OUR RELATIONS WITH THE IMPERIALISTS.

We have various reports from Brownsville, in relation to late occurrences there between United States troops and the Imperialists.

THE MARCH OF FREEDOM.

The Nineteenth Century will ever be memorable for its progress in substantial humanitarian principles, and for striking the shackles from the slave in most countries where human beings are held in bondage.

THE APPEAL FOR DAVIS.

The following is an extract from a petition from the "women of the South" for Jeff Davis's release.

WASHINGTON THIS WINTER.

The indications are that Washington society will be decidedly gay the coming winter. There will be a strange and interesting admixture of all the late elements of discord in this country.

ionable political women from the South. Members from the North will be begged by these ladies with applications for pardon, and favors for unfortunate friends who have lost their estates by confiscation; and men who expect to stand well before their constituents, will save suspicion and unnecessary censure by allowing them to slide gracefully on the other side.

AN OVERSIGHT.

The Southern emigrants to Brazil have overlooked, it seems, a fact essential to their future happiness, in selecting that country as their refuge. They knew it was a slaveholding nation and took everything else for granted, but it seems from the Freedman's Journal, that it is not so.

THE MARRIED PRESIDENT.

The last number of the London Spectator remarks as follows, in a long review of President Lincoln's life and services: "To our minds no general opinion is exceeded by the cotton queen and women of Washington."

Teachers' Wages.

This is an interesting subject to those whose business it is to teach the young idea to shoot, and should be interesting to every one who was ever a child, or who has children or ever expects to have; for it is a subject closely connected with the vitality and usefulness of our common school system.

Table listing members of the Thirty-Ninth Congress by state and district, including names like James A. McDowell, John C. Calhoun, and others.

News from All Nations.

Since June last $2,000,000 Union soldiers have been mustered out of the U. S. Army.

THE RIGHTS OF MAN.

Very intelligent readers of the Independent know the superlative truths embraced in the simple phrase of the Rights of Man.
