A Hard Winter.—The present is said to be the hardest winter since 1832. We had no January thaw, and seem likely not to have any in February. The snow is now very deep in this region, and drufted terribly. In many places the roads are completed the dill-d with snow to the tops of the tences on each side. Roads are extemportized through fields, and after all it is almost impossible to get through with a team on many of them. The road from Montrose to Dimock is especially horrible at present, and travel on it is nearly suspended. If this weather continues much longer, todder must be extremely swarce and dear.

Dear Purent:—I am a prisoner in Rchmond. I am quartered in the tobacco ware-house. My health is good, and I am in fine spirits, hoping to be exchanged or paroled soon. I was captured on the 19th of Oct at the battle of Cedar Creek. There are seven of Company II here. Their names are as follows:—Bergeant W. E. Southworth, C. S. Gates, W. H. Orrs. Charles Barrett, N. Bowers, J. W. Stephens, and Dan. McCreeken, and you will please publish our names in the Independent Republican. I must close, Give my love to all. I remain, as ever, your Juy, 1863. I chanced to meet Severy at S. S. Ingal's store, in Gibson. He shall that he wanted to speak with me privately, and took me up into Ingal's shade chamber. He then told me that he had been wanting to speak to me for some time; that he knuw of some things that were greatly for my incress to know; that there was a secret organization against the Government and Government officers; and that I was in danger. He then exacted of me a promise of secrecy before he would tell me any more, which promise I granted him. He then went on with his story about the organization, the substance of which is in my affidavit, dwelling at length on particular points, especially the danger I was in, warmag me to be on my guard at all times, and say nothing that was calculated to trintate, if I had subything to do with those he gave me to understand belonged to the order, althoursh he called no name at that time. I did not fully believe all he said at that time, and asked him if he was excited and making more of it than there was. He assured me, in the must positive terms, that he was telling me the truth. He said that he had told his father about it, and his father advised him to come and see me.

The following letter announces the death of Northrop Candeld, of this county, who fell in the attack on Fort Fisher: throp Cantield, of this county, who fell in the attack on Fort Pisher:

FORT FIRHER, Jan 20th, 1965.

Mrs. Elizabeth Canfield:—Draw Madam:—It is with sorrow that I announce to you the sad fate of your husband, Northrop Canfield, 203 P. V., who was kild while bravely advancing in the charge on Fort Fisher, on Sundsy, Jan. 25th.

May God anixin you and your little ones in this sad bereavement. Many have failen and many must mourn. Even the triumphant shouts of victory can not alleviate your loss, but a graft ful country will. I hope, never forget to sympathize with and kindly care for the loved ones of those who have bravely given their lives in her sacred cause. Your husband was probably brought out wounded; and you can write to Cinplain J. Paten, 5 U. S. C. T., 25 Army Corps, via Furtress Monroe. He will probably be able to give fuller information than is in my own power. Yours very slacerely.

Dear Elizabeth, thou has left us, And t y loss we deeply feel; But 'the God who has bereit us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Mourn not ye, whose child bath found Purer skies and holler ground, Flowers of bright and pleasent hne, Free from thorns and fresh with dew. Moura not ye, whose child hath fled To you winged angel band, To a brighter fairer land.

Knowledge in that clime doth grow, Free from weeds of toll and woe, Joys which mortals may not share; Mourn ye not your child is there. P. D. B.

WHEATCROFT-In Forest Lake, Jan. 1st, 1865 D Edward, son of M. E. Wheateroft, aged 1 year the and 20 days. There's a fresh little mound in the grave yard,
Where often I'll wander and weep:
There's a dear vacant post on my pillow,
Where sweet little Eadle did sleep. There were pretty blue eyes, but they slumber, In slience beneath the dark mould; And the little pet lamb of our number Has gone to the heavenly fold. [Com
