

What is the prospect of the war? It is a question that has been asked by many people. The answer is that the war is a long and hard one, and it will be a long time before it will be over. The people of the United States are doing their best to support the war, and they will continue to do so until the war is over. The war is a test of the strength of the United States, and it is a test that the United States is passing with flying colors. The people of the United States are proud of their country, and they are proud of the men and women who are fighting for their country. The war is a noble and just one, and it is one that the people of the United States are proud to support.

At last there was a final breach. The two had been spending some ten weeks together at a winter cure establishment, she as a patient, he as a visitor, and now they were talking or leaning together. Most people thought them engaged. The daughters of the house—young girls both—nearly testify that they always left the parlor when the lovers came in; a very excellent practice which, we are sorry to say, you are not guilty of. However, towards the end of the week, Miss D.—
