AT THE WELL. Sur stood beside the ancient well, Like some enchanted water sprite. The rosy sunset round her fell, The hing her form with glowing light. No metic was she, though she dipped

Her backet in the fountain deep, Linching to see how silvery dripped The pater from the bending sweep. Herer langel troubled pool—
As the old legends love to say— An angel stirred the waters cool Within that well at close of day. The sunset's gold was not more bright Than the rich tresses of her hair, Just where they rounded to the light, While nestling on her shoulders fair Eyes laughing, and yet full of pride, And fuller still of love and hope; And cheeks as delicately dyed flowers which in the moolight ope. The lips halt parted, and yet mute,
The dazzling arm—the slender form,
Light perched upon one slender foot— All bathed in rosy radiance warm! As if to greet her own bright eyes, She bent above the mossy curb, I longed, yet feared, by some surprise, The beauteous vision to disturb.

JOURNAL OF REV. H. H. JESSUP.

Wilt give a thirsty traveler drink !" She gave it, with a blush divine; Wisch blinded me, that I did think

"jwas Hele standing on the brink Helicop, and dipping wine Injgobies that like gold did shine.

Tripoli, Syria, June 9th, 1859. YESTERDAY we sent about one hundred e of letters home. To day Mr. Lyons t on a little tour to some of the villages. as west with him, and much to our surse, so did Saleh, our Moslem friend. It probably the first time that a Moslem has ompanied a missionary on a preaching ar. They visited the Convent of Belmonde, out three hours south of Tripoli; and Sagired in the discussion with the Greek aks, rebuking them for their picture worup and rum drinking. This Saleh is an inesting man; of a generous disposition and very warm friend of ours, declaring everywhere in the city that the Protestant religion the only true religion besides. Islamism, deven may be right and the religion of im in the wrong. C. has walked out with to the gardens to-day to, enjoy the lusa agricuts, which are now fully ripe,ani was with us, and told us that the reawhy the Boghdad Moslem Yusef did not on the French steamer was that the French asul, Mr. Blanche, refused to give the mks a passport for him telling them that usel was a Protestant, and he was not goat to make the American Consul his enemy sending away by force an avowed Prot-

We are all well as usual. We have no rain in these days, and do not expect any sore until next October: Friday, June 11.-Clear, North wind ther warm. The North wind here is alays enervating, while the West winds are and delightful. This morning Sheikh whom I sent the garden seeds to be planthave his sword repaired, and said, "Now Hwadji, it is only a little, and I have no to our church building, in order to have a space for an entrance and room to put up a bell. As it is, we have the door on the bireet, and are to have two doors inside which will necessitate a partition, and thus take up much of our room. To-day I went to Yanni's to confer with a Moslem Moolah, ramed Affai Hassan, about buying from him covers six times as much space next to it, and we paid only two hundred and eighty collars for it, building and all. I told the man that I would have no more to say to him about the land, for even supposing that | he would come down one half, as is usual in the East, it would then be three times as on to say that the two walls of our churchamounting his land both belonged to him, and he should forbid us from opening windows view of all the stone masons and builders, and we should make as many windows as we hose, without referring to him, for we love in like manuer.

ernor receives, so that he is generally assist-ed by the Governor in all his iniquity. As This afternoon, two of the girls who attend-thou he that troubleth Israel?" ed by the Governor in all his iniquity. As the Governor in all his iniquity. As come as Yanni heard of the matter, he dispensed one of his Cawasses named. Khaleel with C., to receive instruction in worsted on. The front wall is finished. It is a thin expend, but must leave all to the truth and in the dispersion of the lessors investing the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing the following passage from Lord gate the accounts of the lessors investing gate the account to recover the lime. The Cawass marched work and reading. This evening I had a wall built up under the great grained arch, honor of the lessees, who keep their accounts of the king's malady appeared during the boldly to the Effendi's house, and seized the long talk with our Gherzhoz friends who in The upper part belongs to another person. mules, ordering the muleteers to go at once tends to unite with the Church in Beirut, on We have a door, two windows, and a little 4th. All the rights of the lessees shall also should, on receiving a signal from me, onto the house of Tromb, in the name of the Appearance of the Appear dis were standing around, and two of them seep him in office, cannot be expected to be very strictly conscientions in doing his duty. This evening we have Arabic prayers as SATURDAY, June 12.—The affair of vester. day is making a great stir among the Effen-The common people all hate the Effendis for their haughtiness and abominable iniquities, and the common name given to them is Phariseegeen, or Pharisees. The Effendis and the Governor to-day sent out into the village for the man who sold the lime to Tromb, and offered him large bribes if he would take an oath that he sold the lime to Sandrusy, and not to Tromb. The man, though a Moslem, would not do it, but went immediately to Yanni's and there testified in the presence of a great multitude that he sold it to Tromb alone, and then he told the crowd what the Governor had offered him. Did you ever hear of a more, rotten Government? There is now war, in three or four places north of Tripoli, but the imbecile Governor of Tripoli pays no attention to it.

