Absolutely, there can be no more a legal marriage between two slaves, than between two articles of furniture, or between two brutes. They "take up together," they do not marry. No clergyman dare pronounce two slaves husband and wife till death shall separate them. The will of the master is their fate: The Bible says: "What God hath joined together, let not man put asun-The slave system says: Who cares der." for God ? I will separate them when I please. A slave who is a church member is taught by his religious teachers that it is his duty, on being sold from one plantation to another leaving a so-called wife behind, to take anotholis. er mate; and the reason assigned by these ious instructors is, that in this way he can be most profitable to his master, which is his first and paramount duty. Thus he may, as a good Christian, take up with a new woman on every plantation to which he is sold .-This has been formally so decided by an ecclesiastical council. And yet these blas-phemers seek to make God a partner in this revolting practice. The Bible everywhere requires an equivalent to be given for services rendered. "Woe unto him that buildeth his house, by unrighteousness and that useth his neigh bor's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work." "Behold, the hire of the laborers who have reaped down your fields, which by you is kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them that have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord, of Sabaoth." Slavery never allows any wages at all to those who garner in its harvest. To say that the clothing and food that the slave re-ceives are wages, is to say that the hay, grain, and stabling of the horse, are wages. These constitute the keeping of the horse and of the slave ; wages they are not. It is frequently said, that although individuals may do wrong, yet the system is right. Now, it is against the system that I speak The truth is, the individuals are better than the system. The humanity-and, in my charity, perhaps, I ought to say Christianity -of the master often triumphs, to a great extent, over the system. If every master exemplified the extreme capability of the system for outrage and diabolism, an indignant world would rise and wine it ont. Little cherub, nurs'd and shelter'd On a loving mother's breast. Scarcely had those eyes been open'd

To the mysteries of Earth; Scarce the rosy lips had utter'd Words of love, and infant mirth

Strange that bud so fondly cherish'd. Resting on its parent stem, -Should expand in realms of glory, On the Savior's diadem.

She was lent --- a precious blessing, Thus the parents' hearts to win; But from earth our Father call'd her, Ere her soul was marr'd with sin.

Though so young, abelov'd the Savior, And like him, a cross would bear; Now het infant voice is praising Him she loves in glory there.
