

THE WEEKLY PENNSYLVANIAN... Published every week, except on the Sabbath day...

The Montrose Democrat.

VOLUME VI.

MONROSE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1849.

NUMBER 20.

TUBAL CAIN.

Old Tubal Cain came into the world in the days when earth was young... He was the first who taught the art of husbandry...

AGRICULTURAL ADDRESS.

Delivered before a Meeting of the Members of the State County Agricultural Society, at the Court House in this Village, on Tuesday Evening of Last Week... I feel it my duty to give you some general views on the subject...

low in proportion. Neither can any man be considered a farmer until he has acquired the art of husbandry... Agriculture is the basis of our civilization...

From the New York Sun. ISABELLA OGDEN; OR THE RICH AND POOR. A CITY TRIZZ LOVE. [Concluded] CHAPTER VII. It was past nine o'clock when Frank Graham left his mother's house...

are crushing and ruining to all our limited ideas of real happiness to move around, and in the end, work out a higher degree of earthly happiness than we ever dreamed of. We, poor mortals, to ensure such a result, have but to do our duty...

want to hear anything about it, my nothing about the ten years—your know? "Yes, you must, you are noble and generous, but I will not let my mind be so torn as to think more meanly of me than I deserve."

"I cannot think anything of the kind, but have your way." "Yes, I will," said she, and she turned to her mother...