seems begin to fear that he is going to the people spend their Sundays in the gar- cury 72. After the usual study this morntwize, but he tells them that that is none dens, in the fruit season. In the evening we ling, I prepared for the Bible lesson on Sunread one of Dr. John Tauler's sermons which day. In the afternoon at half past four, C. This afternoon, I called on Abu Selim, and was written 500 years ago. Abdullah Zeidan, and I went to the Meena. She rode Mr. armed that the school is prospering. This one of the Protestants here, is much perse- Lyon's white house, and I intended to ride a his getting a house.

wash his hands, and keep things clean enough to be tolerable. I like his appearance thus to ne tolerance. I like his appearance thus Yanni told him that he had violated the coin- others, according to the legal division of the sors and the other for the lessees. Greek, but we will give him constant instruc-

This morning work was commenced in earnest on our church. The carpenters coma little strip of land about ten feet front and menced getting out the boards for window twenty feet deep, lying next to our church frames, and the masons dug holes through on the south side. I expected to get it for the walls on one side, and began to remove about forty dollars. What, then, was my the wall on the side next the street. Lumber is very high. We pay twenty constant dollars for it just as it is, whereas our church boards three-fourths of an inch in thickness, five feet long, and from six to eight inches wide, and sixty cents for a joist fifteen feet long, and three by seven inches. The workmen move very deliberately. We are obliged to furnish them with all the tobacco they use while in our employ. This is custom, and custom is king. The master carmuch as we think right. The man then went penter has seventy-two cents a day. The master mason has sixty-eight cents a day .-The carpenters all sit on the floor, and saw boards by holding them with the left hand toward his property. I told him that the said the right toes. C. has been greatly diversed all the said to us, in the verted by the novel sight of a company of verted by the novel sight of a company of carpenters sitting on the floor, planing boards while sitting on them, and doing other things insolent class of men in the city. They lose no opportunity to oppress the poor, and impose upon those who have no means of reduces. This morning a dozen Moslem multiple of the Patriarch came in a very good dress. This morning a dozen Moslem multiple of the patriarch came in a very good of the patriarch came in the good of the patriarch came in t

And all which comes into the city and the series in the streets, and equity cannot enter."

Saleh said in the afternoon that the people the said in the afternoon that the people all of the lime which comes into the city and the series so despicable that in most cases there is no redress. So this morning the Moslems seized the mules, and took the lime to the Governor on account of an insult the said series of a farrouse the house of a famous Effendi named Sandru- offered him by the same Sandrusy, and for binding on me also, if the Lord so wills it." shall be charged to the lessors, as a debt upsy, who is the most iniquitous of them all. which the Governor would give him no re-His daughter is engaged to the Governor's dress, so Sheikh Owad has left the city in service, and I read "Religion in Common mission, or knowledge or investigation on several hours as usual in study this morning, seats are to be somewhat like those in the lee- fice, that is the rights of lease, and control of be addressing himself to two of the persons init my daughter?" seized the Cawass and shook him. The Ca- I went over to superintend our workmen.—

wass did nothing and said nothing, but re- They need constant watching or they will pulpit will have an arched recess behind it, and turned and told Yanni, who at once demand-spend their time in smoking and talking two windows above, under the groined arch.

