The London Times on the U. S.

The London Times of the 8th inst. has the following language in conclusion to an article on the United States. A few years since and it would have ridiculed anything that was American.

"The thirteen States of the Union have already become three-and-thirty, if not more, for they increase as we write, and there is space and verge enough to convert the number into a hundred. It is beyond all human power to calculate the prospects of a government to which one continent supplies territory and another population. What California is to America, America is to the whole world. No example has ever yet been seen of such a mighty and interminable conflux of people. Ireland alone supplies yearly to this extraordinary State the population of a first class city. San Francisco has increased more in two years than Brighton in fifty.

The treasures of the new territory have attracted immigrants in equal numbers from the two proverbial extremeties of the world—from China and Peru; and yet by some wonderful process the system of the Union appears to absorb and assimilate to its constitution these various and conflicting elements. No speculator can prognosticate the end of such a prodigious experiment, or prophesy the eventual decisions of a chamber in which the delegates of California and New Mexico will meet the representatives of Florida and Maine. But thus much we may at least say, that the American Union is now discharging a providential part in the progress of the world, and that if possible modifications of its political constitution are but effected in obedience to the principles which have hitherto maintained it, there can be no reason why either Americans or Englishmen need look with apprehension to the result."

LATEST MAIL NEWS.

Later From California.

The steamship Empire City, Capt. J. B. Wilson, from Chagres via Kingston, Jamaica, with 210 passengers for New York, and $750,000 specie on freight, and $250,000 to $300,000 in the hands of passengers.

The whigs have succeeded in electing three candidates for the legislature in Sacramento City, which is supposed to give them five majority on joint ballot, in the election of United States Senator.

Our San Francisco papers are to the 1st of January.

(From the Pacific News.)

Nothing of particular interest has occurred since the sailing of the last steamer for the Atlantic States, to render a full history of matters on the Pacific side necessary.

The near approach of the assembling of the Legislature naturally attracts the attention of the people generally, but more especially of the politicians whose interests are to be promoted by the acts of that body.

The question of the election of U. S. Senator, in place of J.C. Fremont, will be a subject of no little interest and excitement. Already a large number of candidates are in the field, and uncertainty regarding the political complexion of the Legislature gives additional interest to the contest.

The people are looking with much interest to the action of the present session of Congress, in the hope that such acts will meet with prompt disposal as shall relieve the State from embarrassment, and put her in the road to prosperity.

The weather for the past two or three weeks has been lovely in the extreme. Scarce a cloud has obscured the sun for that entire period, and its rays have poured down warm and cheering. What portion of the old States can boast of such weather as we are now enjoying in mid-winter.

The health of the city and of California generally, is good. The cholera has entirely disappeared.

Business shows no great activity; in fact, is rather dull, and prices are not very encouraging to shippers.

The most important news that we see in the papers, is the report of serious disturbances with the Indians.

Several skirmishes have taken place in the vicinity of Trinity and the Kalmath, and the whites in sparse settlements are in constant dread of the bands.

The Indians in the Northern mines have also committed some depredations, and attacked trading and mining settlements.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

ENGLAND.—The English news is of trifling interest, and the papers are chiefly filled with speculations relative to the exciting topic likely to engage the early attention of Parliament.

It is asserted that the Chancellor will have a surplus of not less than 4,000,000 pounds sterling for the year.

Public opinion is strongly in favor of a reduction of taxation. Amongst the most prominent articles named for a reduction are the window and paper duties.

FRANCE.—Louis Napoleon appears to have gained, for the time being, a complete mastery over Gen. Changarneir and the National Assembly.

The Committee of Public Safety have reported a resolution in regard to the late measures of the Government, and an exciting debate relative thereto was going on in the Assembly at the latest dates.

The National Assembly, acknowledging the right of the Executive power to dispose of military commands, blames the use made of that right, and declares that the General in Chief of the Army of Paris, and prescribes the title to the confidence which the Assembly testified to him in the sitting of the 3d inst., and passed to the order of the day.

An unquiet feeling pervaded all classes in Paris on Thursday, and the Assembly was crowded to excess. An amendment had been proposed, and would probably pass, stating that the Assembly had no confidence in the Ministry.

At the conclusion of the latest telegraphic dispatch, Lamartine was making an able address in defence of the President.

GERMANY.—The news from the Duchies is that the Holsteiners have made an unconditional surrender to the King of Denmark.

