Capitals Stone's Correction.—This November weather is cool; but about the coolest thing we even heard of is the Denocrat editor's publishing a letter from Capit. G. L. Stone which convicts him of faisehood, and yet coolly assuming that the letter proves his talsehood true. During the late political canvass in this county, the copperhead editor, in dearth of party capital, published the following: "Even the Monters Republican supports Landon published the following: "Even the Montrows: Republican supports Landon because it fears to do otherwise, for we have it from good authority that C. Frazier said, 'We hate to put Landon's nume at the head of the Republican, but I suppose we shall have to do it.'" out i suppose we shall have to do it."" This statement both the editor of the Republican and Charles H. Frazier (who was meant by C. Fra-cier.) denied in our columns; and the Dencerat then produced the name of Capit. George L. Stone as its witness. In last week's Dencerat there appears a long letter from Capit. Stone to the editor, in which he says: which he says:

which he says: "The remark as published by you was: 'I sup-the Republican, but we hade to do it." "You afterwards gave the name of your author, which was no other person than myself. The above language is I think correct, so iar as regards the words used by nlz, in a conversation I had with you. But it seems you mistook my meaning in re-prad to the latter clause—"but they haded to do it."— That uses an caserion of my om in expressing to you my minion of Mr. Frazier's feelings in regard to boisting the name of Mr. Landou." This is Capt. Stone's explanation, in which he ev-

my opinion of Mr. Frazler's feelings in regard to boisting the name of Mr. Landon." This is Capt. Stone's explanation, in which he ev-identity does his best to excuss Gerritson's lying un-der the plea of a mistakz / for in order to make this appear at all plansible he has to formapose the sen-tence as it originally appeared in the Democrat, and put that last which Gerritson put flass. And these words-"We hate to put the name of Landon at the head of the Depublican"-which Gerritson and Little were ready to swear were reported to them by Capt. Stone from "C. Frazier," Capt. Stone now says were his own words! substituting "they" for "wer." We can understand that "mistake." There were there persons present at the conversa-tion referred to by Capt. Eine, as stated by him in the Democrat, namely, E. L. Weeks, C. Il Frazier. Horton Synis two probably alded him in correcting Gerritaon's which they both say they never made.
