

Agricultural.

From the Cultivator.
THE CULTIVATOR—The disease I am about to consider under the above appellation, is better known among horsemen by that of "distemper."

Farmers should not bring their cattle round the barn on the dirt yard, where mud could be made for their horses to wade over.—Cultivator.

WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 22.—The Executive of the late David C. Claypole, who died recently in this city in his 93rd year, advises that he will deposit, at public sale, on the 12th of February next, the original manuscript of Washington's Valley of the Potomac, to the people of the United States. This interesting and valuable document is in the handwriting and bears the signature of Washington, with every evidence that it was the unaided production of that illustrious man.
