

ordered the clergyman to preach against the Romanes.

Irish Affairs. Different and apparently reliable statements are made from parts of Ireland, to the effect that the potato rot has been represented as continuing very favorable and the crops in nearly all parts of Ireland were said to be unusually promising.

Smith O'Brien, through his counsel, denies the legality of the commutation, and the government have to provide for the unlooked-for difficulty by special act of Parliament.

MARKET. Liverpool, Saturday, June 16.—Owing to the stirring events in the continent to which the week has given birth, business was somewhat restricted, though to the extent which would have been apprehended.

The markets for corn and breadstuffs maintain more than an average firmness, although the transactions will not be so large as on previous days. The weather is represented as continuing very favorable and the crops in nearly all parts of Ireland were said to be unusually promising.

THE DEMOCRAT. MONROE, PA.: Thursday, July 3, 1848. For Sale by the Proprietor, COL ASA DIMOCK.

Arrival of Father Mathew. Father Mathew, the great Irish Apostle of Temperance, who has wrought such revolutions in his country, has at length arrived in this country. He landed on Staten Island, from the Ship Abner, on Friday last, and was received as a guest by the authorities of the city of New York on Monday, with grand and imposing, and we may add, becoming, ceremonies.

The Paris Bazaar. It gives the most pleasing to state that Mrs. Keane, wife of Lyman Keane, of Springfield, who has been partially deranged for some months back, and who was admitted to the Register of the work, and having abandoned it, has been found, and is in the care of her family and friends.

Statistical Returns. We have just been able to learn the result of the military election held in this county about a month ago. Col. John B. Ding, of Hartford, was chosen Brigadier General; Col. Amos Spear, de. Brigadier; Major G. L. Luther, of Bridgewater, Colonel; Jacob B. Smith, of Gilsum, Lieut. Colonel; Capt. Lucian N. Gifford, of Franklin, Lt. Major; and James Church, of Springfield, Lt. Colonel.

Col. Bacon's Speech. A resolution in this matter. Taking it for granted that every one of our readers here gives it a personal, we shall attempt no recapitulation of its points and arguments here, neither can we know upon any extended comments. Its positions are all correct, judiciously taken, and ingeniously supported.
