On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwallis and his staff, which was hombarded ond pierced with bulls; the Marquis de Luiayette having remarked that they were carrying dishes for the dinner of Lord Cornwallis, asked leave of General Washington to serve him a dish of his own cooking, and immediately after several bomb-shells fell through the roof on the table, and wounded some and dispersed the party.
