THURSDAY, June 27. SENATE.—The Supplementary Census Bill was taken up and passed.

Mr. Webster addressed the Senate. He said Mr. Soule's amendment was opposed to the immediate admission of California as a State, providing, as it did, certain conditions, which must be first acted upon by California in Convention.

Mr. Webster proceeded to consider and discuss the amendments proposed by Mr. Soule. He said that according to the bill there was no annex to the United States in the public domain in California.

Mr. Webster maintained that the usage, practice, judicial and law of the country were all against the proposition that California were annexed to the public domain within her borders.

Mr. Webster considered the question of boundary, reaffirming his position that no better boundaries could possibly have been chosen than those defined by the Constitution of California.

Mr. Barrett then addressed the Senate in support of the right of the South to secede from the Union.

Mr. Foote followed with additional remarks in relation to Mr. Colburn's ground in favor of non-intervention.

Mr. Davis of Miss. spoke in relation to the bill, and Mr. Davis was frequently interrupted in his remarks by Mr. Foote, and a sort of conventional debate was continued before the Senate adjourned.
