At the landing of the fort, on the day our story opens was fastened a flat boat of the kind used by the early navigators of the Western rivers. ... Upon the deck of this boat, at the moment

"O, Blanche," said one of the more venerable of her female companions, pursuing a conversation which had been maintained since quitting the open fort behind them, "I cannot bear to let you go; for it just seems to me as if something were going to happen to you; and when I feel that way, something general-
