

Dr. W. C. Hall, Dr. Blakeslee & Bruch, J. DuBois, A. A. Hall, J. W. Smith & Co.

Bacon & Weeks, F. Lines, Henry O. Tyler, William H. Cooper & Co.

H. Garratt, G. F. Farham, J. H. Smith, Keeler & Stoddard.

E. H. Rogers, H. D. Bennett, William B. Simpson.

Hayden Brothers, William & William H. Jessup.

Wm. H. Jessup, Bentley & Fitch, Albert Chamberlain.

A. Bushnell, William N. Grover, Dr. A. Gifford.

Dr. G. Z. Dimock, Dr. E. F. Wilmont, Mr. M. Smith.

C. D. Virgil, R. Thayer, Abel Turrell.

J. Lyons & Son, Read & Co., Baldwin & Allen.

J. Cobb, NEWS OFFICE, Millinery.

FREEDOM AND RIGHT AGAINST SLAVERY AND WRONG. MONTROSE, PA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1859.

VOL. 5. FROM THE CHICAGO PRESS AND TRIBUNE. NO. 40.

HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, AT COLUMBUS, OHIO. THE COPYRIGHT ESSAY EXPLODED.

Squatter Sovereignty Identical with the Slave Trade.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 16th, 1859.

[All Ohio is in commotion. From the Lakes to the Ohio river, the people are excited with the political question. Your reporter arrived here last evening and found the people in the highest excitement, seemingly one and all—politicians, merchants, shopkeepers, and mechanics, and the circle of society at the hotels—engaged in talking politics, fighting the battles of Democracy and Rationing, discussing copyright sovereignty and Congressional legislation, and all eagerly expecting the coming of Abraham Lincoln, who had oversteered the Little Republic in Illinois, whither from his declining life he had just returned from the Freeport debate, and had just quitted his office as Secretary of War. Each man had his own views on Lincoln, and was ready to discuss his opinions of his life, his career, his character, his political position, and his future prospects.]

Mr. Lincoln, when he came to Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 16th, 1859, was met by a large number of his friends called on him at his hotel, to a man of whom so much has been said, to welcome him to the State, and express their gratitude to him for the aid of his strong arm in this matter. Three o'clock was the hour at which he was announced to speak, but immediately the dinner crowd began to collect about the State House.

Mr. Lincoln began speaking at three o'clock, and continued about two hours. He spoke with a more deliberate manner than during the Illinois campaign, but with much impressiveness and great clearness of enunciation, keeping a dull, stony voice throughout. On being introduced to the audience by the Hon. Geo. M. Peck, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, Mr. Lincoln said:

Follow Officers of the State of Ohio—It is a great honor to me to be here for the first time, and to be in the presence of an audience so large and so distinguished as this. I am glad to hear that you are all well, and that you are all engaged in the same noble and patriotic cause. I am glad to hear that you are all engaged in the same noble and patriotic cause.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

Mr. Lincoln then spoke of the Freeport debate, and of the result of it. He said that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate, and that he had been very much pleased to see the result of the debate.

we do. All I ask of you, Judge Douglas, is to stick to the proposition that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

Scott's decision, and do not wish to see the Union divided. I am satisfied that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)

There is another point to which I wish to refer. I wish to refer to the fact that the men of the Revolution understood subject better than we do now, and with this I am satisfied. (Applause.)