We have received a somewhat long communication the substance of which is that those in the habit of disturbing the Singing School at the M. E. Church in Jackson, ought not to do so. That is also our opinion.

The following additional subscrip tions to the fund for the sufferers by the ao cident in Montrose, are furnished for publication: Urbane Burrows, $10; S. B. Chase, · $10.

A telegraphic dispatch from Washington states that early in the session a Pacific Railroad bill will be introduced, granting land and money to three routes in proportion to the amount of private capital that may be invested in each. It is urged that this will lead to the selection of the best route by capitalists irrespective of political interests.
