Who called Soldiers "Lincoln's Hirelings?"-The Copperheads who now want sol-

The Copperheads declare the valor and fortitude of "our soldiers" unsurpassed, and yet nearly every copperhead voter, legislator and journalist in our great State, opposed the proposition to allow those soldiers the right of the elective franchise in the locality where they established their valor. This fact is remembered.

The State elections lately held in Kentucky Vermont, and Maine, notwithstanding the absence of much political excitement, all show great gains for the anti-slavery and Union cause. The results prove that the people of the country mean to stand by the Government which they have saved from destruction by the hand of treason, and to preserve it as the safeguard of personal freedom and political liberty.

DOESN'T FAY.

The new dodge of the Democracy, of profess ing the intensest patriotism, maintaining soldiers for office, and endorsing President Johnson doesn't pay. In Maine they are beaten over wenty thousand, and that in a light poll of only they were beaten only sixteen thousand.

THE COPPERHEAD TICKET.

The Copperheads have a queer local ticketno candidate for President Judge, a bolting Re publican for Senator, and the regular nominee of the Republican party for District Attorney and County Treasurer. And for this strange nondescript, with no head, a Republican body, and a copper tail, the rank and file are expected to fall into line and vote. Will they do it? We presume so. They probably think there is poison enough in the tail thing coppery.

THE JUDGESHIP. We see by the Bradford Argus that the Democrats of that County have decided to make no nomination against Judge Streeter. We endors fully all that is said of his fitness and qualifications; but if the Editor intends to insinuate that he is not a consistent Republican, and fully ident ified with the Republican party, we beg leave to assure him that he is mistaken in his man.— Judge Streeter enjoys the confidence of the Re publicans of this County to the fullest extent, as was clearly shown by his unanimous nomi nation in the Republican County Convention.

BLOWING TO KEEP UP COURAGE.

The Democrat of last week gave the names of several Republicans of this place, who it alleged would not support Mr. Landon for the Scaatc. We are expressly authorized to state or the part of these gentlemen, that they are all supporters of the regular nominations of the party; and under no conceivable circumstances, could any one of them be induced to aid the enemies of our common country, either in voting for a disloyal man, or withholding their votes from a loyal one. And we venture the opinion, ing Township: that if the Democrat awaits its advent to power till it is in any way aided by the votes of any of the gentlemen referred to, it will be the Millenium-some time before feasting upon the loves

OUR RETURNED SOLDIERS.

There is evidently a desire on the part of leading democrats, especially those who are asking for office, that the returned soldier should forget the course of the Copperhead party towards him during the time he was struggling for the salvation of our country. It will be remember ed that Judge Woodward, the candidate of the Copperhead party, decided that the law allow ing soldiers to vote was unconstitutional; and when they were charged with unfriendliness to the soldier, they found refuge from the charge in the unconstitutionality of the law. By and by the friends of the soldier introduced a bill for the amendment of our State Constitution so as to allow them the privilege of voting. Now mark, every Copperhead in the Legislature coted against the bill! This showed most clearly that it was not on constitutional ground that they objected to the soldiers voting; and when the amendment was submitted to the people, every single vote polled against it was cast by a Copperhead; and in Copperhead districts, large majorities were counted against the amendments; for instance, Clarion and Clearfield, Berks and other Democratic strongholds.

And when the news of a glorious victory won by our gallant boys, was sent with lightning speed to every part of the country, did they rejoice? Did they mingle their acclamation of praise with ours? No! no! So well was the matter understood by Union men, that the country of the country of the country of the country of the country, did they rejoice? And when the news of glorious victory won by our gallant boys, was sent with lightning speed to every part of the country, did they rejoice? Did they mingle their acclamation of praise with ours? No! no! So well was the matter understood by Union men, that the countremances of these enemies of our soldiers, were regarded as a kind of newsometer, by which they could tell whether our soldiers had met with reverses or not; and this hostility extended begond the rank and file to our great Captains, and General Grant was called a "butcher," "See that every voter is pledged to expend the rank and file to our great Captains, and General Grant was called a "butcher," she will certainly carry the State." DOUBTFUL FRIENDS,

One year ago the Democratic McClellan organs could not find any terms too opprobrious for application to Andrew Johnson, now President of the United States. For instance, the the Democratic press, expressed itself as follows upon the Baltimore nominations, just after they

DANGER AHEAD.

