DEATH OF MRS. MORRISON.—Mrs. PLUMA A. MORRISON, wife of WILLIAM A. MORRISON of this village, the lady mentioned by us last week as having taken Aquafortis through mistake, died at the residence of her father, Alfred Williams, of the town of Canton, on Monday last. The Aquafortis contained a mixture of quicksilver and was taken for Chloroform, which Mrs. M. had been in the habit of dropping into a decayed tooth to prevent its aching.—How she came to swallow the fiery poison we are not informed; but it must have been unintended.—Oswego Gaz.

LATEST MAIL NEWS.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The United States Mail steamer Franklin arrived at New York on Saturday, 22d inst., bringing news from Paris and Havre, to the 7th, and from London to the 8th of March inclusive.

The old Russel Ministry have been reinstated, though the general opinion seems to be that it is only provisional.

The End of the Ministerial Crisis in England.

We are in possession of copies of the London Times of the 8th March. These papers contain the debates in parliament of the preceding evening on which occasion Lord John Russel made his promised disclosures as to the course to be pursued by the Ministry.

We subjoin an abstract of the proceedings, which are of considerable interest.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin appeared at the bar in his robes, and presented a petition from the metropolis of Ireland against the abolition of the Viceroyalty.

Lord J. Russell gave notice that on this day fortnight he should move for leave to paing in a bill for the better administration of justice—(hear, hear)—in the court of Chancery.

Sir De Lacy Evans inquired from the government whether the expense of the reinforcement about to be sent out to Caffraenent would be at the expense of this country or of the Cape and whether the House would have any opportunity of passing an opinion upon the subject?

Lord J. Russell in reply, could only say that his noble friend at the head of the Colonial Department had enjoined the Gov. of the Cape to take care that no expense should be incurred, in the event of another war, which would fall upon this country—the colony would be expected to bear it; but he could not say any more at present than this that with the exception of sending out the necessary reinforcements, no expense would be incurred without a statement of it being laid before the House.—(Hear,)

Mr. Locke Ling brought up his bill for extending the franchise in counties in England and wales.

It was read a first time, to be read a second time the 2d of April.

It was thought very improbable that the present irritated administration, of which Lord John Russell is the head, would last long, and its continuance in office is merely intended to do away with the immediate necessity for an appeal to the country in the shape of a dissolution. Should the Papal measure pass the legislature in any shape, the principal obstruction to a coalition between the Whigs and the Peelites would be removed, and probly some of the more eminent statesmen of the Peel party would effect a fusion with the Whig cabinet or that the ranks of the latter would be reinforced by Sir James Graham and others who unable to form a ministry of their own nevertheless strengthen and consolidate for a time, the tottering Russell clique.

Montrose and Harford Plank Road Company.

Pursuant to public notice given according to Act of assembly the stockholders of the Montrose and Harford Plank Road Company met at the house of Leonard Searle, on the 24th day of March, 1851.—On motion, Hon. Wm. Jessup was called to the chair, and Wm. H. Cooper appointed Secretary. A series of By-Laws for the regulation and government of said company, having been discussed and adopted the meeting adjourned.

At a meeting of the Commissioners, the stockholders, elected Henry Drinker, Esq. President; B. S. Bentley, L. Searle, I. L. Post, S. H. Savre, D. D. Warner, managers; and J. B. Salisbury, Treasurer of said company.

At a meeting of the Board immediately after election, C. R. Hall was appointed Engineer, J. B. Salisbury, Superintendant and Wm. H. Cooper, Secretary of said company.

At an adjourned meeting of the Board, on the 25th March, 1851, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stock Books be opened for additional subscriptions upon the same terms as taken by the commissioners, to wit:—five dollars per share to be paid on subscribing, and that J. B. Salisbury be authorized to receive subscriptions.

Resolved, That all subscriptions taken by persons residing in Harford and vicinity shall be used for the construction of that portion of the road extending east of the Leggett's Gap Rail Road.

By order.

Sour Grapes.

IN looking over the Democrat of last week I observed, I scarce y know what to call it. I should say a begging letter, over the signature of Wm. W. True, in which he endeavors in a sarcastic manner to prejudice the ladies and Gentlemen whom he addresses, against a person whom he designates an old goose, old, as respects his proficiency in watch repairing. The only reply I shall make to his folly is the words committed to my charge "shall testify of me." Three days had not elapsed before this disappointed Mantterer in the presence of Miss Avery Esq., and Mr. Turrell, offered me two dollars and fifty cents per day and board to come and work for him. I repelled his offer with contempt, and advised him to call back upon his recent schoolastic occupation as Teacher in the school at Forest Lake—and there it is his diminished head.

Gentlemen and Ladies!

I WISH to call your attention to the arrangement I have made which is intended for your benefit as well as my own. On account of the increase in watch repairing I am not able to do it all myself, and as I propose employing more of my time the coming season in trade. I have engaged a first class workman in New York to spend his time with me after about the first of April. In speaking of his capabilities I cannot say that like the 77 year old goose who found she could not take steps on the ice) he has worked in Liverpool so long that he cannot get further employment and is obliged to go into the country and work at half price to get work, but I can say that he comes recommended by men of the first class in the business, and as I have to pay him large wages I expect to have the greater part of the town work to do. So let us hear from you as soon as you find you have not the TRUE time and you shall be satisfied that we can do full as much as we ask you can or no charge.

N. B. I shall be on hand about the same time with the best stock of fancy goods that has ever been offered in this place, of which you shall hear in due time.

The most reliable information provided in watch making, and is duly considered, thoroughly conducted, more particularly attended to, and moderate charges.

It must be a settled rule, in connection with and in addition to this stated knowledge, of a knowledge acquaintance, it is indispensibly requisite the artizan should possess within such a specimen of Automata now in his possession, together with the high patronage enjoyed, prepondentates in the scale of scientific approbation then J. A. S. unostentatiously presumes he has some pretensions to the confidence of those honoring him with the requirements.
