"Night-Blooming Cereus."—The swan pours out her sweetest rong when dying In like manner, Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus" grows more ex-quisite as it becomes fainter. This is not the case with the ordinary extracts for the handkerchief Their original scent soon lapses into a decidedly re-pulsive odor. Sold everywhere.

Truth.—The editor who said that his mouth never uttered a lie, probably spoke through his nose,—but the women who said that Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the best in the world, and makes better Bread, Biscuit, Cakes or Puddings, out of the same asck of flour, than can be made with any other saleratus or soda, spoke if with her mouth and eves wide open, and does not fear contradiction—Dyspeptic persons can use it with impunity, and be all the better for so doing. Most all the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Great Pavorites.—The Cabinet Organs manulactured by Messrs, Mason & Hamlin are becoming great lavorites in the household. Their compactness, delicacy of tone, and clegant construction, make them very desirable as ornaments, as well as attractive for their musical capabilities. They are different in many respects from other instruments of this class, and the manufacturers have availed themselves of the highest skill in workmanship, and the best materials to bring them to perfection.—Boston Post.
