Thirty-First Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, 1850.

SENATE.—The members having assembled, after the presentation of petitions, Mr. Benton, of Missouri, submitted a memorial for the construction of a line of telegraph from St. Louis to California

On motion, a select Committee on the French Spoliation was then chosen.

The territorial resolution of Mr. Foote was made the special order of the day for Monday next.

The bill providing for a limitation of the expenses in the collection of revenue, was, after some discussion, passed.

Mr. Borland called for the correspondence with the Consul at Valparaiso, which lies over.

The Committee on Military Affairs reported a bill for the payment of the expenses incurred in the Seminole war.

Mr. Dodge offered a resolution that the Rev. Mr. Slicer, the Chaplain at the last session, receive a compensation of $500 for his services during the extra session, which after some opposition, was carried.

Mr. Bradbury's resolution, calling for the charges against certain officers removed by the present Administration, was taken up. A motion to lay the same on the table was lost. Mr. Bradbury addressed the Senate at considerable length. When he had concluded,

Mr. Douglass offered a resolution calling on the President for a copy of the instructions to the Hungarian agent; also, the correspondence with the Charge to Guatemala, and Central America, relative to the Canal Treaty, Panama, &c.

The Senate then went into executive session, and adjourned soon after.

HOUSE.—A motion was made to reconsider the vote of yesterday, on the adoption of the rule, which was laid on the table.

The report of the Committee on Engraving, which had been heretofore submitted, was re-committed, with instructions

Mr. Hampton moved a call of the House, which was lost, and the election of Sergeant-at-Arms proceeded with.

FIRST BALLOT.

Glossbrenner, Dem,	92
Giddings, Whig,	101
Dow, Dem,	46
Walbridge, Dem,	14
Total	213

The second and third ballots were similar to the first. The fourth was then proceeded with, before the result of which was announced, upwards of fifty members changed their votes to Glossbrenner, who was elected, he receiving 107 votes. The figures stood:

Glossbrenner	107
Giddings	102

Mr. Glossbrenner was then sworn.

Several propositions were offered and rejected, after which the House adjourned.

Jan 16, 1850.

SENATE —The Senate assembled at the usual hour

Remonstrances were presented against the appointment of Chaplain.

Mr. Mason, of Va., offered a resolution to pay the First and Sixth Auditors for examining accounts and claims of Wm. Collins, $7.50 each

Several petitions were presented from sundry districts, and Mr Benton moved to lay them on the table. The motion was taken by yeas and nays, and carried—yeas 32, nays 19.

The Commissioners of Patents sent in a communication stating that his annual report would not be ready for several months

Mr. Dickinson, of New York, offered a resolution inquiring whether the 12th paragraph of West Point Regulations interfered with religious opinions. It lies over.

Mr. Benton introduced a bill for defining and limiting the boundaries of Texas, and fixing her territory at 150,000 square miles, and paying Texas $15,000,000 indemnity for territory relinquished. The bill was referred.

Mr. Foote, of Miss., called up his territorial bill, and advocated its principles, which was afterwards, appropriately referred.

The Judiciary Committee reported a bill in favor of the election of Senators by the people, which was made the special order of the day for Wednesday next.

In obedience to a call of the Senate, the Secretary of State communicated the Valparaiso correspondence.

On motion, the Senate then went into executive session, and soon afterwards adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House was called to order by the Speaker at 12 M.

A joint resolution for the collection of revenue, was received from the Senate, and on motion of Mr. Bayley, was read twice and ordered to be printed, and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

An election for Door-keeper was then gone into. The first ballot resulted in no choice: Horner, 66; Ayres, of Ohio, 38; Tufts, of Is., 23; Hood, of Ill., 19; Cole, 14; Randolph, of Va., 15; rest scattering.

Four more ballots were had without a choice, when Ayres and Clair were withdrawn.

Two resolutions were made to postpone the election, and rejected.

After a call of the House was made, the fifth ballot was taken, when many Whigs changed to Tufts. The ballot resulted as follows; Tufts, 98; Flood, 51; Cole, 45, when, there being no choice, the House adjourned.

Jan. 17, 1850.

SENATE.—The members met to-day at the usual hour.

A resolution of inquiry was offered relative to the account of the late Navy Agent at New York, Prosper M. Wetmore.

The resolution calling for information relative to the organization of a state Government for California, was then taken up and debated by Messrs. Douglass, Smith, Foote, Dawson, Butler, Shields, Clemens, Davis and Dickinson, when the resolution was adopted, and the Senate adjourned over until Monday.

HOUSE.—The Journal of yesterday was read.

The resolution in favor of printing extra copies of the Coast Survey was adopted; also the resolution for printing 10,000 copies of the Report on Commerce and Navigation, and in favor of binding a portion of the latter at an expense not exceeding 12 1-2 cents each. A long debate ensued before the adoption of the last resolution. The balloting for Door-keeper was then proceeded with, and Messrs. Tufts and Horner were withdrawn:

On the first, the vote stood—Cole, 92; Randolph, 98; Flood, 10; necessary to choice 107.

