The Free-State Men of Kansas on the Sham Democracy.

We find in the Kansas Herald of Freedom the proceedings of a County Convention of the Free-State men of Douglas County, Kansas, held Sept. 20th, 1858. The following are the resolutions adopted by the Convention:

We, the Free State party of Douglas Co., in Delegate Convention assembled, do declare:

That the whole history of the DEMOCRATIC PARTY, in its tyrannical and bloody rule over the people of Kansas, during the last four years, shows it to be the unrelenting and bitter foe of popular rights and the freedom of the people:

That the efforts of the DEMOCRATIC PARTY to force the Lecompton Constitution upon the people of Kansas, in known opposition to their expressed will, deserves universal execration, and should stamp it with perpetual infamy.

That the DEMOCRATIC PARTY, in its adoption and support of the English Bill, deliberately insulted the people of Kansas, thro' the double medium of a bribe and a threat, and richly deserves the overwhelming rebuke which the people gave it through the ballot-box on the 2nd of August last.

That the appointment, by the DEMOCRATIC PARTY, of such wretches and criminals as Clark, Emory, Jones, and their companions, to offices of honor, is a premium on crime and villainy, and a shame and reproach to the nation.

That in opposition to the Dred Scott decision, and the declaration of the DEMOCRATIC PARTY, WE ASSERT THE GREAT REPUBLICAN DOCTRINE, that it is both the right and the duty of the people of Kansas to make it a free TERRITORY, AND KEEP IT SO.

That the United States Constitution is an instrument of freedom, and does not, as the DEMOCRACY assert, carry slavery into the Territories of the United States.

That we refer all questions of suffrage, of Banks, and the like, to the people themselves, to be settled by them at the ballot-box.

That nominees of this Convention endorse this platform of principles, and pledge themselves to vote for a law abolishing slavery in this Territory, and making it a penal offence to attempt to hold slaves here.

That, planting ourselves on these great truths of REPUBLICANISM, WE PLEDGE OURSELVES TO WAGE AN ETERNAL WAR ON THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, in its vile attempt to force slavery upon this territory, as well as with its more general efforts for the nationalization of slavery throughout our common country.

Inasmuch as there has been an unjust discrimination made in favor of the admission of Slave States, and against the admission of Free States into the Union, in the legislation of Congress upon the Lecompton Constitution, we are in favor of presenting to Congress, at as early a day as practicable, a Constitution of the State of Kansas, fully endorsed by the people, with the demand for admission into the Union, upon an equality with the several States.

The Elective Franchise.

It is an unquestionable fact, that one-third of our legal voters care too little about their right of suffrage to exercise it. They stay at home on election day, and thus allow others to rule them. Yet the same men would fight to the death in defence of what they thus neglect. It is estimated that the actual number entitled to vote in this State at the present time exceeds 700,000. The total vote of November, 1857, was 440,206—less by 264,098 than the whole number. Who were they that staid away from the polls? Not the dissipated, reckless, and venal. Such were all on the spot—they always are. They all voted at least once. Rain or shine, they perform their duty. Business never keeps them from election. Bad roads have no terrors for them. They vote early and vote often, and would be ready every month, if their country should need their patriotic services so frequently. On the other hand, the stay-at-home citizens are usually the very men who should always vote. They are the sort of people who do not live by politics, and do not seek office. Let them not grumble when matters go wrong. Rather let them blame their own neglect. There is every probability that at least 200,000 voters will remain away from the ballot-box at the approaching election.—N. Y. Times.

.... Col. Forney was in New York a few days ago, and some of his friends, who hold office under the Government, entertained him. And now it is said that their heads are to fall for the offence. The President seems to be digging down to new depths of meanness every day.

.... The South Carolina Guardian publishes a platform for the approaching campaign. The principal plank is the dissolution of the American Union, the perfect independence of the cotton growing States, and the establishment and rigid enforcement of a non-intercourse act, cutting off all communication and trade between the people of the Northern States and the entire Southern section.

