness in asking or expecting individuals to bear this expense. The people ought to be supplied with tickets from some source; and there is no source so proper as the officers of the people.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

BUCHANAN ENDORSED BY THE SECTARIANS.—The Richmond South, a disunion paper, expresses its great satisfaction with Mr. Buchanan's Silliman letter; and says to its friends, "the state rights democracy, those who condemned 'the compromise measures of 1850,' 'secessionists,' etc., &c." In approving the just sentiments contained in Mr. Buchanan's letter, have at once shown their attachment to Republican principles and their fidelity to the South." This endorsement is very explicit and comes from an authoritative source.

Since hearing Mr. Grow speak (as we now have for the first time) we do not wonder that the Wilcox Provision District has just elected its youthful but eloquent Champion of Freedom to Congress for the coming year. Such men should be kept in Congress from year to year (as is done South) to compare fairly with the Slave Power.—We rejoice to see that Mr. Grow has recovered from the "National Hotel Disease" and hope he will be enabled to do his purpose of speaking in the good cause every week day until Election.—Leisure Chron.

A clerk up in Dayton put a stop to the operations of a burglar in a style, manner and form somewhat peculiar. The burglar had removed a pane of glass twenty inches by eight, and was carrying a large enough moral made a nice hole, amply large enough for an entrance, and he drew back one step to look at it before "going in." Just at this instant he gave a yell and squatted. He found out afterwards that a little box full of assafetida, and weighing twenty-seven pounds, had been dropped square upon the top of his head from the second story of the building, a distance of some twenty feet. The stumbling and stinking that the fellow got so overpowered him that he was captured without difficulty.

SEWER COSTUME.—A Detroit (Mich.) paper says that a woman was arrested recently in that city, "with nothing on her person but a love-letter and a daguerotype." This is equal to the celebrated summer dress in Georgia—a shirt-collared and pair of spurs.

The saying of a White Mountain stammerer to a New Yorker sitting with him, "I suppose if I went down to New York I should speak as well as you folks do up here," is not bad.

Notice to Teachers.—The School Directors of Gilson desire to employ twelve Teachers, to take charge of the children in their township, to whom liberal salaries will be paid. The competition will be graduated according to the qualifications of the persons employed. All Teachers expecting to teach in Gilson School District must be licensed by the proper authority—the County Superintendent.

JACOB E. GILLET, President of Board School Directors, Gilson School District. Gilson, Sept. 26, 1857.

Notice.—The Susquehanna Association of Unitarians will hold its annual session at Montross, on the 10th and 11th of October, in October, (10th and 11th). A cordial invitation is extended to all friends, both laymen and clergy. Those coming from a distance will find a committee of arrangements at the Church, to direct them to places of entertainment. We expect a good time. Do not fail to be present to enjoy it with us.

A. O. WARREN, Standing Clerk.

To the Independent Voters of Susquehanna County: I offer myself as an Independent Candidate for the office of TREASURER, hoping to receive votes enough to elect me to that office. My policies are the same as heretofore. Last Fall I voted for Buchanan, previous to that time I always supported the Whig ticket, and was never identified with Republicanism, now called "the popular will." I am still a candidate for county officers; setting aside the opinions of elites and wire-pullers, and stand on fair and open platforms. Opposite I expect from the Montross Association. Here anon.

RUFUS THAYER, Jr. Montross, Sept. 17, 1857.

To the Independent Freemen of Susquehanna County: In compliance with the expressed wish of numerous friends in various parts of the county, as well as in accordance with my own sense of duty and propriety, I am constrained to announce that, (until further advised of the "popular will.") I am still a candidate for your suffrages for the office of Register and Recorder for a second term. Should a sufficient number of my fellow citizens desire to discharge the duties of the office, I am disposed to sustain me upon the true merits of the question, after a fair and candid view of the case. I can only promise a continuation of my utmost efforts to discharge that confidence, with all the increased ability to discharge those duties to the public advantage, which nearly three years experience in the office has given me. It is my earnest desire that a majority should deem other considerations proper, I hope they will treat my motives with forbearance, so long as I do not wish to retire.

JAMES W. CHAPMAN, Sept. 1, 1857.

Fair Warning. MR.—will save trouble and expense by paying for a piece of Sole Leather weighing 1 lb. 6 oz. (less the pat, which belongs to a customer in Major Rollins who will be ugly to handle.)