ed an explanation from the Governor. We with the crowds who are attracted by curios | Tuesday, June 22.—One year ago at this on their neirs children and successors, and both died many years ago. True. tell: Yanni that there is little hope of getting ity to see what kind of a church the Protestants are going to make. Saleh, the Moster let it go, but he says that it will not do lem friend, spends much of his times in the is prospering us as much as all can desire. o let the Effendis go on at this rate, or there building, and argues with all who come, in will be more trouble in the future. A Gov. sisting that Protestantism is the true faith, if it upon us and this people that we may be rent, in case the lessees or their successors dead. Yes, Sir Henry Halford,' continued ernor who steals from his own people the any form of Christianity be true. He is more faithful. means for bribing his Superior the Pasha, to physically one of the strongest men in the city, and to-day when they were tearing down the wall next the street, he took the huge stone slab which was over the door on his head, and lowered it to the ground. It will weigh about three hundred pounds, being of compact limestone, seven feet long, and about a foot square. To-night, Saleh is intending to sleep in the church to keep thirty feet by forty and quite high. It is in watch, as the front wall is removed. The an eligible situation, and we made a remarkwatch, as the front wall is removed.

Moslems say, "What sleep in a church, and you a Moslem?" "Yes," he says, "and to-red and eighty dollars.

The business transaction by which we se-

Thursday, June 17 .- West wind, Mercury at 78°. I spent two hours overseeing he workmen. C. studied Arabic four hours without ces sation, and'I told her that she must not do'it again, as we cannot bear as much here as we can when in America. street for abusing his mother and sister .-

mands of God by cursing and being angry, property during the year past. And they and he could not promise to give him any have the right to dispose of it lawfully, and redress. It is very difficult for men in this this on a lease of seventy years, the beginland to give up lying, cursing, and stealing, ning of the lease to be on the first of June and even those who are trying to follow (western time) in the year of Jesus Christ II.H. Jessep [L.s.] Anner Shellary, eight en hundred and fifty-eight (1858)—and Arrong Yann, [L.s.] so that we can understand the frequent ex- this month happens in the middle of the pressions in Paul's epistles with regard to month Shoowal, the year of the Hegira one with the Greek Priests and Bishop. Monday, June 21 .- Yesterday was a very ed by acceptance and acknowledgment, and hot day. I rode to the Meena to preach in the morning, as Mr. Lyons had a headache and was not able to go. We had the usual paid in advance at the rate of 100 piastres Yanni; Yakoob Habeeb." Bible Class here in the afternoon. A Greek (or four dollars) a year rental, and ten piaspriest was present in the Meena, and I asked tres (or forty cents) to be paid yearly, behim if he ever worked on Sunday. He said | ginning with June 1st 1858. no-never, unless there was some money to be made. This morning, a paper from the leased the place above mentioned, through Greek Patriarch was read in the Greek their control of their own affairs, and their the Protestant natives and the English resident latter, looking the barber full in a too fault-finding congregation and their the Protestant natives and the English residence. Church, thundering against the Protestants. Church, thundering against the Protestants. office as agents of the Missionary Society in dents of Beirut. Dut since nearing of the Protestants. office as agents of the Missionary Society in dents of Beirut. Dut since nearing of the Protestants. It commanded the people never to send their America:—that is, the whole of the arched finances of the Board we are going to try to the On reflection, I don't intend you shall lage, who had been in the same pastorate for children to our school again, and to have no room mentioned, for the price above stipulation as much as possible here, and perhaps make my wig." It commanded the people never to send their America:—that is, the whole of the arched finances of the poard we are going to a perhaps children to our school again, and to have no room mentioned, for the price above stipulating not be obliged to call on the Board at Astonished, and with a blank visage, the are greatly enraged at such an interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $280 for the house. Last the light and not darkness. The old man tried to intimidate us by saying that he chail Giurgius from Gherzooz, came to visit notice of our examination in the Arabic should stop up the windows; but we told us. He conducted the evening prayers in newspaper, and was offended that such publications. The patriarch are greatly enraged at such an interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all. We paid $200 for interference pleasure and acceptance; and paid the seven all the s him to be careful how he interfered with Arabic. He says that the camel driver who licity should be given to the work of the the 70 years.

three months, to allow Sada to go to Hums, shape, or making it in what style they wish, not how it gratifies us to see the Church edi- foot, with a bundle on a cane over his shoul-son, and he shares the bribes which the Gov- contempt, and gone away for four days to a Life." Today, I have been studying Arabic the part of the lessors or their successors, or Little is known respecting the nature of

LETTER FROM REV. H. H. JESSUP.

