

Work for January.
Filling Tanks, Finishing Stuff, etc.
Early winter, let it be remembered, is the proper season for getting all kinds of barrel work done. In the spring, when the price of the material is high, it is better to get it done now. Get out your stuff for posts and rails, and fashion the posts and rails, in order that they may be in readiness to put up in spring. Get all your material in the fall, and get it done now. Get all your material in the fall, and get it done now. Get all your material in the fall, and get it done now.

particular as to the handling quality, as there is one person in five who keeps stock that knows anything about it; also no more light from some of the numerous leaders of the farmer.
We never yet owned but one cow that came any where near suiting us, and we have owned and still own one that we consider much above an average. This is a three-year-old, a full-blooded Durham, bred of Mr. Vail of Troy, last fall. We paid $150 in cash for her, and believe we got the best bargain for twice that sum. — Farmer's Friend
