he Fourth.—Preparations are making in varicourts of the Country to celebrate the coming 4th ally on a scale far surpassing that of former.

The glorious triumph of our Government its enamies, the prospect of a return of peace inton to our country, promising a brilliant cato the nation in future, and the return of our am heroes to their homes, all sflord great cause rejoicing on that day. Let the bells peal clearrice shouts rise higher, and the cannon roar con that day than ever before. Though we cannot much has yet been done towards a proclebration of the day in Montrose, we doubt that it will be done in due time. Is and Abuse of Ice.—The drinking of iced is in considerable quantity is highly injurious, in some cases their use has been attended with manuation of the stomach and bowels and even iden death—not always accounted for by the new bring in heat. Ice, or leed water, retards discome chills the body, and often produces most arctious congestions. On the other hand, ice or water applied to inflammations, croup, etc., has included in the cases, and carries off twees of heat. A piece of ice laid on the wrist in many cases, stop bleeding of themose. If the bound is the context of the context is the context in the context is the context in the context i portant to Manufacturers.—It is a fact of tather to manufacturers, though not generally stood that, by the act amendatory of the innovance act, passed March 3d, 1935, an innovance act, passed March 3d, 1935, an innovance act is not provided in the original act is ordered to be herefayed and collected on all goods, wares, and madisc therein mentioned, with the exception make therein mentioned of the manufacturers of oil, of paper of all discriptions, oracido. The effect of this amendment is to be a few duties upon most of the manufacturers section to six per cent. ad redorm. This intend will be of special service to those who mided to render monthly returns of their busriant to .Manufacturers .- It is a fact of on! Bush for Cotton Goods.—The New Yan cautions housekeepers, consumers generarants the stories of dealers in prints and mustic effect that these articles will soon run up at beyond 50 cents a yard, and that other goods they and 50 cents a yard, and that other goods go up in the same proportion. At this mogode are not abundant in the market, the detart large and the prices are up. But it must me in mind, that all the cotton mills, many of had suspended temporarily until quite revare now all running on full time and to indicate apacity. Every indication points to the before a great many weeks.

? Contradiction .- Fannie Brown, in a letter to I contradiction.—Fannie Brown, in a letter to editor of the INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN, alleges Mr. Kent's account of a conversation with Harrison Brown, of New-Milford, on the assistation of the President, is false. She says that was present, and that, although Mrs. Brown id some expressions that she probably would not be used it she had not been angry, she did not use awful language concerning the murdered President and the statement is not true. The Small Pox.—Our Borough has been visited to that loathsome disease, Small Pox. As near we an learn there were twenty cases in all, four dividing proved fatal. One of the worst cases was not of Conductor Benedict, who died. Another sween should be considered that the conductor Benedict, who died. Another sween should be considered to the disease from which the death that third from laying out a child that died with it, four gnorant of the disease from which the death that child ensued. He is still in a critical condition of the disease from which the death of the most of those attacked we learn had the rest mall pox and not varioloid. A few cases of the side are reported now, but the worst is over. It is at present less cause for alarm. During the excitement business has been somewait in the continuous security instrate, and vaccination has been the order fills as the continuous security instrate, and vaccination has been the order distinction of the opportunity to be re-vaccinated and hand, doubly secure against the fell disease. The impression abroad that people were dying from at a rapid rate and that sixty or a hundred dasse were reported, is entirely erroneous.

Our Kallen Rerves.

GATES-Killed, at Rice Station, on the 6th of April, Mr. Elwood Gates, son of Geo. Gates, eq. of Dimock, Susquehanna county, Pa.

When our country called for soldiers to suppresa, Rebellion and maintain the supremacy of the Laws, this young here was among the first to respond. He would be company H. Helst Regt. P. V., from which be was honorably discharged upon the failure of his health, which beling restored, he entered the service again in Company H. 89th N. Y., and continued through the war—unburt amid the desperate engagements before Petersburg, but fell in intercepting Lee's retreat, at Rice Station, pierred by three balls, either of which would have produced death, which he and it in the war months he nobly fell in the defense of his country, and another household is draped in mourning, but not without a hope that his spirit rests with God, awaiting the final summons to a glorious reconstruction, where the smoke of battle will never curl and Rebellion come no more.

His remains were brought home and repose in the burial grounds at Dimock Corners, Pa.

HATCH—In New Milligrd, March 31st, 1865, of smallpox, Reuben Hatch, aged fifty-one years, three months, and eight days.

After suffering several days with this terrible disease, he gently fell asleep in the arms of his Saviour, whom he had loved and served for twenty-two years: leaving a wife and daughter to mourn the less of a kind and affectionate husband and parent, and the community a worthy citizen.

One we loved has left our number, For the dark and silent tomb; Closed his eyes in deathless slumber, Bids farewell to earthly bloom; Hear us, Father,— Thou hast left a lonely home.

From our little circle, Father, Early hast thou pass'd away! But the angels say—Another Jöhns our holy song to-day; Weep no longer— Join with them the sacred lay.

Weep no longer—Join with them the eacred lay. A. E. H. PINCKNEY—Mr. Wm. T. Pinckney, an old and highly respected resident of New-York City, died on Snnday morning at two o'clock, of apopiexy. He has long been placed in positions of trust by his fellow citizens, which he has always filled so as to give entire satisfaction, always holding himself above reproach, either publicly or privately. Formerly a resident of the Seventh Ward, he represented that Ward for over twelve years in the Board of Education, and when the first Ten Governors were spointed over the Alma House, he was designated by the Governor of the State to occupy one of the chairs. After his turn had run out he was re-appointed to fill a vacency occurring in the Board, and subsequently was re-elected to the position by the public. He was President of the Astor Fire Insurance Company from its organization, and retained the position until taken away by death. The funeral services took place Wednesday, May 24th, at 31. P. M., in the Church of the Holy Trinity, corner of Madison-avenue, shd Forty-second-street. There was quite a large gathering present, including many of our oldest and most highly honored citizens, men who have been associated with him either privately or publicly for many years; representatives of the Astor Fire Insurance Company, of which he was President at the time of his death; ex-Governor of the Alms House; officers of the Board of Education, and many others were present to witness the last earthy tokens of respect given to one who richly deserved their esteem while living. The Rev. Mr. Tyng, the pastor of the church, conducted the exercises. The remains were placed in the Second street Cemetery for the prevent. They will be removed to the family tomb as soon as practicable.

BENNETT--In Auburn, March 5th, 1865, of brain fever, Melvin A. Bennett, son of Elias and Mary J. Bennett, aged fourteen years, five months and ten days.

AUSTIN—At Susquehanna Depot, on May Sist, 1865, Maria L., wife of I. N. Austin, agod thirty-five years, nine months, three weeks and one day.

No marble can her worth impart, 'Tis written on my bleeding heart; Her spirit gone, her virtues will Forever live in memory still.
