Buckwheat is often sown too early. Wher and where the whiskey was better."

LET IT ALONE. - It is a common assertion, in regard to error, "Let it alone, it will die of itself." But such is not the case. Every wrong, every error, and all the falsehoods which curse the world, will exist until earnest and fearless mer have nobly labored to refute and destroy them. You night as well sit down in a burning house and expect the fire to go out of its own accord, as for error to expire until reason arises to combat it .--Let every one, therefore, who has it in his power to destroy an error or establish a of the crop by frost in the fall, when sown early, and the destruction of the crop by frost in the fall, when sown with all the zeal and energy God has conferred upon him.

A cotemporary pathetically asks, "what shall we do with society?" Let it alone, we ing; but latterly the practice is to pasture answer, and turn your attention to reforming the land, and break up immediately before answer, and turn your attention to reforming individuals. Once get the men and women to think and act properly; and "society" will be all right. This cry about the "depravity of the uses of buckwheat, we need not of society" is all a grand humbug, and is only used by men who are afraid to particular. on a cold winter's morning. It is good food ize instances of vice and corruption. Like for poultry. Hogs thrive upon and are fond some fashionabie preachers, they talk about of it.
