Died.

After a short illness, at the house of Mr. John Gillespie, in Great Bend, on Sabbath, the 21st ult., Mrs. Lydia, widow of the late Judge Thompson, in the 72d year of her age.

In Liberty, Susquehanna county, April 7, '51, Dr. Ira B. Richardson, aged 29 years.

The subject of this notice was born where he died; the last few weeks of his life were spent amid his relatives and friends who rejoiced to watch by his side and minister to his wants. During the winter of '41 he was hopefully converted and soon after united with the Baptist Church of Liberty. He often questioned his change of heart and hope of heaven; others could tell of pungent conviction, agonizing prayer, the precise time of their conviction and the unspeakable joys that followed, none of which he had experienced in the same degree though perhaps in kind, hence these gloomy doubts and desponding fears.—But his Christian friends thought they saw abundant and convincing evidence of a genuine conviction in his ardent attachment for the cause and children of God, the uniformly consistent example of his life, together with the unfaltering hope and triumphant faith of his death.

Some time subsequent to his conviction his attention was directed to the medical profession. Accordingly he commenced and completed a course of preparation for that profession and had but just entered on its practice when declining health admonished him to seek repose and refreshment amid the friends and scenes of his early home. He did so but without the anticipated result. He was now prostrate on a bed of sickness and death. With a heart subdued and sanctified by divine grace, a mind developed and disciplined by patient and protracted study and stored with rich and varied learning his prospects of usefulness and distinction were truly flattering. But Death regards none of these; no attainments of heart or head, no station of usefulness or prospect of distinction can ward off his fatal darts, else one friend had not fallen their victim so soon. But he has gone, his spirit to its creator God, his body to his mother Earth. His remains now sweetly repose in a rural cemetery overlooking the home of his childhood, the scenes he loved so well. No marble slab marks the place of his rest but his record is on high and his name and virtues are emblamed in the memory of friends. [Com.

THE ROAD TO WEALTH.

WHAT is there that guarantees to us a competency more surely, n'our decline of life, than health, and vigor of youth, nothing. Then the question is,how shall that be obtained and secured. If we have a Cough, Cold, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Pleurisy, Influenza, or Hoarseness, or any other affliction of the Lungs or Chest, you will find in Dr. Throop's COMPOUND SYRUP of BLOOD ROOT, a sure and safe remedy, or if your children are afflicted with Croup or Hooping Cough, no better remedy can be found. Thousands have been relieved with it, and certificates of its curative powers, now in my possession, places it beyond doubt, the greatest remedy of the age, for any affection of the Lungs. The powers of Blood Root as a remedy has long been known, but its harsh action alone has kept it somewhat out of general favor, but, I flatter myself that the above combination is perfect, and that its use, will secure friends wherever it is offered to an enlightened public.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.—I wish to ameliorate your condition, to lessen your cares, perplexities, and anxieties, which I do by providing for your tender offspring, a remedy for their ills that is adapted to their infirmities, without the fear of consequences from remedies charged with opiates, so destructive and detrimental to so many thousands of our race. Who amongst you but feels for the suffering infant, where cries are the only indication of its suffering, writhing with pains from cholic, excited from diarrhea or dysentary, suffering great nervous irritation, often fits, from teething—often brought to death's door from cholera Infantum, and every ill arising from but nourishment or nursing. I have seen all of these cured in a day almost, by a remedy that I have been for years in perfecting, in an extensive practice of nearly twenty years and now offer it to you under the trade name of "Dr. Throop's INFANT RESTORATIVE and MOTHER'S RELIEF."

When this remedy has been used, it has met with unbounded favor, and as you value your own comfort or the welfare of your darling Babe, I ask you to give it a trial, and you will say truly in its behalf, it is the "Mother's Relief."

Worms are also productive of great torture to children of riper years, the symptoms of which every parent is aware, and where suspected, it is their duty to exterminate them as speedily as possible, which can be done only with a few doses of Dr Throop's WORM POISON, which is beyond comparison, with any Vermifuge of the day. It will destroy them; and the very small dose, makes it acceptable to the children that dislike medicines of any kind. It is a happy compound of harmless vegetable medicines, that in their combination, produce wonderful effects upon those filthy intruders of the human system.

