VICTORY!!

Another battle has been fought, and again are the Union forces victorious. We have beaten the Copperheads in Pennsylvania by 18,000 or 20,000 majority, and in Ohio by 30,000. We have elected Landon to the Senate, in this district, by a majority of about 2000, and we have elected all ur county ticket by large majorities.

The reaction that the Copperheads looked for follow the close of the war, has not yet commenced. The Republican party is growing stronger instead of weaker. We can do much better than we have done this Fall, as next year will show. We doubt whether the Copperheads will ever make as good a fight again, unless they assume some new and better disguise. Their 'Unionism" is too thin a garment to hide their nakedness. The old Democratic party is deaddied of Copperheadism; and the show of vitality which it has just made must be a sort of st mortem spasm, like that exhibited by the tail of a decapitated snake.

FREEDMEN'S RIGHTS.

Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, is of opinn that the action of the Convention of that State in abolishing slavery has conferred upon the negroes the power to sue or be sued in any court, and that they are competent to testify in any court of justice. Euch would be the logical consequence of enfranchisement in fair minds, but it cannot be denied that there are many Southerners who may incline to different opinons. Necessity will have something to do with carrying out the Governor's theory. Unless the egislature of Mississippi should pass laws de-training out the Government theory. Luckes the Legislauron of Missiships) wholed pass have she with the start of the Missiships wholed pass have do may be successed to the white man's remote of the start of the Missiships whole of the start of the star people all knew he had been loyal, and therefore treated him.

The Republicans have re-elected both Ridgeway, in the second, and Connell, in the fourth Districts, to the State Benste, and have also chosen fourteen out of the seventeen Repussentatives to the lower House of the State Legislatura. Our City Councils are more than four to one Republican. Having so complete a triumph throughout the State, we may well exclaim, "Glory enough for one day!"

A colored porter in the Dental Depot of S. S. White, number 5°3 Arch street, was most brutally murdered on Friday morning last, soon after entering the salesroom to put things in order for the day. The keys of the fire-proof were taken from him and that institution ransacked and robbed of some articles of value, such as gold plate, plating, &c.—The crime was committed between elx and seven o'clock, was attended, judging from appearances, by a desperate atruggle on the part of the murdered made good his or their escape and left on traces behind to lead to detection.

Regiment. The first District of Columbia Colored Regimen marched from their quarters in Campbell Hospital to the Executive Mansion, to be reviewed by the President, who addressed them as follows:

rresident, who addressed them as follows:

MY FRIENDS:—My object in presenting myself before you on this occasion is to thank you members of one of the colored regiments which has been in the service of the country, to sustain and carry its banner and its laws triumphantly in every part of this broad land. I repeat that I appear before you on the present occasion merely to render you my thanks for the compliment you have paid me on your return once again to associate with your friends and your relations and those you hold most sacred and dear.

return once again to asserted with your relations and those you hold most, sacred and dear.

I repeat, I have but little to say. It being unusual in this Gorernment, and in the most of the other Governments, to have colored troops engaged in their cause, you have gone forth, and, as events have shown, served with patience and endurance in the cause of your country. This is your country, as well as anybody else's country. (Cheeras This is the country in which you should expect to do something by your ex mple in civil life as you have done in the field.

This country is founded upon the principles of equality, and at the same time the standard by which persons are to be estimated according to their merit and their worth, and you have observed, no doubt, that for him who does his duty faithfully such honestly, there is always a just public judgment that will appropriate and measure out to him his trooper reward. I know that there is much well calculated in this Government, and since the late Rebellion commenced, to excite the white against the black, and the black against the white man. These are things fiath you should understand, and at the same time prepare yourself for what is before you. Upon the return of peace, and the surrender of the enemies of the country, it should be the duty of every patriot, and every one who calls himself a Christian, to remember that with a termination of the war his resentment should cease, that angry feeling should subside, that every man should become calm and tranquil, and be prepared for what is before bim.

This is another part of your mission. You have come calm and tranquil, and be prepared for what is better bim.

This is another part of your mission. You have been engaged in the effort to sustain your country in the past, but the future is more important to you than the period in which you have just been engaged. One great question has been settled in this Government, and that is the question of slavery.

