Book that old and young believe in, All-mee-nak we all have faith inlarked the hour of his outgoing, Fixed the date of his departure So he left as I have stated-Left, because he couldn't help it-Being advertised to do so.

Or about a minute after-Hopeful, wide-awake, and carnest Came the long expected New Year, Fif-tee-nine, the gallant New Year : And, as now he smiles upon you With his first glad look of welcome, He who writes these straggling measures, He with lives by making faces, (That is, he who tries to do so;) Its who this is up catching shadows In the plate behind the lenses-Your obedient humble servant) Comes and makes his how before you, Wishing you a happy New Year, Prosperous, bright, and happy New Year.

Should you ask me why this greeting, Why this happy New Year's recting, I should answer, I should tell you, I should speak up quick and tell you Cause that everybody does so, Cause it is a world-wide fashion, Everywhere you hear it ringing-Boys who wish for heart-shaped candies. fors who wish for near-snaped cannic firls who wish for sugar kisses; Bigger boys who wish for sweet hearts Made of something more than candy; Older girls who wish for kisses-From their beaux, admirers, lovers ; / Old folks wishing for some token from a generous son or daughter. Thus they here and there are wishing Some in this way, some in that way, All desire to be remembered, That's the why I come to greet you, "Cause I, too, would be remembered, Not with sticks of lasses candy, But with something more substantial, The your patronage I ask for, That I may not feel the pressure of that fellow, Dred-ful-hard-tymes, So that I may yet recover From his rude assault of last year, From the damage done my pocket, Making my poor purse look empty, Like an clephant had stepped on't; All because my friends forgot me, Thinking I could live as toads do, Feed on air, or feed on nothing, Which, allow me here to:mention Is about as loig a blunder As you could have well committed. Come, then, during this, the New Year, To my Gallery in the Phenix, To my Gallery in the Fnemx, Mock of brick, surnamed the Phenix, To my mome upon the third floor,

Sky-light Parlor on the third flo ome and bring your friends and neighbors. Bring your fathers and your mothers While their forms still linger with you, Bring the little ones along, too, Life, you know, is very fleeting, Ere the bud becomes a blossom It may fade away and leave you. Haste ye, then, to Deans the Artist, Fre this New Year's salutation
