A COMPENDIUM OF NEWS.

Col. Inglis, whose defence of Lucknow is likely to rank among the most memorable is they to fails altrong the most ance in Eng took place in the Chapel Royal of St. James' lish martial history, is a son of the late Right Rev. Dr. John Inglis, Bishop of Nova Scotia.

A close student of the Bible suggests, in the Marietta Intelligencer, that there is reason for supposing that one of the descend-ants of Aaron the High Priest, was a native of Ohio. See Ezra vii, 4, which reads: "The & son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of [a] Bukki."

.... In the Senate, Feb 4, Mr. Jones, of Iowa, presented the recolutions instructing that Senators from that State to vote against the Lecompton fraud. Mr. J. said that he should not obey the instructions. In the Louisiana Senate notice has been given of the introduction of a bill to import 5,000 negroes from the Coast of Africa. Joint resolutions have also been introduced denouncing the acts of Commodore PAULDING. and instructing Senators, and requesting the Representatives in Congress to cause the views expressed to be carried into effect.

The Legislature has passed the bill annulling the marrage contract of Thomas Washington Smith. The vote in the Senate apon the hill was 13 to 8; in the House there was discussion upon it prior to its passage. The bill is now ready for the Governor's sig-nature, which it is supposed will be appended, without further delay.

.... An anti-Lecompton Democratic meeting was recently held at Williamsport, the home of Gov. Packer. Men. who only a year ago ridicaled and denounced the Republicans us "freedom shriekers." at this Eton boys, amid great cheering. meeting came forward and denounced the pro-Slavery frauds and oftrages in Kansas. and especially the Lecompton Constitution quite as emphatically as was ever done by Republicans. It is understood that Gov. Packer is firm against the Lecompton fraud.

Gen. William Walker, in his preches at the South, announce; that he has abandoned Nicaragua, and intends to resort to "fresh fields and pastures new" in Mexico, where, in the northern provinces against Comonfort, he may effect a revolution which will result in their separation from Mexico and ultimate annexation to the United States. With Dr. Watts we can exclaim "Satan finds some mischief still," &c. It is hinted that the government favors Walker's project.

Thic Royal Marriage at London. The English papers are filled with accounts of the marriage of the Princess Royal with Prince Frederick William of Prussia, which took place in the Chapel Royal of St. James' took place on Monday morning, January 25th London was filled with royal guests, chiefly from the German Courts. Among them were the King of the Belgians, the Duke and Duch-es of Brabant, the Prince and Princess of Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Caburg, the Court of Flanders, and many others.' The ceremony of marriage was performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Bishop of London, Oxford and Chester, the Bishop of London, Oxford and Chester, the Bishop of London, Oxford and Chester, the Bridegroom's and the Bride's. in use throughout the country. The doctrines of the work are those which are deducible from a connon sense view of the subject of language, and a just sense view of the subject of larguage, and a just consideration of the analogies of speech. W And in point of perspicuous arrangement, accuracy of defi-nition, fullness of illustration, and comprehensiveness of plan, the work is considered by competent judges to be unrivaled. In the new edition of the Institutes, teachers who have been accustomed to use the work. will see many important amplifications and improve-ments, giving to the whole more of completeness as to the subject, and a better adaptation of the plan to the general purposes of instruction.
