

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Calcedonia.

Loss of the barge Charles Bartlett... Movement in England—Important from France—the Fall of Rome, and recall and disgrace of Oudinot—Unfavorable News from Hungary—Progress of Revolution in Europe, &c. &c.

St. John's N. B. July 20. The Steamship Calcedonia, Capt. Leitch, with dates from Paris to the 5th, London to the 6th, and Liverpool to the 7th inst, arrived at Halifax about 7 o'clock last evening.

The Calcedonia has 45 passengers for Boston, exclusive of 18 of the 42 survivors of the ill-fated barque Charles Bartlett, of Plymouth, Mass., Wm. Bartlett, master, which on Wednesday, the 27th ult., at about 2 1/2 P. M., when 700 miles to the westward of Cape Clear, was run down by the steamer Europa, and sank in 5 minutes, with 134 passengers and crew.

The catastrophe occurred during a dense fog, and although the boats of the Europa were instantly lowered, and every possible assistance rendered, only 42 out of the 170 souls were saved. The Captain, second mate, and ten of the crew, were among the survivors.

The Europa is acquitted of all blame, not only by the survivors, but by the unanimous voice of the British press and the public. A subscription of $253 was promptly raised by the passengers of the Europa to which the proprietors have added £20. They likewise offered to carry the whole of the survivors from Buxton to New York free of all expense.

The Charles Bartlett was bound from London to New York with immigrants, and had on board 450 tons of merchandise, consisting chiefly of lead and chalk.

R. B. Forbes, Esq., a passenger in the Europa behaved with surprising gallantry upon the occasion, and has been presented with the gold medal of the Liverpool Shipwreck and Humane Society. The Europa sustained no material damage by the collision.

The election in the city of London, took place on Wednesday last, and resulted in the re-election of Baron Rothschild by an overwhelming majority. The event is looked upon as an unmistakable design of the citizens to secure what is termed full religious liberty.

The opposing candidate was Lord John Manners who was beaten by a majority of over three thousand. In the course of a debate in Parliament, Lord Palmerston expressed a confident hope that the President of the United States would, in his annual message to Congress, propose a change in the American Navigation Law, to correspond with that which will go in operation on the 1st of January next.

Public attention in Ireland is absorbed in the promised visit of the Queen, which is announced to take place during the first or second week in August next.

The anti-pope visits seem to have brought about the entire obliteration of all recollection in Dublin, the most extensive preparations are being made to receive Her Majesty with every demonstration of loyalty and respect.

The marriage bill, after an ineffectual attempt to exempt Scotland from its operation, has passed through the committee in the House of Commons.

On Tuesday, O'Connor brought forward his motion in favor of the people's charter. His speech was full of invective, especially in his allusion to the Irish members, whom he styled "ink spittlers" of the treasury side of the House. He was supported by Mr. Hume and 12 others, in a house of 255.

Lord Brougham gave notice on the 5th, that on the following Monday week, he would submit a motion to the House relative to the intervention of the French at Rome.

A subscription in behalf of the Hungarians has been started in London, which is being liberally responded to.

English papers state that Jenny Lind will visit the United States professionally, before she retires from the stage.

The Crops.—Concurrent statements from all parts of Ireland and England, confirm previous reports of the cheering prospects of the approaching harvest.

The papers contain some lying reports of the recurrence of the potato disease, especially in the South of Ireland but they are not of a character to merit much attention.

France.—The Legislative Assembly has been the scene of much turbulence and re-orientation, during the past week. The despotic spirit which marks the proceedings of the Government, is having the effect to unite various sections of the Assembly, not heretofore friendly, into a compact opposition to the Barrot ministry, and in defense of republicanism. Towards the close of the sitting on Wednesday evening, some anti-socialism was created among the members, by Mr. Granden declaring that another movement was in preparation. The statement, however, was so vaguely given by the Hon. member, that it appeared to have no foundation in fact, and it soon ceased to produce any impression.

Four soldiers were condemned to death in Paris on Tuesday, July 2, by court martial, for having resisted the gendarmes who were commanded to arrest Sergeant-Major Belobok, and convey him to Vincennes, previous to his election as a member of the Legislative Assembly. One of them on hearing his sentence burst into tears and sobbed.

