D. VIRGIL, Tenders, his professional services to the citizens of Montrose and vicinity among whom he proposes to lucate as Respective Dentist. It will be his endeavor to the best of his ability to serve those who may favor him with their patronage. He does not propose so to cheap-en the profession as to lower its dignity, or proen the protession as to tower its uightly, or provoke the charge of incompetency, but knowing that the high prices of Dentistry determany who very much need its benefits, but feel too poor to purchase them, he does propose to consider the circumstances of individuals and charge accor-and Turnpike streets. Work warranted.
