

We have crossed the Alps.

At the moment when the world believed the cause of France an utterly desperate case—when France, imperiled by dissensions, crushed under the rule of bearded demagogues, and unable to raise any new levies against her foes—Napoleon out-dazzled imagination by one of his grandest achievements of war. While the enemies of France believed that they had come when that country was at the very point of redemption, he crossed the ice barriers of the Alps, and poured down his legions upon astonished Italy. His triumphant cannon soon woke old Europe from her lethargy; and before the bold steedman of England and could recover from their first astonishment, after his passage over hills of eternal snow, the eagle of France now illuminated with the immortal blood-bought victories of Montebello and of Marengo, swept on from victory to victory over the fair fields of Italy.

THE DEMOCRAT.

The Largest Circulation in Northern Pennsylvania—1022 Copies Weekly.

S. B. & E. B. CHASE, Editors.

Montrose, Pa.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1852.

For President, Gen. Franklin Pierce, Of New Hampshire.

For Vice President, Hon. William Rufus King, Of Alabama.

Canal Commissioner, William Searight, of Fayette.

THE DEMOCRAT FOR THE CAMPAIGN. A NEW OFFER.

In view of the importance of the coming Presidential Campaign, and the general interest which will be felt in its progress and result—in view of the universal desire on the part of the people to know the truth relative to the great questions at issue, and the men who are to receive their suffrages at the ballot box, we offer great inducements to subscribe for our paper until after election.

We will furnish the Democrat from July 1st until the 15th day of November, after the Presidential Election, a period of four months, as follows:

Single copy, each in advance, $0 50
5 copies, 2 00
12 copies, 4 00

The clubs must be to one address—Our friends in all parts of the county are invited to act as our agents, in getting up clubs, and forwarding orders for the same.

Address, post paid, S. B. & E. B. CHASE, Montrose, Susquehanna co., Pa.

The Democratic County Standing Committee.

will meet at the house of Wm. K. Hatch in Montrose, on Tuesday next (29th inst.) at 10 o'clock P. M., for the transaction of important business. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

O. G. HENNSTEAD, J. L. MERRIMAN, O. LAZROD, S. B. CHASE, F. B. STREETER, Wm. J. FURBELL, Thos. P. PARSENEY, M. J. MUMFORD, Committee.

O. G. HENNSTEAD, Chairman.

We are requested to call attention to the Advertisement of W. B. DEANS, in to-day's paper. Mr. D. has now and fine apparatus, and we have seen some fine specimens of his work.

Wm. A. Graham of North Carolina, present Secretary of the Navy was nominated for Vice President on the second ballot. Scott and Graham, shout the whigs.

We would invite particular attention of the members of the County Committee to the call for a meeting next Tuesday, and urge them to be present. Much needs to be done by the Democrats in way of organization for the important contest upon us, so let us begin, let us be sure we are right, and then, like Crockett, "go ahead."

We are aware that it is hard times for money, but we think there are not many who cannot raise the small amount of their subscription. Now, in plain terms, we must have some money, or our subscribers must go without a paper. Had we but one tenth part of what is due on our books, such an appeal would be unequalled. Will not our friends step forward and relieve us. A fair warning, and those who do not heed it need find no fault should they be waited on.

The New Jail.

The Commissioners of the county have assigned the erection of the Jail to Messrs. Smith & Co. of Chenango county, New York. The bid taken was $5,550. The plan of the building is a most admirable one, and it will now be prosecuted to an early completion. Five thousand dollars are raised by a tax on the Borough of Montrose, in accordance with the Act passed for that purpose, to be paid in annual instalments.

Book Notices.

THE STUDENT for June, the best work for children and youth extant, is before us. Terms, $1 a year. Fowlers & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York city.

GODFREY'S LABYRINTH for July, is a double number, and more attractive than ever. Godfrey's promises are always great, but we find more than fulfills them all.

THE PENNSYLVANIA FARM JOURNAL is a monthly devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, and Rural Economy, published at Lancaster, Pa. by A. M. Sparger. This is just the work for farmers, and should take the precedence over agricultural works of other States. Take it, and we will watch for your liking it. Terms, $1. five copies $4, ten copies $7.50, twenty $15.00.

The Binghamton Brass Band discoursed excellent music in front of the American Hotel last (Thursday) evening. This Band is not appreciated and encouraged by our citizens. As is usually the case, it is thought more of abroad than at home. At the recent celebration at Great Bend, their performances were not appreciated and encouraged by our citizens. As is usually the case, it is thought more of abroad than at home. At the recent celebration at Great Bend, their performances were not appreciated and encouraged by our citizens.