If you are suffering from derangement of the stomach, Liver, or Bowels, you have Fever, head-ache, sour stomach, or heart-burn, flatulency, costiveness, and many other unpleasant symptoms, for their entire relief you have only to take a few doses of "Dr. Throop's BILLIOUS PILLS," and you have a cure. They act upon disease by removing the cause, restoring the secretions, of all the organs of the body and health is the consequence.

To those afflicted with sore, weak, or inflamed eyes, I furnish you also a remedy that has stood the test of years of experience, and restored the most cases when every other remedy known had failed, Dr. Throop's EYE WATER. These comprise the list of Dr. Throop's Domestic Medicines, that should be in the hands of every house keeper, as a good remedy always ready, and which only requires a trial to insure them a place.

Agents' Names—Huntley & Read, Montrose; N. Granger & Co., Rush; R. M. Southwell, Rush; C. C. Wright, Middletown; D. Gliddon, Friendsville; P. M. Barbor, Jessup; Brackney & Monfort, Brackney; J. S. BLASDELL, General Agent, Forest Lake.

HORRIBLE!

A Man with his Throat Cut!

BUT he did it himself, the Barber had nothing to do with it No man ever heard of such a thing being done by the Barber, while the Newspapers are full of instances of men doing it themselves. A razor is a dangerous thing and none but an experienced workman should be allowed to handle it. Every man should think of this, and not trust to himself for no one can tell what may happen to him. Now if you never touch a razor you will never cut your th oat with it, so just call on CHARLES TILMAN, Barber & Hair Dresser, in Searle's building, next door to Postoffice, who will shave you as smooth as a new born babe. CHARLES TILMAN.

Kossuth Has Come.

THE United States of America, conscious of their glorious calling, sent a vessel to distant Turkey to break the chains by which the mightiest despots of Europe fettered the activity of the illustrious exiled Hungarian chief, whose very name disturbed the ground security of their slumber. He is now the nation's guest He comes to rouse our sympathy and ask our aid for his people and their cause. In view of the Kossuth excitement, and other considerations which more directly concern ourselves, the late firm of Drs. J. W. & D. F. Brundage is dissolved by mutual consent. It has become necessary "positively" to close up the affairs of our old Books, which have been from one to sixteen years standing; and would respectfully beg leave to call the attention of all those indebted, to a settlement of the same without further notice or delay. The notes and books may be found in the hands of J. W. Brundage for a short time. Payment can be made to either of the late partners. J. W. BRUNDAGE.

Gibson, Jan. 1, 1852. D. F. BUNDAGE.

Dr. D. F. Brundage respectfully asks leave to tender his sincere thanks to the citizens of Susquehanna, Luzerne, Wayne and Wyoming counties for their very liberal patronage, and many proofs of friendship. He designs a permanent residence in Gibson, and may be found, as usual, at the old office of Drs. J. W. & D. F. Brundage, when not professionally engaged.

BEAUTY AND EXCELLENCE

SARTAIN'S MAGAZINE,

FOR 1852.

EIGHTY pages of reading matter in each No. being sixteen pages of additional reading over and above the usual quantity given in the $3 magazines.

The proprietors of this popular periodical will spare no expense in the effort to impart the most decided superiority to their magazine, and trust to receive the same marked appreciation that has heretofore rewarded their enterprise.

American Literature in the highest class will be found in their pages.

Superb embellishments, consisting partly of transcripts from original paintings by eminent American Artists, will alone exceed in value the price of a year's subscription.

A Humorous Department has been added to their usual form of construction, where Puck outrivalling Punch, will monthly open his portfolio of the choicest 'good things' gathered from all parts of the world. A summary of Musical Literary and Artistic Intelligence, will be prepared for every number by Mr. Chas. G. Leland, embracing as a prominent feature, interesting accounts of the authors of Continental Europe, and their publications. This with a full and impartial Review Department, will they hope meet with the approval of their literary friends.
