Pennsylvania Legislature. HARRISBURG, Feb. 24, 1858.

SETATE. Mr. Buckalew, from the Select Committee on the Kausas resolutions, made a majority report, recommending that Mr. Gazzam's resolution against the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution be Congress Indefinitely postponed, and reporting. Mr. Wilkins' resolution approbatory. The report is lengthy, and urges the speedy ad-mission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, with the declaration of the right of the people of Kansas to alter the Constitution whenever they desire, through the proper legal means. The report sustains the grounds assumed in the President's message,

Mr. Wright moved to print three thousand copies of the report in pamphlet forms Mr. Souther moved to postpone the printing for one week, in order to give the miing for one week, in order to give the fin-nority an opportunity to prepare a minority Pennsylvania, Ludwick Snyder, one hundred report. With an introduction, Historical and Critical, the whole Methodically Arranged, and amply Illustrawhole Methodically Artanfra, and amply interna-ted, dc., dc., and a key to the oral Exercises with Appendixes, dc. Second Edition. Revised and Improved. With a fine portrait of the Author, engraved on Steel. 1,070 pages, large octavo, handsomely bound. Price $1,50.

OTICE is hereby given that by virtue of an or-der of the Orphans' Court, of Susquehanua coun-ty, the subscriber will expose to public sale, by ven-due, on Saturday, the 6th day of March next, at one handsomely bound. Price $1,50. The Second and Improved Edition of the work, as now offered to the public, is a considerable en-largement on the first Edition, and contains a number, of new discussions of important points in English Grammar hitherto but little examined, nevertheless of great importance to the stability of the language.— It will be seen that the work now covers the whole fold of English Grammar, and brings the subject It will be seen that the work how covers the whole field of English Grammar, and brings the subject up to the latest period of the history of the language —the peculiar views of almost every extant writer on English Grammar being, in some part of the work, either directly commented on, or incidentally

BROWN'S GRAMMAR IMPROVED. THE INSTITUTES OF ENGLISH GRAMMAR. 111E. INSTITUTES OF ENUMERIE GRAMMAR. Methodically arranged, de. de. Designed for the use of Schools, Academics, and Private Learners. By Godd Brówn. A new Stereotype edition, carefully revixed by the outhor. 335 pages, 11no.

Price 60 cents. -' The excellence of Brown's Institutes of Grammar The excellence of Brown's Iostitutes of Grammar is admitted on all hands; and notwithstanding the multitude of school grammars which have from first to last come in competition with the Institutes; it has steadily advanced in public favor, and is largely in use throughout the country. The doctrines of the work are those which are ileducible from a common sense view of the subject of language; and a just consideration of the analogies of speech. And in point of perspicuous arrangement, accuracy of defi-nition, fullness of illustration, and comprehensiveness of plan, the work is considered by competent judges to be unrivaled. In the new edition of the Institutes, teachers who have been accustomed to use the work, will see many important amplifications and improve-ments, giving to the whole more of. completeness as to the subject, and a better adaptation. It is plan to the general purposes of instruction.