Mr. Buchanan. The Lancaster Intelligencer printed at the house of Mr. BUCHANAN, says: although he is deformed in the right arm, he is contented and happy in the consciousness of having done nothing during the entire career inconsistent with that high sense of honor which has always marked his public and private career. He speaks in the highest terms of Gen. Pierce, and expresses the greatest anxiety for his success, and we venture to say, that the great Pennsylvania statesman has more peace of mind at home, on his own little farm, and that he will do more to promote the success of the nominee, than all his revilers and enemies put together.

The Whig Nomination.

Monday last, the Whig National Convention at Baltimore, on the fifty-third ballot, and after five days incessant labor, nominated, Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New Jersey, for President, by a vote of 159 to 113 and 21.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

Such a result we expected, and our only wonder is, that more than half a day should be necessary for the universal Whig party to find out its strongest man and put him in nomination. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first. Mr. Fillmore led Gen. Scott in Delegates first.

our southern brethren!

No epithet has been so coarse and vulgar to be heaped upon the Democratic party by these same Whigs because they have heretofore pledged their faith to stand by the Constitution and laws of their country. The Democratic Convention resolved that the party would "abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the Compromises measures"—a duty which every good citizen owes to the laws of his country while they are laws; but they recognized in those laws no finality over other laws, no "final settlement" further than time and future wisdom may demand. For this they were denounced as servile supplicants at the foot of the slave power! Now let us read carefully the resolution on this subject by the Whig Convention.

That the series of resolutions known as the Compromises, including the Fugitive Slave law, are received and acquiesced in by the Whig party of the United States as a settlement in principle and substance—of the subjects which they embrace; and so far as the Fugitive Slave law is concerned, we will maintain the same, and insist on its strict enforcement until time and experience shall demonstrate the necessity of further legislation against evasion or abuse. But not ingenuously, we will maintain all future agitation of the slavery question as dangerous to the peace, and we will discontinue all efforts at the renewal or continuance of such agitation in Congress, or out of it, whenever, wherever, or howsoever, it may be attempted, as a policy essential to the nationality of the Whig party and the integrity of the Union.

Could a more humiliating spectacle be witnessed than that of northern Whiggery, in the face of all its protestations in the past, shouting halloo at the passage of the above resolution? Strange, humiliating and inconsistent as it may appear, it is nevertheless, so absolute in its terms, Free Soil devotees and Southern Fire Eaters, all gathered around the same altar, mingled their invocations together, and with happy smiles and loving hearts, blended their affections in one untrifled hymn.

That philanthropy that once opened wide the huge hearts of Christian Governors, Judges, Senators, and Editors, was crushed to death under the platform of Universal Whiggery—its swelling emotions were repressed in the bosoms of those great and good men, who saw its expectancy the rod of power and the emolument of office. Of what frail texture are the consciences of men composed! How it gives way to the approach of enmity, and how easy to reconcile opposite professions and practices! How soon they give up the quarrel they are engaged in.

When your heads is raised the whip, and in the distance is placed the green pasture of political plunder. With tears of joy and hearts overflowing with gladness and devotion, they heed the voice of the tempter, eat the fruit of bitterness, and drink the waters of Mara, with a halo of benignant gratitude upon their countenances. O what tender souls! Webster and Fillmore they could not support on this platform, because their past practice has been in accordance therewith, but a man who, by his letters, has placed himself on both sides of every question he has ever written on, who has denounced and in the same breath claimed to be the special father of the Compromise, mounts the platform, dons his epaulettes, flourishes his sword, and at the word of command chants the Te Deum laudamus of Southern niggerism. We shall speak of this subject further.

Ratification in the South.

The Charleston Mercury states, that upon the appointment of the late Judge Woodbury, of New Hampshire, to the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, Geo. Steele pressed Gen. Pierce to accept the seat in the Senate which Judge Woodbury had vacated. Pierce declined the proposal firmly, as he afterwards declined the Attorney Generalship, preferring the independence of a private citizen. The Mercury also says, that South Carolina will go for Pierce and King ten to one.

The Mobile Register, in speaking of General Pierce and his nomination, says: "The unanimous selection, in a spirit of conciliation and brotherhood, of the entire Democracy, is a grand and noble feat. The party, unembarrassed by dissensions and unimpaired by any of the antipathies engendered in the late contest between men, who, if they were more eminent, were more exposed to personal and factional objections. Gen. Pierce comes before the country as a man of the purest private character—amiable, modest, dignified and courteous—descended from a family distinguished in the revolution, and in a modest way, and well versed in the duties of the office. He is a man of the highest order of talents, and of the most universal acceptability to the people, than the one thus called, like Cincinnati, from his plough, in the Democratic fields of New Hampshire."