TRIPOLI, Syria, June 19, 1858. My DEAR FATHER:-I write to send you copy of the contract which secures to us a building which we are now fitting up for a Church. As I have stated before, it is about as thirty years possession gives the right of or diminution. ownership in this land. The Moslems all say to us: "You have made a good bargain, Hanna the plasterer and Giurgius cuted by the Greeks in these days. They donkey from the gate, but the donkeys were there were present at the Vice Consulate of out violence, at their pleasure, on the follow- a suit of black, in memory of George III., for hight in a saw-mill, and have set up all night in a saw-mill night in a ammencing work on the church on Monday trade from him, and are trying to prevent by C's side to the Meena. We called on Tripoli of Syria, all of the signers of this in the expenses on the house and the rent re- in 1817 he appeared to have a faint glummer johnny cake and "sassenger," and we have Abu Selim, and I left C. there to talk with strument, namely: the Howadji Antonio maining, and all with interest (compound) at ing of reason again; his sense of hearing re- frequently had a gagger in the making of the This morning (Monday) we were gladden, the women, while I went with Abu Selim to Yanni, Vice Consul of America (the exalted) the rate of ten per cent. And if the lessors turned more acute than ever, and he could latter; we have eaten our share of codfish ed by the receipt of a package of letters look after a box containing some cooking from America. We are glad to hear of the utensils which we sent for to Beirut. I bot ries the Americans who are found in Tripoli, then the lessees or their successors cannot repay this money, distinguish persons by their footsteps. He and potatoes, with pork seraps, and we guess from American We are glad to hear of the utensils which we sent for to Beirut. I bot ries the Americans who are found in Tripoli, then the lessees or their successors can give likewise recollected that he had made a we have licked a proper portion of lasses safe arrival of our Milta letters, and that two or three fine sponges for daily use, as and they, the Missionary Jerre Lorenzo Ly up the house to whatever person may pay on pleasant passage. We also rejoice to hear when immense quantities of them are gath of the first part, and Saiced Mohammed and whether from the Mostans, or the first part, and Saiced Mohammed and whether from the Mostans, or the first part, and Saiced Mohammed and whether from the Mostans, in leadache and could not go to school, and of the progress of the good work among ered by men who dive for them in the sea, his brother Saiced Ahmed, the sons of Safeed ment, or the agents of the "Wukoff." whom I sent the garden seeds to be plant—have failed believe that the Lord's arm is careful from Beirut. The church work moves calculate mountain. He is a most invete—and on us without wishing to borrow money, and be has never obtained any yet. This was a day of gratulation and joy, especially to have failed to the first of the form the began to have failed to the first of the best of the form to the bottom of the building, or rengant of the best of the form to the building, or rengant of the bottom of the building, or rengant of the best of the best of the best of the follows of the building of the building, or rengant of the building, o when such good news arrives as has come to dot, when such good news arrives as has come to dot, when such good news arrives as has come to dot, when such good news arrives as has come to dot, when such good news arrives as has come to dot, in the first s To day has been a busy day. We have a peaceable man. At first he asked the first he asked then the care of the cut store and then care of the cut store and the care of the cut of the first him in the circle of our friends. He is one of the cut of the cannot read or write, but is one of the cut of the cut of the first him in the circle of our friends. He is one of the cut of the cannot read or write, but seems very willing to learn. He is to take the first of the first him to the circle of our friends. He is one of the cut of the cut of the cut of the cut of the first him in the circle of our friends. He is one of the cut of the cu the truth to excess, we did not believe that a busy day. We have of the week in our church, including the war of cut stone and lime, which is called the Basic successors to the end of the term of rental, can Journal of Insanity.

