" CTARS XV.—Veristrantes. FOURTH ANNUAL FAIR 20th, 21st and 22d. Best three heads of cauliflowers.......$ Will be Delivered at 10% o'clock a. m. of the Last Organization and Object of the Society. The Glenwood Agricultural Society was organized October 18th, 1801, on a different plan from all other Agricultural Societies in the United States. This Society does not confine its exhibitors to the narrow limits of Town, County, State, for United States, but opens it to the World. This is the fourth year of its exhibition, and, judging from the success of the past, we expect a great crowd this year, for we have added very largely to our premiums, and shall spare no pains in making everything as attractive as possible. As to the Fair Ground and Track, they are too well known to need comment.—The Society tenders its thanks to its former visitors, and pledge themselves to do everything in their power to make this more attractive than any preceeding one, for we believe in improvement. We refer you to our Premium List and Rules and Regulations for further information.

Our exhibition this year, will be Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, September 20th, 21st and 22d, 1865.