.... Col. J. G. Freeze, formrly editor of the Bradford Times, and for a short time Post Master at Towanda, has been nominated for State Senator, in place of C. R. Buckalew, in the Columbia district.

.... At St. Paul's a few days ago, one James Buchanan was badly whipped—but not the right one.—Louisville Jour.

.... Those who hold allegiance to the so called Democratic party, love to thrive, like to see the country prosper, just as well as we and our party friends, but they do not believe it is their party which checks prosperity. Their party leaders deceive them.

.... Taking it for granted that the news by the steamer "Moses Taylor," of the success of the Administration party in California, is true, our readers should recollect that the Lecompton State Convention took special pains to ignore the Kansas policy of the Administration, and that every effort was made to obtain the support of the American element in the recent contest. But we await our letters and mails, which, at this writing, have not yet come to hand.—Philadelphia Press.

.... The Providence Transcript says there is a lady in that city so aristocratic that she refuses to take a newspaper because it is made of rags.

.... Many, who had an idea that the "pay of ten cents a day," was all a humbug during the campaign of 1856, have since found out to their sorrow, that the song contained a great deal more truth than music.

.... A shaver, the Haidee, fitted out from this port, ran 900 chattels into a Cuban port, was abondoned by her Captain, sailed North by the mate, but having no papers which wo'd permit her entry into port, she was sunk off the eastern end of Long Island.

A colored man named William Brodie, of the back Overman of New York, who was convicted some time since in Darien, Ga. of attempting to invigle slaves was last week hired out for sixty-five years to Mr. James B. Stripling of Talbot County, Maryland, for $553, the amount of fine and costs of suit.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

—Where the above preparation is known, it is so well established as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza or Hooping Cough, Croup, Pleurisy, Pain in the Breast, Liver Complaint, Asthma, and every form of PULMONARY COMPLAINT, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits. Discovered by a well known physician more than twenty years since, it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly upon lasting in public favor, until its use and reputation are alike universal; and it is now known and cherished in all and their name is legion, who have been restored to health by its use as the GREAT REMEDY for all the diseases which it professes to cure.

Sir Charles Clark, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

This is history—it is—Medicine fully established. Opinion of that cabinet won. Thousands can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this has completely cured; that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief; that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold or a Confirmed Consumption, and its power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant, and effectual remedy cannot be questioned.

☞ Caution! Purchase none unless it has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper, as well as the printed name of the proprietors.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The immense sale of this preparation is the best proof of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis and Pulmonary Affections and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, including Consumption, its efficacy, is astonishing and its value incalculable. The only genuine has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" as well as the printed name of the Proprietor on the outer wrapper.

In her death society looses one of its brightest ornaments, the church to which she belonged a living witness for Christ, and her own household the best of all earthly friends. GODDARD, WARFIELD'S & DR. I. L. ALLEN'S PATENT DEVICES,

For Lowering and Raising

CARRIAGE TOPS.

BY the use of this improvement, the Carriage top can be raised or lowered so as to either the right or the left, the outside or the inside, thereby avoiding the difficulty heretofore existing of opening one side and then the other, on the opposite side, as well as the extreme care necessary to prevent the top from falling so heavily as to break the bows, props, &c. This is effected by means of a small lever in connection with the hollow prop, to which an arm rod or holder is attached. The top may also be raised or lowered with PERFECT EASE, by means of the lower lever, which is usually placed at the right hand side of the seat, the weight of the top being nearly balanced by two spiral springs attached to the through or connecting rod, which ease it down while in the act of falling, and assist in raising it. The cost for materials, &c., on a carriage is but trifling, considering the great utility.

The undersigned having purchased the exclusive right of the above Patent, in the counties of Susquehanna, Bradford, Luzerne, and Wyoming, will sell rights in said counties, and will manufacture Carriages with the improvement attached, at his shop, in Montrose.
