A CHRISTMAS HYMN.

It was the calm and silent night! Seven hundred years and fifty-three had Rome been growing up to night...

ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Read before the Medical Society of Susquehanna County, January, 1859, by G. Z. DIMOCK, M. D.

In complying with the appointment with which I am honored, Mr. President, I shall endeavor to bring to your recollection something of the early history of the Society over which you are called this day to preside...

It is established. After Thompsonism, and following out of its fossil remains, come the Botanic Practitioners, formed upon two lucid principles—Metals and Minerals are in the Earth, and being extracted from the earth...

It is a great thing, worthy the study and labor of life, to relieve the sufferings of fallen humanity, but it is a greater thing to lengthen the days of man upon this earth...

LOVE SONG. O, morn, deep and tender, A year, and more ago, You met me in the garden, Bound my faithful slave!

Migration of Birds. The study of the migration of birds is particularly interesting. Many of our land birds probably are guided instinctively in their journeys by the course of our great rivers and mountain ranges, and our water birds by the trending of our coast line...