Sumner of Boston. On the 26th inst, the Constitution Assembly of Rome, finding that further resistance to the French arms would be in vain, ceased hostilities, and virtually surrendered the eternal city to the conquerors. On the 16th inst, an official notification was made to the French Legislative Assembly, that in consequence of the arrangement entered into between Gen. Oudinot and the Roman Triumvirate, the garrison of Perugia and the remainder of the Roman troops, were to be conveyed to the immediate occupation of France, which would take place with perfect quietness and order.

This communication produced a deep sensation in the Chamber. It is said that, in the two days preceding the deposition of arms, there was some hard fighting, in the course of which both French and Romans suffered severely; and that it was in consequence of the alarm of the inhabitants of Rome that the Triumvirate at last determined to abandon the defence.

Contemporaneous of Rome, of the 20th, states that a cannon ball has struck the celebrated "Aurora" of Guido Reni, fresco painting; that on the same day a 36 pounder broke a piece of the cornice of the Temple of Fortuna Virilis; and that considerable damage had been done by the French batteries to the churches of St. Mary, of Trastevere, St. Andrea, della Villa, and St. Charles of Catinari, which contained some frescoes of Domenichino.

Entry of the French Army into Rome.—A correspondent, writing from Paris says, just as the Bourne was closing, it was stated positively that the Government had received a telegraph despatch, announcing the entry of the French army into Rome on the 2nd; and that they were received with acclamation by the people. The divisions of Garibaldi have been conducted to Civita Vecchia, where they would lay down their arms.

Two divisions of the Army would be lodged and maintained by the Roman Government. On the reception of this news in Paris the fact as the Bourne was closing, it was stated positively that the Government had received a telegraph despatch, announcing the entry of the French army into Rome on the 2nd; and that they were received with acclamation by the people.

Just previous to the reception of the decisive news from Rome, Gen. Bedeau left Paris to take command of the army in Italy. Gen. Oudinot was ordered home in disgrace. Arrangements were also promptly made to increase the army in Italy to 50,000 men.

Immediately upon the reception of the news of the surrender of Rome to Gen. Oudinot, a telegraph despatch was sent to the Emperor, desiring Gen. Bedeau to wait there for fresh instructions before proceeding to Rome.

According to the reports in the diplomatic circles of Paris, on Thursday, Gen. Bedeau is to take the place of M. d'Har-court, Ambassador, and is also charged with a mission to Marshal Radetzky to negotiate all military matters respecting the occupation of Italy. It appears certain—that Gen. Lamoriciere goes to St. Petersburg, as Ambassador, and that he is to protest against the Emperor taking any part in the affairs of Italy.

The army of the Alps has been disbanded. A note from the French government has been sent to Prussia, on the subject of Neuchatel, but it is not of an unfriendly nature. On the contrary, the relations with Prussia are on a satisfactory footing. Ledru Rollin is supposed to be secreted in Paris.

VENICE.—Accounts of the 24th from Mestre, state that the Venetian deputies sent to negotiate for the surrender of Venice, with the Austrian Minister at Venice, have been dismissed, and have returned to Venice. The bombardment and the besieging works would again be prosecuted with greater vigor than ever. The sortie last made by the Venetians was very successful. Among the prisoners carried into Venice, beside several officers of the staff, there were two generals.

HUNGARY AND AUSTRIA.—An official bulletin has been issued by the Austrians, announcing the compulsory retirement of the Hungarians from Raab, who are said to have retired towards Ankershausen, and are being defeated near Cronok and Sconerer. The loss of the Magyars in killed and wounded, at Raab is not stated, but 900 prisoners had been sent to Vienna. 80 carts containing wounded, had also reached that city.—The Hungarians it was supposed, would retire to the Theis, and large bodies of their troops were marching in that direction. Some accounts, however, state that the Russians, under Taskowitch, might be able to cut off their retreat.

From the south the intelligence is unfavorable to the Hungarians. Jellicovich is said to have occupied the Rosentad, defeating the Magyars near Stegodin, and driven them beyond Theis. Kodzjanin is also stated to have obtained advantages over them near Zinta, and to have captured eight of their vessels, with 18 guns, on the Danube. It should not be forgotten that this news is given on Austrian authority only, and is an effect, it is stated in letters from France on Thursday, that a rumor was current in the Assembly that the Hungarians had obtained an immense advantage over the Russians, who were retreating before Raab, and that the latter lost 10,000 men.

