C. F. READ & H. H. FRAZIER, EDITORS. F. E. LOOMIS, CORRESPONDING EDITOR.

MONROE, PA. Thursday, December 3, 1857.

By a telegraphic despatch received at the Montrose office this (Wednesday) morning, we learn that DANIEL F. TYMANS, the fusion candidate, is elected Mayor of New York by more than 2000 majority over Charles Wood, the Democratic candidate.

Senator Sumner returns to resume his seat in the Senate, with his usual vigor to the van—even the praise of fools.

Speaking without thinking, is shooting without aim. Great cry and little wool—An Ethiopian infant, just born of sweetmeats did he have in the ark! Preferred Fair.

A down-east editor advises his readers, if they wish to get teeth inserted gratis, to go and get fruit where his watch dog is on guard.

It has been said that grain is treated like infants. When the head becomes heavy, it is cradled, and is generally well thrashed to render it fit for use.

Two and a half million feet of pine lumber were used in making docks in Connecticut last year.

An honest farmer thus writes to the chairman of an English agricultural society: "Gentlemen, please put me down on your list of cattle for a bull."

An Irishman tells of a fight in which there was but one whole nose left in the crowd, and that belonged to the tay-kettle.

An Irish gentleman lately fought a duel with his intimate friend, because he joyously asserted that he was born without a shirt on his back.

Miss Crin O'Line arrived in town yesterday, in company with X. 10 Did Hood, Esq. Why is a person approaching a candle like a man getting off his horse? Because he is going to a light.

What is more beautiful and poetical than the little child's idea of ice—"Water gone to sleep?"

An indirect way of getting a glass of water at boarding-house, is to call for a third cup of tea.

A raw Irishman, on his first sight of a locomotive, declared, "It's a steamboat hunting for water."

Law is like a sieve: you may see through it, but you must be considerably reduced before you can get through it.

There is a great demand for a kind of plaster paper, says our city correspondent, that will enable gentlemen to stick to their business.

An old lady being at a loss for a pin-stitching, made use of an onion. On the following morning she found that all the needles had tears in their eyes.

They are fond of titles in the East. Among this many other high-sounding titles, the King of Ava has that of "Lord of Twenty-four Umbrellas." This looks as if he had prepared himself for a long reign.

A few years ago, the ladies were a very handsy sort of hood, which was called, "Kiss-me-if-you-dare-hood." The present style of bonnet has a "Kiss-me-if-you-want-to" look.

An innocent young sportsman, in order to shoot a squirrel on the top of a small tree, climbed another close by, and on being asked the reason of so foolish a feat, said, "That he didn't want to strain his gun by a long shot."

A kiss, says an ingenious author, is like creation, because it is made out of nothing, and is very good.

The ancient Greeks buried their dead in jars. Hence the origin of the expression—"He's gone to pot."

Men often forget that many a privation has a hidden joy, as the flower blooms under the leaf; shadow is sometimes shelter.

Following this latest exposition of Black Democracy, which very far transcends the creed of Calhoun, or of his South Carolina disciples of the present day, the editor labors, in an article of two columns and a half, to gild the nauseous pill.

This step would never have been ventured upon, if the States of New York and Ohio had rolled up, as they might have done, their respective Republican or Anti-Nebraska majorities.

It is one of the best Companies in the State. It was incorporated in 1840, its Charter perpetual. It has insured, since it went into operation, thirty millions of property, and paid over a hundred thousand dollars losses.
