Giorious Triumph!Importance of One FoteWe have frequent instances of the vast importance of one vote; and we have now one to mention in the announcement that our Friend Chap- nan has been elected County Surveyor for another term by the tremendous majority of ONE at the re- ratt election i The fact is that so rare has it become of late	b ti p n ci ii ti ko i terrs for a warmant to be issued from the land Off re for any vacant land in this county, and so little is required of a County Surveyor in that line, that currybody seemed to forget that that office would usin become vacant this year. Neither party made up nomination, nor did the Sheriff announce the election of such an officer in his Proclamation. But warbody thought of it on the day of election, and ast a vote for him, which was dury returned, and the Board of Judges transmitted the return to Har- mount. Well, a few days since, a package came from the Surveyor General's office with the Boad and other requisite papers, directed to James W. Chepmon in the usual form, announcing that- "Whereas, it appears, by the returns transmitted to this office, that you were duly elected County inveyor for the County of Susquehanna," &c.
