THE DEMOCRAT

MONROE, PA. Thursday, April 12, 1890.

Democratic Meetings.

The Democratic Citizens of Monroeville will meet at the Court House in Monroeville on Monday evening of next week (April 16th) for the purpose of appointing Delegates to represent the County in the State Convention...

Agricultural Meetings.

Mr. A. J. Connor, of Dinwiddie, proposes giving a lecture on the value and progress of Agricultural Science at the Court House on Tuesday evening next. We trust the meeting will be well attended...

Considerably Stirred Up.

Our remarks on the pretended "reform" movement at Tuscarora, which we have so abundantly scolded our Wyoming friends, judging from what we hear, and what we notice in the Wyoming papers...

The justifications of our friends in a small number of articles are somewhat unconvincing. It was thought to require a more certain guarantee for the success of the North Branch bill...

The Democratic Union of Saturday says: We think the people of our State will be somewhat amazed when they come to hear of the entire change in the Judicial districts of the Commonwealth...

The North Branch Again. When the general appropriation bill was under consideration in the House, on Thursday, Mr. Ball...

The Harriburg Keystone. We omitted last week (quite unintentionally) to mention the accession to the editorial corps of the Harriburg Keystone of the Hon. James M. McKean...

A New Court. A bill proposing a new county to be called Lawrence, out of parts of the counties of Beaver and Mercer, has passed both branches of the Legislature...

Remarkable Points of Pennsylvania Politics. It is a singular fact in the history of the State that precisely every fifth election for Governor has resulted in the choice of a Federalist...

Free Banking. We perceive that a movement is making in favor of Mr. Dibli's project for a Free Banking Law based upon paper. Have those Democrats who may have been inclined to that scheme carefully examined...

An Effective Judiciary. The House of Representatives has passed the resolution providing for the popular voice an amendment of the Constitution providing for the election of the Judges of our Courts...