The institution of slavery made war upon the United States, and the United States has lifted its strong sem in vindication of the Government and of free Government, and in litting that arm and appealing to the food of battles, it has been decided that the institution of slavery must go down. (Cheers,)

This has been done, and the Goddess of Liberty in bearing witness over many of our battle fields since the struggle commenced, has made her loftiest flight, and proclaimed that true liberty has been restablished upon a more permanent and enduring basis than heretofore. (Applause.)

But this is but all, and as you have paid me the compliment to call upon me I shall take the privi

heretofore. (A) plause.)
But this is not all, and as you have paid me the compliment to call upon me I shall take the privilege of sying one or two words as I am before you. I repeat that it is not all, now when the swend is returned to its scabbard, when your arms are rever-ed, and when the olive branch of peace is extended.—As I remarked before, resentment and revenge should subside. Then what is to follow? You do understand, no doubt, and if you do not you cannot un derstand too soon that "imple liberty does not mean the privilege of going into the battle-field or into the service of the country as a soldier.

It means other things as well, and now when you have laid down your arms there are other objects of equal importance before you. Now that the Government has triumphantly passed through this mighty Rebellion, after the most gigantic battle the world ever saw, the problem is before you, and it is best that you should understand it, and I therefore speak simply and plainly.

Will you now, when you have returned from the army of the United States and taken the position of the citizen, when you have returned to the accentions of peace, will you will only out you will not be indeed to the world that you are capable and competent to govern your selves? That is what you will have to do. Liberty is not a mere idea, a mere vagary. It is an idea, or it is a reality, and when you come to examine this question of liberty you will not mistake a mere idea for the reality. It does not consist in idleness. Liberty does not consist in doing in all things as we please, and there can be no liberty without iaw.

In a Government of freedom and of liberty there

The President Addresses a Colored men. Give utterance to no word that would cause men. After attende to work that would be dissensions, but do that which will be creditable to your-claves and to your country.

To the officers who have led and so nobly commanded you in the field I also raturn my thanks for the compliment you have conferred upon me.

The troopie then retriened to Campbell Hospital, when they partook of the abundant hospitalities of their colored friends.

Fenianism and the Progressive Party of Europe. The political movements which still keep the whole of Europe in a staty of constant excitement are two fold in their nature. They are either struggles for liberalizing the institutions of the several countries or aspirations for consolidating the diamembered portions of the different nationalities, and as much as possible for so changing the present territorial division of Europe as to give every nationality an independent political existence. Many of the European movements have both features, while some are exclusively either political or nationality.

territorial division of Errope as to give every in stronality an independent political existence. Many of the European movements have both features, while some are exclusively, but prominantly, a national movement. Undoubtedly, the Fenians, if successful, would introduce sweeping political reforms. Monarchy would be supplanted by republicanism, and with a republicanism interests suffrage—as they have no negroes in Ireland—abolition of State churchism, great improvements in the tenant question, and other salutary reforms would undoubtedly be introduced. But, nevertheless, the nationality feature is the one entelly characterizing the Fenian movement. The Fenians want, first of all, the separation of Ireland from England. All other considerations are made subordinate to this The leafers of the movement in the United States are enforcing the strictest neutrality in American politics. The ultra pre Slavery man of the Calhoun school is as welcome in their ranks as the friend of universal freedom. They are entirely isolated from the Progressive party in other countries of Europe. They have not deemed it expedient to bring them out.

A natural consequence of this national isolation is the difference of opinion in the progressive party and the reformed in expedient of the political progress, not in Ireland solutes the progressive party in other countries respecting the Fenians. A demogratic part of France, I. Lenin Mailmod, thinks that the rule of Englad das been more beneficent for fielded than otherwise, and that the national grievances of the french of progressive party of the pricined and noise squares to the English quitties, and it therefore gives to the Fenians and their assignments with the result of the progressive party of the pricined and progress fully as much as any other, and it therefore gives to the Fenians and their assignments of the progressive party in other house, and it therefore gives to the English

Progressive parties of other countries would conter upon them the best service in demonstrating this impossibility, and in advising them to confine their efforts, for the present, to sime within the reach of a well organized Irish party, and to reserve their final sim for a period that may be more favorable to its attainment. whether the Fenials will heed this advice or not, the future must show. We feel certain that if the advice is not heeded, the deluded adherents of the party will have to pay for it dearly.—Tribung.
