THE CHAPTER OF INFAMY.

The country is to be flooded with histories of the Great Rebellion. The least said is soonest mended. It is enough to know the leading facts. We give below a brief epitome of what it has done:

It shot down Federal soldiers in Baltimore, on their way to defend the National Capital.

It fired on the Flag of our country at Fort Sumter.

It seized the public Forts and Armories and robbed the national mints and depositories.

It organized an armed force hostile to the United States.

It shot down the soldiers of the Republic on a hundred battle fields.

It discarded both human and divine justice. It perverted the spirit of our free institutions.

It attempted to rivet the chains of our bondage tighter on the hands of the African.

It forced men into arms against their own government.

It murdered loyal people, drove the defenceless from their homes, outraged their families, stole their treasures, burnt their dwellings, ravaged their fields.

It organized lawless bands for indiscriminate murder and pillage.

It threw treason loaded with innocent women and children from the track and robbed them of their valuables.

It spread desolation and woe throughout the land.

It filled our homes with widows and orphans. It fastened an immense war debt on the nation.

It captured and burnt our merchant vessels on the high seas.

It starved and murdered our prisoners of war. It burnt our churches.

It violated the most solemn oaths.

It shot down our soldiers in cold blood, after they had surrendered at Fort Pillow.

It organized bloody riots in the Northern cities.

It tried to fire the city of New York.

It made a raid on a defenceless town on the Northern border and robbed its banks.

It tried to introduce the Yellow fever into our Northern cities.

It violated all obligations, and disregarded all laws.

Finally it ended its infamous career by assassinating the Chief Magistrate of the nation.

In short has been guilty of Perjury, Treason, Arson, Robbery, Murder, Assassination.

Letter From the West.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN, June 15th, 1865.

Friend Frasier—Some years ago, you and some of your readers may remember, I sent you a letter...

Your untraced chap is abroad, as of yore. Through the West, as in its history once more...

But I do not propose, as you send me a series of letters, for I do not seek notoriety as a writer...

—The beautiful and usually quiet little town of Flushing, Long Island, was the scene of a terrible fire on the 20th of June...

—John Mitchell, late sent to Fort Monroe. In that classic locality he may breathe the same air as his illustrious ancestor...
