Montrose, Pa., Tuesday, Dec. 26, 1865.

ADVERTISING.

There is one branch of the business of the Independent Republican office in which we have never done ourselves justice.

We do not remember the Christmas tree that stood in the corner of the room, its robes of evergreen and the interest excited among the young and happy crowd.

Yearly advertisements are not only a source of revenue to the publisher, but they are a source of pleasure to the advertiser.

From and after January 1st, 1866, therefore, the rates of advertising in The Independent Republican will be as follows:

Table with 3 columns: One square of lines, 3 weeks, 1 month, 3 months, 6 months, 1 year. Rates range from $1.00 to $10.00.

Where we have made special contracts for a definite period, we shall of course fulfill the contract at the rates agreed on.

Those who are already paying us by year, and who are advertising with us, will please take notice that we cannot go on at the old rates.

There is no day in the year that is more eagerly looked for by all classes in the community than Christmas.

THE REBEL STATES WITHIN OR WITHOUT THE UNION? In the course of a debate on that portion of the President's message referring to the question of Reconstruction, Hon. Thos. C. Corwin...