The danger now is that the Union men-the nen who have saved the nation-will consider that the battle has been fought and won, and, lulled into fancied security, will permit the fruits of victory to be wrested from them. It is stated that Gen. Grant remarked, on taking command of the Army of the Potomac, that it was a brave and gallant army, but the difficulty was it had never fought any of its battles through. Under that indomitable commander, it did fight its pattles through, and the consequence was that the military power of the rebellion was crushed and the slave confederacy ceased to exist. Now the Republican party, having sustained the Govrnment and put down the rebellion, is imperatively called upon to go forward and fight the battle through. We must not let the "reconstructed" Democrats of the South and their unregenerated co-workers of the North steal a march on us and wrest from us the fruits of all this expended treasure and toil and blood. We cannot be insane enough to tisk having the bloody scenes of the last four years re-enacted, when it is in our power to bind the Union in bands that no assaults of trailors can sever. The control of public affairs must be maintained in the hands of the friends of the Union, the men who have carried through to a successful issue the greatest rehellion the world ever saw. Otherwise there is no guaranty for the stability of the Government or the security of the people. We are not croaking. We believe the people are competent to maintain their rights—to see and avoid the dangers that threaten them. We only ask that they will do so, that they will act when it is time to act, and in the only way to secure the just fruits of our triumph in the field. It is the duty of every Unioral loving man to use his utmost efforts to maintain a compact organitation. unregenerated co-workers of the North steal a is utmost efforts to maintain a compact organi-

To show the spirit that animates them—the same bitter partisanship that they have always exhibited-and the manner in which they are seeking to carry it out, we give place to the following secret circular, a printed copy of which has just reached us from a friend in a neighbor-

CONFIDENTIAL CIRCULAR.

DRAR SHE—The political canvass does not seem to render a resort to mass meetings as practicable as usual; more, therefore, depends upon individual effort. And we uppeal to members of the County Committee for 1805, the town Vigilance Committees, and other working Democrats, to do some of the work prescribed by the State Committee, to aid in bringing out our full party note—for upon this, now, depends the victory.

Will you not call to your aid such active men as you think will most efficiently assist you in secing to the usexement, ourse before Saturday nort, Sept. Soth, of every Democratic voter—and especially returned soldlers? See that the latter are assessed now as citizens. CONFIDENTIAL CIRCULAR.

Will you not also, assisted by such as will do so, and in such manner as you deem best, organize a plan to canvase your election district, a few days before election, and see that very voter is pledged to attend the deatlom. Thimble-Rigging.

The Beaver Argus contrasts the 2nd resolution of the "Pemocratic National Convention," of August, New York World, then as now at the head of 1864, and the 2nd resolution of the "Democratic State Convention" of Pennsylvania, of August, 1865, in a way that ought to make the face of Buchanan's Attorney General, Jere J. Black-who is the author "The only merit we can discover in this Baltimore ticket is the merit of consistency; it is all of a plece; the tail does not shame the head, nor the head shame the tail. A rail-splitting buffoon and a boroist tailor, both from the backwoods, both grow tig up in uncouth ignorance, they would afford a grote-que subject for a satiric poet, who might effect them in such strains as Dean Bwift bestowed on Whiston and Dicton, or Aristophanes on that service demangage, Hyperholus."

Now this party, of which the World is still the foremost champion, pretends to entertain special and exclusive friendship for the man who was one year ago so mercilessly lampooned.

Nobody can believe in the sincerity of such a marked and sulden change. If the American people medit to stand by Andrew Johnson and the Gowernment, they will keep at a safe distance from the World and its followers. No enemy is so dangerous as that which approaches in the guise of a friend.

The Dangers of Division.

The Dangers of Division.

It is among the "great expectations" of the Copperhead Democracy at the present time that the quastion of negro infrance will divide the Republican party. Traitors and sympathizers with traitors are every where depending upon this bone. They are arranging their programme and baring their expectations of success upon this anticipated division. Shall the hopes of our enemies in this particular be realized. Can the Union or Republican party afford, in the pressing energeocy which still threatens the country, to finite raws, its strength and hazard defeat at the polls by reason of divided counsels upon a side lesue? ed at once.

There is no doubt that the Union party, by the unity of its counsels and the nethereness of its arms, has been the means, under Providence, of saying the Government from the disruption which was threatened and attempted by the Democratic trait too of the South, and their partizan alides of the North. But the victory over treason is yet only partially won. The confidence arms is yet only partially won. The confidence arms is have been the left to be subdired. In this recommendation of the rebel States, it will not do to be those with sought to destroy the Government exceeds the control. The abolition of slavery and the universality of freedom must be everywhere acknowledged. In hereasy of "States Rights," on which the Northern and confederate Democracy are finally united, must not be permitted by the loyal people of the country, again to be recognized or countenanced in the least degree. On these and kindred questions a grash battle at the ballot box is yet to be fought, and it the field will have been worn in vain. The Government will in that event, return into the hands of the very men who have been striving through tour long years to destroy it, and savery with be re-established in the leaf.

It is for the Union or Republican party to prevent so latal a estastrophe, and that only can be done by the force of united actim. Whatever difference of opinion may exist among the individual members of the party on the question of colored suffrage, they must be reserved, and not allowed to interfere with the greater issue of universal freedom, which is at stake.