Through the instrumentality of the Austrian and Prussian Commissioner, the army has been disbanded, and the chief members of the Stalthoudate have retired to Hamburg.

Although nothing definite is yet known of the proceedings of the Dresden conference, yet little doubt appears to be entertained but that the result will be reconciliation of the old Diet in Germany.

It is affirmed that a central power, with a large army at its command has been resolved upon.

The report of an early Congress at Dresden, has been officially contradicted.

SPAIN.—Another weekly resignation of the Cabinet has taken place, and this time, it is said, that Navarez has actually left Madrid.

ITALY.—Accounts from Rome and the papal States represent a growing apprehension and uneasiness among all classes.

Desperate Murder.

NUNDA, Feb. 6.

A man named Johnson was shot dead near the village of Belfast yesterday. He was going to a mill with a load of grain, and when within a short distance of it he overtook an Irishman, who asked permission to ride, which was refused by Johnson. He had gone on but a few rods when the Irishman fired upon him with a rifle. The ball passed through the arm of a man who was on the load with Johnson, and then through Johnson's lungs. The Irishman has been arrested.

Sixteen Days Later from Mexico.

The Steamship Alabama, Capt. Foster, arrived to-day with advices from Mexico, to the 16th ult. The country, since the suppression of the revolution in Guinseats, and the rebellion in Oajaca, was quiet, four of the leaders in the former outbreak, had been executed.

Loss of the Steamer John Adams.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 4.

On Monday morning, Jan. 27, at 3 o'cl'k. the steamer John Adams, Capt H. A. Jones, with a heavy freight and a large number of passengers, bound for Cincinnati, when near the head of Island Eighty-two in Mississippi, struck a snag or stump and in two minutes. The cabin parted from the hull, and the latter went down in about sixty feet o' water. She had ninety or one hundred deck dassengers, a few of whom only were saved. The cabin in breaking from the hull, separated in the middle, which, doubtless, was the cause of many of the cabin passengers saving their lives. The ladies in the cabin were all saved.

From Capt. Shalcross and others, we make up the following summary of persons on the boat, and the number saved: Total number on board, 230—saved 107—missing 123.

Fugitive Slave Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8.

The case of the colored woman Williams with her six children, who are alleged to be fugitive slaves, is now being heard in a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Kane. Her counsel admits she is a slave, but demands her release upon the ground of 21 years exemption from the law. There is an immense crowd of colored people in front of the state House.

Baltimore Items.

BATIMORE, Feb. 8.

The Steam propellor Baltimore, bound from Philadelphia to this place, was sunk last night below the city, having been cut through by the ice. She had on board a valuable cargo, all of which it is supposed will form a total loss. A destructive fire is now raging in Frederick City, New Castle, Delaware.

Feb. 9.—Adam's & Co.'s freight car on the Philadelphia road caught fire last night on its was to Baltimore, and was nearly burnt up, with all its contents. The goods lost were valued at from $3,000 to $4,000.

The police undertook to arrest a gang of rowdies who were fighting this afternoon, and were resisted with pistols. A boy named George Moreland, 15 years of age shot officer Crangle—the bullet entering his cheek and coming out at the back of his head. He is still alive.

The American Flora.

IN Monthly parts, each illustrated with from four to six beautiful likenesses of plants, with their Botanical description, history, propagation, and culture, medical properties and uses. By A. B. Strong, M. D. Second edition. The "American Flora" is not only one of the most beautiful of all parlor ornaments, but a valuable acquisition to the library and study of every family. It unfolds to the reader the great secret of the properties and uses of such plants as are delineated with in its pages, and renders clearly and intelligible to every enquiring mind the valuable worth of nature's productions. The Classification, Order, Family and Natural Order of each described species, compiled from the most authentic records of history—following the Linnean system, is given and explained in a manner that every student of Botany cannot fail of understanding their meaning. The History, Propagation and culture, medical properties and uses of such plants as are considered most valuable, either in medicine, the arts or as ornaments, with their qualities, modes of administration and doses, are briefly explained, thereby rendering it unnecessary, in many instances, for the reader to consult a practising physician.

As a parlor ornament, the "American Flora" cannot be surpassed. Each number will contain from four to six beautiful colored engravings, imitating nature in her greatest perfection; thus embellishing each volume with fifty or sixty likenesses of living plants. It is not only an invaluable work to physicians and students, but a desirable acquisition to the library of every family.
