

THE FARMER'S COLUMN.

A SINGULAR FEAR OF NATURE.

In the winter of 1893, I saw, in the hands of a friend...

The Quaker—A Quaker, residing at Paris, was waited on by four workmen...

Yankee Curiosity—As a sailor, who had just returned from a voyage...

A Very Fast Boy—James Brown, a young gentleman, aged about twelve years...

Viagra—Viagra is an indispensable article in every family...

Parasitic—A young lady, when recommended to exercise for her health...

Progress of Improvement—'Mother,' asked a five foot gawky...

'Good night and good!' said the young man, 'Jedediah!'

The Choice—A Quaker, residing at Paris, was waited on by four workmen...

'Well, my friends,' said the Quaker, 'here are your gifts, choose fifteen francs or the Bible!'

'I don't know how to read,' said the first, 'so I take the fifteen francs.'

The Yankee would not fork it, but actually replied: 'Darnation! I wish I could eat that!'

'Well then,' said Jack, 'it was bit off!'

'Daddy, I reckon as how I might go a-courtin' now, bein' as how gooseberry pie is comin' in fashion, ma'm!'

'Well, if I don't go to see somebody's girl next Sunday, then saw my old fat in two!'

'Why, be a paughty fair clever sort of a man, bud—hem!'

'Why—a-lem—why he feeds his darnation horse on pumpkins!'

'I never knew any man,' says an old author, 'who could not bear another's sin as long as he could keep his own.'