Today has been a busy day. We have get of four carpenters, three stone cutters, keet (or great Magazine) of the House of are not bound to regard the Moleumedan.

ying, stealing, &c., as applied even to-those thousand two hundred and seventy four, twenty-eight (1928)-a legal lease, confirm-office as agents of the Missionary Society in dents of Beirut. But since hearing of the the face, said :

We only need the outpouring of God's spir- above mentioned, or to increase the rate of ing intercourse with those whom you call wish to rent the house again, either for one he, assuming a lighter manner, 'it is in vain,' > right to return the property at the end of resuscitation merely, but a recreation, and seventy years, and they can only be required that; I think, is beyond my power." of the lease to its end, according to the ac- able to find respecting this period : count in the book kept under the seal of the "At intervals he still took a lively inter by the Magazine the Moolah Mustapha Abu and agreement and Saieed Mohammed and there was enough. The artist, having meas-Hassan the Butcher, on the east by the House Saiged Ahmed Shellaby have received the of Shellaby which leases this house, and north, amount of seven thousand plasters ($280,00) then requested to know the cost of it. time we hope that he will have learned to knocked him down and kicked him. Poor family and belonging to these two owners, mentioned disposition, and they have written Abdullah came to Tanni for redress, but without their sister the Sit Ammoone or any two copies of this Contract, one for the les

Given the 25th day of May, 1858. SIGNED BY

L. Lyons. [L.S.] Mohammed Shellaby [L.S. Antonio Yanni, [l. s.]

WITNESSED BY Saiced Ahmed Raghib Mufti Zanice: Ab who had received the gospel. Elias, our (1274) and the end of the lease will be in the dullah Scroff; Michaiel Hooree; Giurgius teacher, has been in a great discussion to-day year of Jesus Christ nineteen hundred and Bishbash; Alexander Catsaflitz; Amr il Warnich the Grout Prince and P wee, Kawass of American Consul; Ibrahim il Wawee: Abd il Wehed il Kinafatee (kinaffy eertainly be spoiled."

three months, to allow Sada to go to Hums, shape, or making it in what style they wish, not how it gratifies us to see the Church editor, with a bound on a case of the city twelve mule loads of lime for a Greek named Michael Tromb, who is under American protection. The who is under American protection. The church work is going on as rapidly as we can reasonably expeople can afford to obey the Patriarch for a who is under American protection. The church work is going on as rapidly as we can reasonably expeople can afford to obey the Patriarch for a it. [I may as well remark here, that there is an exceedingly low price—we would not sell pect. I have been to call on Yanni with our few months.

Saleh said in the afternoon that the people on the belong to us, and yet we have a legal Yanni says, "Satan must have been asleep to correct on the printer.

Saleh said in the afternoon that the people on the printer.

"Vell, Misther Valking Schtick, vat you few months.

Saleh said in the afternoon that the people on the printer.

"Vell, Misther Valking Schtick, vat you few months.

Saleh said in the afternoon that the people on the printer.

MADNESS OF GEORGE III. presence of the council, Sir Henry Halford get rid of you?" pulpit will have an arched recess behind it, and tres yearly, in this manner. And all that is dead, Sir Henry observed, Your Majesty Tuesnay. June 22.—One year ago at this on their neirs children and successors, and both died many years ago, 'True,' was crease or decrease.

Baitlie, pursued he, with resumed gravity 6th. The lessees above mentioned, and 'I don't know. He is an anatomist; he dis Baitlie, pursued he, with resumed gravity, their successors, and they alone, have the sects his patients, and then it would not be a to do this in case the lessors or their succes. The following memoranda of his condition thirty feet by forty and quite high. It is in sors, pay back to them or their successors, from 1812 till his death, are given by an analy vot printsh nooshpapers! I vish I may be the amount which has been expended upon onymous writer, but are well authenticated, shot if I did not tink you vas a poer old disthe house from the time of the beginning I believe, and comprise all that I have been trict school master, who vorks for notili' and cured it, is nominally a lease for seventy American Consulate above mentioned, with- est in politics. His perception was good, years, but in reality an out and out purchase, out interest or an appraisal (by the lessors) though mixed up with a number of erroneous or diminution.

