The Tariff-A Hobby-Two ways to Ride it.

Mr. Fillmore said in his annual message : Ahigh tariff can never be permanent .-It will cause dissatisfaction, and will be changed It excludes competition, and thereby invites the investment of capital in manufactures to such excess that when changed it brings distress, bankruptoy, and rain apon all who have been misled by its faithless protection." This is the language of the president of the United States, who by the position he holds has to recommend to Congress what he deems proper upon this subject, and he Whig President in the bargain. Now what does Gov. Johnston say-a Whig governor, together with a mixture of abolitionism, free soilism, and antimasonry? Why he has already taken the stump and commenced prating and bloating about the old antiquated tariff of 1842. He is so silly as to think that his professions for a high tarif will keep him in the gubernatorial chair. Here is a hobby ridden entirely different .-President Filmore takes a rational view of the subject and admits that as commerce changes the laws regulating it need change. This we call taking the reins of the hobby. Thatcher. and riding straight forward but Gov. Johnston has evidently got his back to the head of the hobby, and instead of taking hold of the reins is trying to guide it by the Franklin: Joseph L. Merriman, Horace crooper. Go it John perhaps your nag will Barnum, David Watson. of the reins is trying to guide it by the take the back track and then you will have vour face the right way whether you ever Bliss. reach your place of destination or not we don't care. - Easton Aagus.

latest mail news. The Awful Execution.

Baltimore Aug. S. 1851. Taylor-Murphy and Shelton, the murderers of the Cosden family, were hung to-day in the presence of eight thousand people, whose behavior was very orderly. The prisoners' ascended the gallows together with firm steps.

Taylor and Murphy made short addresses positively denying their guilt. Shelton also denied his guilt. Marphy, when first brought to the gallows, exclaimed, "Murderers now do your work; but, bear in mind, that you do not hang murderers." The gallows was twenty-five feet high, and the fall six feet. The ropes were bunglingly adjusted, and when the trap fell, the knot of Murphy's rope broke, and he fell violently to the ground, a distance of twelve feet. His throat was borribly mashed and lascerated, and he Boyd, E. W. Hawley, S. H. Sayre. was perfectly insensible. This occurrence eaused a thrill of horror amongst the specta-

The other two men died without a strugele-the great fall not only broke their neck. but parted the flesh all around their throats, almost to the bone. They hung twenty minutes and were taken down.

Murphy, by this time, had recovered, and again repeated his declaration of innocence. As he passed the bodies of Taylor and Shelton, he exclaimed, "My God two innocent men sacrificed," lie was again put on the gallows-with the blood streaming from his neck-and swung off. He appeared to die quite easily.

The crowd then dispersed I am happy to state that there were no carry spectators from Baltimore to witness | AND OVERSHOT THRESHER & this execution.

August 8, 1851 Amos Green, the negro convicted of rape. was executed at Ellicot's Mills, to day .-He went to the scaffold singing and praying. He declared his annocence, but said it was of no use, as the world would-not believe him. He asked Gud to forgive her. A despatch was received from Governor Lowe, authorizing a further respite, if thought advisable by the District Attorney.

The Cuba Revolution.

The following letter so says the Baltimore Sun, was received by a gentleman of this city, which came in the Georgia, gives the postive denial to all the accounts of defeat and disaster to the patriots: HAVANA, August 1, 1841.