A Remarkable Man.

At a temperance meeting held not long since, in Alabama, Col. Lemonsky, who had been twenty-three years a soldier in the armies of Napoleon Bonaparte, addressed the meeting. He arose before the audience, tall, erect and vigorous, with a glow of health upon his cheek, and said:

"I have fought you a man 70 years of age, one of the most noble battles, have 14 wounds on my body, have lived 30 days on horse flesh with the bark of trees for my bread, snow and ice for my drink, the canopy of heaven for my covering, without stockings or shoes on my feet, and with only rags for my clothing. In the desert of Egypt I have marched five days with a burning sun upon my naked head, feet blistered in the scorching sand, and with eyes and nostrils and mouth filled with dust, and with a thirst so tormenting that I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

"I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood. I have opened my mouth and vomited blood."

The Federal Press and Franklin Pierce.

True to the instincts of federalism, the federal press have opposed their utterances of abhorrence upon Franklin Pierce, and seek by every subterfuge and fallacy to detract from his high character as a statesman, his valor as a soldier, and his accomplishments as a gentleman. In this crusade no effort is spared to denigrate; blind the people in their honest judgment; and fearing the universal popularity of the Deity and the mighty powers of the principles of Democracy, the federal press have adopted a policy of assailing the motives of his public career, and the shame recorded upon those who led on the dirty warfare.

Franklin Pierce never sought office. On the contrary he has invariably declined every public position, until urged to acceptance by considerations of utility. Can the federal press pretend to any more noble motive than their party of the slavery question as dangerous to the peace, and we will discontinue all efforts at the renewal or continuance of such agitation in Congress, or out of it, whenever, wherever, or howsoever, it may be attempted, as a policy essential to the nationality of the Whig party and the integrity of the Union.

Could a more humiliating spectacle be witnessed than that of northern Whiggery, in the face of all its protestations in the past, shouting halloo at the passage of the above resolution? Strange, humiliating and inconsistent as it may appear, it is nevertheless, so absolute in its terms, Free Soil devotees and Southern Fire Eaters, all gathered around the same altar, mingled their invocations together, and with happy smiles and loving hearts, blended their affections in one untrifled hymn.

That philanthropy that once opened wide the huge hearts of Christian Governors, Judges, Senators, and Editors, was crushed to death under the platform of Universal Whiggery—its swelling emotions were repressed in the bosoms of those great and good men, who saw its expectancy the rod of power and the emolument of office. Of what frail texture are the consciences of men composed! How it gives way to the approach of enmity, and how easy to reconcile opposite professions and practices! How soon they give up the quarrel they are engaged in.

When your heads is raised the whip, and in the distance is placed the green pasture of political plunder. With tears of joy and hearts overflowing with gladness and devotion, they heed the voice of the tempter, eat the fruit of bitterness, and drink the waters of Mara, with a halo of benignant gratitude upon their countenances. O what tender souls! Webster and Fillmore they could not support on this platform, because their past practice has been in accordance therewith, but a man who, by his letters, has placed himself on both sides of every question he has ever written on, who has denounced and in the same breath claimed to be the special father of the Compromise, mounts the platform, dons his epaulettes, flourishes his sword, and at the word of command chants the Te Deum laudamus of Southern niggerism. We shall speak of this subject further.

Sabbath School Celebration.

The people of Franklin, propose to commemorate the first of July, the national Independence, on Saturday the third day of July next. The procession will be formed at the Unionville Exchange, under the direction of Col. Rufus Smith, at 10 o'clock A. M., and march to the Church, where services will be performed in the following order:

- 1. Prayer, by Rev. John McKinstry.
- 2. Hymn, by the Choir.
- 3. Reading the Declaration, by J. L. Merriman.
- 4. Address to the Sunday Schools, by Rev. Mr. McKinstry.
- 5. Hymn, by the Choir.
- 6. Oration by Wm. H. Jessup, Esq.
- 7. Music.
- 8. Benediction.

The procession will be again formed, and proceed to a grand dinner, where church and fresh meats will be provided for all, young and old.

A cordial invitation is extended to scholars, and teachers of Sunday Schools in adjoining towns, and to good citizens generally to meet with us and aid in a proper observance of the day.

By order of the committee of arrangements.

Pennsylvania Whig State Convention.

Philadelphia, June 21, 1852.