A SWEAMBOAT RACE!

The steamboat race held in the State of Pennsylvania, on the 1st of March, 1850, was one of the most interesting events of the season. It was held on the waters of the Delaware River, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The race was between the steamboat "The Montrose" and "The Philadelphia." The "Montrose" was owned by the late General Cass, and was commanded by Captain J. M. Smith. The "Philadelphia" was owned by the late General Cass, and was commanded by Captain J. M. Smith.