Mr. Flood was then withdrawn.

The second ballot was then had, with but little change from the first. Mr. Stewart was here re-nominated.

Third ballot—Randolph 100; Cole 75; Stewart 27.

After the announcement of this ballot, Messrs. Stewart and Randolph were withdrawn, and Messrs. Stewart and Tufts renominated.

Fifth ballot—Tufts, 99; Stewart, 97; scattering, 11.

At the close of each ballot large numbers of the members changed their votes from one candidate to another. There was more stir than usual on the floor to-day Adjourned.

JANUARY, 18.

In the House several ineffectual ballots were had for Door-keeper, but nothing else was done. The Senate was not in session

JANUARY, 19.

HOUSE.—After a long discursive debate about excusing absentees, of no consequence to the public, Mr. Clingman of N. C. moved that the election of Doorkeeper and Postmaster be postponed to March, 1851, which motion was carried—ayes 100, nays 98. A motion to re-consider the vote was then made, and laid on the table. Nothing else of importance transpired until the hour of adjournment.

JANUARY, 21.

SENATE.—Gen. Cass occupied the main part of the session in delivering the first part of a lengthy speech against the Wilmot Proviso

HOUSE.—Mr. Brown, of Miss., asked leave to introduce resolutions calling on the President for information in relation to the much talked-of Cuban expedition Refused.

A long debate then sprung up in relation to the election of Doorkeeper and Postmaster, possessing but very little interest A message from the President covering the information asked by the House in relation to the organization of a government in California was here read. It contains the President fully, and squarely to the Cass doctrine of non-intervention; so much derided and denounced by the whigs during the last Presidential campaign Discussion upon it was postponed till the next day and the House adjourned

Shocking and brutal murder in Cattaraugus.

The Carbondale Democrat of Saturday says; "A heart-rending occurrence took place here in the early part of this week, which resulted in the death of Mrs Mary Brennan, wife of John Brennan, or "Big John Brennan" as he is familiarly called by way of distinction from others of the same name A noise and outcries proceeding from Brennan's house were heard by neighbors during the afternoon of Sunday last, and continued on through the evening and early part of the night But as this had been common for years, Brennan having been addicted to [illegible] cruelty to his family, they attracted less attention than would have been but for that cause Some alarm was however excited in the night began to be heard About 3 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Brennan was observed to be thrust out of doors with a young child, both in a most deplorable and suffering condition. Some of the neighbors now went to the house, but were driven out in the darkness by Brennan, who they believed to have been armed, amid threats that from the desperate character which he has been considered to possess, much intimidated them. On Monday morning Mrs. Brennan was found to be helpless and covered with bruises from head to foot, many portions of the body and head pounded almost to pumice. She lingered through a state of great bodily suffering though of mental insensibility until 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning, when she expired.

She left 6 children—two of whom were much injured, one of them has a hole on the top of her head—made as she says by her father with the fire-poker. Brennan was arrested on Monday for "Assault and Battery" (Mrs. Brennan being then living) and after an examination before Justice Root, was committed to jail. On Tuesday an Inquest was held over her body, Justice Joslyn as Coroner, which rendered a verdict of murder by the hands of John Brennan her husband. The unhappy circumstances of Mrs. Brennan, in being connected with a husband so brutal, has excited much sympathy for years, and Brennan has been two or three times previously arrested and confined in jail. Her connections are highly respectable, and her untimely and awful death much deplored not only by them but by an excited and indignant community."

The "Model" Mayor.

The new Mayor of Pittsburg, Mr. Barker, has been pardoned at last, as we predicted, by the Governor of Pennsylvania, and having left the prison, now occupies the chair of the Chief Magistracy of the smoke-begrimmed city. We are ashamed to have such disgusting facts published abroad. What an opinion they justify "all mankind," as well as "the rest of the world," in entertaining of the American people and republican institutions? Besides this, what a fearful commentary it affords upon the boasted "religious liberty" of our Constitution? This Mr. Barker was a species of street-brawler, after the fashion of the monk Loubey. He stood on the street-corners, and inveighed against the Catholic Church in language so grossly obscene, that he was arrested, tried, and convicted as a public nuisance. Yet this man—this disgusting Pharisee—was elected, whilst in prison, Mayor of Pittsburg, by whig votes. Heaven help us! But we begin to think that the distemper rages among our whig friends, they so run the round of the political circle, tail foremost. —N. Y. Globe.

Hon Thomas G. Pratt (Whig) has been Elected United States Senator by the Maryland Legislature, to fill the unexpired term of the Hon. Reverdy Johnson.

Continuation of the farce in the Ohio Legislature.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 17.