There have been reports of Austria-Russian successes, but proceeding from dubious sources. Numerically, the Hungarian army is as powerful as that of the Russians, and superior in discipline and courage. The Austria-Russian army has entered Raab. There was no battle, only a contest by the rear of the retreating Hungarian army. The Emperor, who rode at the head of the first army corps, entered Raab, which is now the head quarters of the imperial army. The Hungarian head quarters are removed to Cony, which is nearly opposite Comorn. It has now become quite evident that the same system has been adopted both by Venetians and Georgy, of declaring a defensive battle.

A desperate battle was fought on the 26th, between the Prussians and the Hungarians, in the neighborhood of the village of Calasche and Maghinastetta, between Coudarbe and Radetzky. The insurgents were defeated generally. Penker has taken possession of Baden.

It is announced that the negotiations for peace between the Austrians and the Piedmontese governments have been interrupted in consequence of the increased demands of the Austrian negotiators for a pecuniary indemnity, and also in consequence of a refusal to engage, on the part of the Austrian government, to grant a complete amnesty.

The illness of ex-King Charles Albert, at Oporto, is without abatement, and little or no hope is entertained of his recovery. We before had a report that he was dead. Denmark and the Duches.—The armistice is again dormant, and hostilities have been slightly renewed, so far as on-looking can judge. There is no likelihood of peace which did not exist with equal force several weeks since.

The New York Herald tells the appointment of Albert Lawrence Hamilt to England in the place of Mr. Russell "in exchange of Money at Indianapolis, Indiana, states that Littlejohn, the celebrated revivalist, recently died in the Ohio Penitentiary, whither he had been sent under the assumed name of Hamilton, but just previous to his death acknowledged the revivalist.

LATEST NEWS.

Later From California. The Tribune of Tuesday has one day later's advices from San Francisco brought via Mexican to Boston. There is nothing new, or exciting, prevailing very largely.

This morning about six, he got up out of bed, after a week of hard drinking, took up a razor, and attempted to cut his own throat, which his unhappy mother, who had been watching his motions, naturally tried to prevent. It is said that he cried "Good by mother!" before drawing the instrument across his throat, which he wounded severely, but not dangerously. His aged mother seized his hand and screamed aloud with uncontrollable terror. The unfortunate victim of ardent spirits instantly turned round upon his alarmed and agitated parent, and exclaimed to take her life, exclaiming "I'll kill her, I'll kill her," and wounded her so severely in the throat with his razor, that her life was for a time despaired of. He then thrust her to the ground, one of the waiters heard her screams and succeeded in dragging the maniac off her mangled body, and secured him. She was waiting in her own blood, and her miserable son was bleeding very profusely.

The writer of this article has this morning left Rathbun's Hotel, and learns that there are no stronger hopes of Mrs. Rathbun's recovery. Her son is to be conveyed immediately to the lunatic asylum, blackwell's Island.

Mr. Albert Clark keeps the house—he is Mr. Rathbun's partner. On inquiry we find that the young man was steadily reformed any liquor there he is said to be very fond of his mother when sober, and for several years he kept moderation to avoid strong drinks, but at last broke through it. A tavern, where liquor is constantly on sale, was not the most suitable home for Loomis Rathbun.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE BUTLER DIVORCE CASE.—As we are informed, a divorce, by mutual consent, has been granted, or will be, the conditions—that Mr. Pierce Butler is to allow Mrs. Butler fifteen hundred dollars a year; he to retain possession of their two daughters, excepting two months in each year, when they are to be with their mother. These terms are said to be perfectly satisfactory to both parties. A tavern, where liquor is constantly on sale, was not the most suitable home for Loomis Rathbun.—N. Y. Tribune.

At the mines, as yet, matters remained pretty quiet; but fears are entertained that ere long there will be serious disturbances between the countrymen and the Mexicans, as some 6,000 of the latter have arrived in the country and evinced a most turbulent disposition. You may rest assured, however, that ere long any important outbreaks take place they will be checked to a man. News has just been received that six men in 23 days ran the Feather River, produced 60,000 dollars in gold dust. A most revolting attempt to poison a whole family of 9 persons was perpetrated in Cincinnati on Monday—arising being infused into their tea. The family was that of Capt. Sumner, two of them have already died from its effects and five more are dangerously ill. A son of Capt. S. has been arrested on suspicion. $7 A fire occurred in Montreal on Tuesday which destroyed 40 buildings and property valued at $80,000.
