

O. G. HUMPHREYS, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS:—One year, $10.00; six months, $6.00; three months, $3.50. Single copies, 10 cents. In advance. No paper sent out until the bill is paid. All communications should be addressed to the Editor. The office is at No. 100 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

One year, $10.00; six months, $6.00; three months, $3.50. Single copies, 10 cents. In advance. No paper sent out until the bill is paid. All communications should be addressed to the Editor. The office is at No. 100 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Montrose Democrat.

VOLUME VI. MONTROSE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1890. NUMBER 22.

SPRING FLOWERS.

The flowers of the spring are now in bloom. They are bright and beautiful, and they are the first sign of the new year. They are the first sign of the new year. They are the first sign of the new year.

THE SHOT IN THE EYE.

My mind for the first time in my life have been so much interested in a man, as those of you who have read the paper will know. I have been so much interested in a man, as those of you who have read the paper will know. I have been so much interested in a man, as those of you who have read the paper will know.

It was a fine day, and the sun was shining brightly. I was walking along the street, and I saw a man who was looking at me. I was looking at him, and he was looking at me. I was looking at him, and he was looking at me.

He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time.

He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time.

He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time.

He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time.

He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time. He had the look of a man who had been through a hard time.