7th. In case the lessors or their successors judgment unsettled; and the loss of royal the Atlas man ges in following: will not receive the house and pay this amount authority seemed constantly to prey upon say to us: "You have made a good bargain, and they and the property is fairly yours," and they carry truly say, "Who will claim it after you have had it for seventy years?" In the tenth and the pay the smooth of the bard o Saleh has been testifying to the truth to-day in an argument with the Bishop's Shemday in a grant with the Bishop's Shemday in a gr Isaw a boy undergoing punishment in the although we are under a Mohammedan Gov. And there shall be no need of asking permission from their successors; provided the less afflicted monarch engaged in singing a hymn, to school 1 and we have been log-driving on street for abusing his mother and sister.—
This afternoon we gathered plums and green corn in Ynnni's garden.

This afternoon we gathered plums and green corn in Ynnni's garden.

Monday, June 14.—Vesterday was an unusualked behind him with a whip, driving law studying. Saleh came in and spent two bars in discussion with Mr. Lyons. He wish cannot ask with cannot are sound his with cannot and the first place it is utterly in the two places in discussion with Mr. Lyons. He with cannot and the first place it is utterly in the two places in the city of seens willing to hear about Christianity, we seen will see the contract drawn proposed it as much as any of them the principal streets in the city, and accompanying himself on the law constant and a chain around his waist was fastened to them. A man walked behind him with a whip, driving and a contract drawn up at the Belgian Consulate, and all the first of the Moslem law take around the with cannot the first of the city of the conduct the Bible class in the city, and accompanying himself on the law on hand the first of the harpsichord. After he had concluded the hymn, ho kneth to see pay yearly the one hundred and ten price and see pay yearly the one hundred and ten price and accompanying himself on the law price of tistelf, as in the first place it is utterly and conduct the Bible class in the city, and accomplaying himself on the harpsichord. After he had concluded the hymn, ho kneth whip, driving the time of the conduct the Bible class in the city, and conduct the Bible down, pract of the city of the conduct the Bible and concluded the hymn, ho kneth whip, driving th him sign it. Mostem law would be a good study for a "Philadelphia lawyer," as the proverb has it.

The contract is as follows:

"Reasons of the writing and order of its lines."

The contract is as follows:

Reasons of the writing and order of its lines."

The contract is as follows:

The contract is as follows:

Reasons of the writing and order of its lines."

The contract is as follows:

The contract is as follows:

The contract is as follows:

Reasons of the writing and order of its lines."

The contract is as follows:

The populace, or in case the lease of consult of the king; 'said an attendant, 'Mrs. S.' 'Mrs.'

S.! 'rejoined the king; 'said an attendant, 'Mrs. S.' 'Mrs.'

S.! 'rejoined the king; ' "It is this:—At the time of this writing ors shall descend from this agreement with idea that he was dead, and said, I must have sucked it with a straw. We have set up at which were placed several pianos and harpsi. have had teeth pulled with a piece of strong wholly to his bed, and on the 29th of Janua- of the late Mr. Justice Maule: "May God

Piquant Anecdote.

A spice merchant of Constantinople, carrying a piece of fine cloth tota tailor, desired to have a cloak made out of it, and inquired if Court is," &c. " "Five sequins," replied the customer, was the price; and, considering the quality, | "hen" (N division;) "Do you mean the that is not at all dear." The tailor paused a moment:

he to the spice dealer, at length, "and mon hesitating witness, in a case from which it cy is an object to me. Give metwo sequins might have been expected that the softer and I will show you how you may save three sex would long since have retired, but which in this affair."

was produced and paid. 'It is well!" said the man of the needle I am a person of my word. This cloth has cost you live sequins, and I have promised ning Post, in referring to the annual exercises to save you three. Take it to some other of the literary institutions and the number of tailor, and Allah direct you to one of more graduates thrown upon the country, gives the experience—for I have never made such a following illustration of the magical effects, dress as you want, and if I attempt it, it will which the bestowal of titles sometimes pro-

This reminds us of an anecdote related of Sheridan, who went to a hair-dresser to or nual crop of doctorates. In the morning mader a wig. On being measured, the barber ny persons will arise men, and in the evening With regard to the cost of our Church, I who was a liberal soul, invited the orator to will go to bed Doctors of Divinity or Doctcannot state the exact amount. The Mission take some refreshments in an inner room. ors of Civil and Canon Law. There are some voted us $400, which we were to apply for Here he showed so much genuine hospitality 2nd. The Howadjis above mentioned have to the Board at home. Then we hoped to leased the place above mentioned, through get one or two hundred dollars here from the total and were about septimes put a sudden dot the complaints of they rose from the table and were about septimes put a sudden dot the complaints of other exclaimed— "Good Heaven! Mr. Sheridan, how can I

"Why, look you," said Sheridan, "you

"Supper and lotchin I reckon?" Yes, sir, supper and lodging, if you

"Pe ye a Yankee pedler, mit chewelry in your pack, to sheat the gals ?"