The greatest confusion still prevails in the Senate, and there is but a faint hope of its being terminated for some time. A resolution was passed giving Mr. Johnson, the Democratic member from the disputed district of Hamilton county, his seat, until the matter shall be decided by the further action of the Senate—providing that he should not vote in his own case, or anything affecting, or that could effect, his own case.

Subsequently several efforts were made to offer a resolution to remove the Speaker from the chair. A scene of the wildest confusion followed.

The Speaker declared the resolution out of order, and refused to entertain an appeal.

In the midst of the greatest uproar and confusion, the Speaker announced the Standing Committees. The Democrats loudly protested against his right to do so. At a late hour the Senate adjourned in the greatest disorder

THE ALTERATION OF THE MESSAGE.—Several inquiries have been addressed to us relative to the discrepancy in the third paragraph of the President's Message, published by us, and in the extra Intelligencer and Republic of Monday. The passage referred to, as published in the two organs on Monday, and as read in the two Houses, was as follows:

"We are at peace with all the world, and seek to maintain our cherished relations of amity with the rest of mankind."

Before our paper went to press, we were informed by persons in the confidence of the Administration, that an error had been committed, and we were requested to correct it in our paper. We complied with the request, although we were confident that no error had been committed by our types, and that the error was chargeable upon the author of the Message, who, we presume, meant by the "rest of mankind" the democratic party; or perhaps Messrs. Webster, Mangum and Phelps; or, peradventure, Messrs. Toombs, Stevens, Cabell, Morton and Owen.—Washington Union

The whigs used to make frequent complaints that President Polk did not participate sufficiently enough in the affairs of religion. Gen. Taylor's manifestations in the Mexican war. Since Taylor's inauguration Mr. Polk has died, and his magnanimous successor has not room in his messenger or his heart for even a passing allusion to the late President, who welcomed him to Washington with such excellent grace, and went down to the tomb with the dignity of a man that had surrended the highest honors and with the serenity of a Christian — The American people of all parties, are making their own comments upon a fact which so significantly marks the calibre of the General's Mind —[Boston Post.

STEAMBOAT SUNK.—The two steamboats, the Richard Stevens and Canadesaga, running as passenger boats between Jefferson and Geneva and carrying the passengers to and from the N. Y. & E. R. R, came in collision this (Thurs.) morning, near Dresden, through some misunderstanding of the pilots, the forming running into and off the whole side of the latter as far back as the wheel, and causing her to sink in a few minutes. The passengers all escaped to the Richard Stevens, and the baggage was all saved One man was thrown a distance of some 40 feet into the lake, but succeeded in swimming back to the boat.

A SINGULAR DOCUMENT has just been issued by the Treasury Department. To use the language of the Post, "it instructs Collectors as to the course they shall adopt in levying the expenditure of collecting the revenue within the appropriation made by Congress. First, it dispenses with the use of the revenue cutters; secondly it throws the expense of weighing, gaugeing, measuring, &c., upon the owner or inspectors of the articles weighed, &c., and thirdly, it withholds a part of the pay due to the officers and clerks employed in the Custom-houses. This last provision, if meant to apply to those officers whose salaries are fixed by law, is equivalent to a declaration of bankruptcy on the part of the government."

Like most of the emanations from the present Administration, it is perfectly unintelligible.—N. Y. Globe.

CUBA REVOLUTIONISTS.—The Express of this morning has a despatch from Washington, which announces that the Cuba revolutionists are again at work; that they have raised large sums of money; that their expedition is again pretty well under way; that they have plenty of arms, munitions of war, &c., but that now they will not accordingly to law. They will not concentrate their forces here, in the United States, but assemble at a fixed time, say on the Isthmus of Darien, or it may be in Yucatan, or it may be on some island not yet known.—N. Y. Evening Post.

CHEAP PAPERS.—The Vermont Chronicle mentions the cases of two papers in its region of country, which were induced to try the cheap plan by reducing their subscription price, both of which, after trial, announce to their subscribers that they shall be compelled to return to their old prices. One states that a handsome addition to its list was not sufficient to make up its losses; and the other, that experiment has cost its publisher a positive loss of fifteen hundred dollars.

Roll in the Goods AT THE HEAD OF NAVIGATION.

A BID all the compromise, breaking up, and breaking down, and hard times, and stagnation of business, professional drummers, and daily slanders, of under rolling our store rollers, by the old and fair game, the subscribers are now enabled to buy a large stock of

Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, Hardware, Plain Nails,

Buffalo Robes, Muffs, Caps, and, indeed, almost every article usually kept in a country store. Which is to be disposed of to the public and the public will give him a call and be satisfied that he intends to be distinctly understood, that he will not be undersold by any concern in the county, and that he will sell as cheap as any body can sell, and be satisfied, he would inform the public, that he still continues the old stand, part door to Wilson's store, where customers for past favors, he solicits a share of favor to come