"No, sir, I am no Yankee pedler." "A singing-master, too lazy to work?" "No, sir."
"A shenteel shoe-maker vat loves to measure te gals' feet and hankles better tan to and beginning a sermon on the text, "Art any others or those who have charge of the the delasions which possessed the king's make te shoes?"

thou he that troubleth Israel?" workoff (or tax,) nor can the lessors investing mind, but the following passage from Lord. "No, sir, or I should have mended my own shoes.

"A book achent, yat bodders te school committee till da do vat you vish choost to "Guess again, sir. I am no book agent."

"Te tydfels! a dentist, preaking to peo-ple's jaw at a dollar a shung, and running off No, sir, I am no tooth-puller." "Phrenologus, ten, feeling the young folks-head like so much cabbitch?" 'No, I am no phrenologist." "Vell, ten, vat te mischief can you be?-Choost tell, and you shall have the best sassage for supper, and shray all night, free gratis, mitout a cent, and a chill of whiskey to start mit in the morning." "I am an humble disciple of Faust-a proyear or many years, for the above mentioned so far as I am concerned, that you kill your fessor of the art that preserves all arts—a typrice, that is 110 plastres a year, without in-patients. Yes, Dr. Baille — but, Baille, pographer at your service." Votsch dat?"

"A printer, sir; a man that prints books and newspapers."

"A man vot printsh' nooshpapers! oh yaw! yaw! ah, dat ish it. A man vot prints nodshpapers! Yaw! yaw! Vaulk up! a man boards round, I thought you vas him."

A Yankee. THE Boston Olive Branch having called But we own up to the Yankee, and feel no thread, and have popped corn in the ashes; we have turned the grindstone all day to sharpen a new axe, swopped jack knives, broken steers and colts, set traps for skunks and woodchucks, tapped our own shoes, "licked" the schoolmaster, robbed the milk-pans of the cream and laid it to the cat, pitched into the apple "sass," hooked maple: sugar, and numberless other things "too numerous to mention."

JUDICIAL HUMOR .- The Law Review gives the following as some instances of the humor strike me dead, my lord, if I did it," exclaimed a convicted prisoner on the announcement of the verdict; for a marked space the Judge sits in an attitude of expectation, jury and spectators wondering what next; at last, he breaks the silence; "As Providence has not seen fit to interpose, the sentence of the You have already read that section four times, Mr. -; it's itera--A city policeman states that he is in the poultry !" inquires the Judge, "Out with it, the ladies don't mind it, and you needn't "I am but a beginner in the trade," said, be afraid of me," was his exhortation to a they were manfully sitting out, while the "I agree," said the other, and the money evidence grew hotter and hotter, and at last reached its climax.

EFFECTS OF TITLES .- The New York Eve-

duces: uces:
"This is the season, too, for sowing the ancases when the conferring of the degree of is told of a clorgyman in a New England villength sensibly diminishing. His people do sired a change they wanted it smarter many Some of his friends; however, signed a petition, carried it to a New England college, ten piastres, now and henceforth to the end of the 70 years.

3d. After the leasing of the room above written to the Sunday School children for a shan't make the wig, for I never intend to charm. His remaining years with the sunday School children for a shan't make the wig, for I never intend to charm. His remaining years will be supported by the sunday School children for a shan't make the wig, for I never intend to charm. American property. There has been a great was made priest in Gherzooz, comes to his protestants. The fact, too, that we are gostic in the city today. The Moslem Effen: house almost every night for instruction in ling on steadily with the building of our mentioned shall become, clis are notoriously the most conceited and the Gospel. He (Michaiel) was greatly in church, excites the animosity of the Priests in all ownership and right, under the control. the genuine has a femule figure standing erest 11 17 in that corner.