

Time-An one of Her

regular cases of crime, in the city of New York, the... On the 17th of March, Mrs. Lydia Andrus, an elderly woman, was found...

Buchanan and the Nomination. The following extract from a letter from James Buchanan to a friend in Pennsylvania, appears in the Washington Union...

Mail Robbery. Joseph Warren and Martin Campbell, three brothers who were engaged in robbing the United States Mail between this place and Huddell's, had an examination before Mayor Guthrie on Saturday...

Address to the Free Colored People of Maryland. The Baltimore American of the 16th ult., contains the following: The committee appointed at the recent meeting of the free colored population of this city...

Great Speed on New York Railroads. The Erie steamer, the New York to Buffalo, reached Utica on Monday at 2:05 P. M., making the run of about 250 miles in seven hours and five minutes...

THE DEMOCRAT

For President, Gen. Franklin Pierce, Of New Hampshire. For Vice President, Hon. William Rufus King, Of Alabama. Canal Commissioner, William Searight, Of Fayette.

THE DEMOCRAT FOR THE CAMPAIGN

In view of the importance of the coming Presidential Campaign, and the general interest which will be felt in its progress and result—in view of the universal desire on the part of the people to know the truth relative to the great questions at issue, and the men who are to receive their suffrages at the ballot box, we offer great inducements to subscribe for our paper until after election...

We will furnish the Democrat from July fifteenth to the fifteenth day of November, after the Presidential Election, a period of four months, as follows: Single copy, cash in advance, $0 50; 5 copies, 2 00; 12 copies, 4 00.

The Progress of Democracy in the world

We are going to speak of this subject, not so much in a modern political sense, as in its general and unrestrained significance. A government by the people purely, of which our own is without doubt, the most perfect illustration the world ever saw, is the only one that can be properly called a Democracy...

From Washington

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1859. FAIRER CHANCE: There is little if any thing worth mentioning inspiring in either House of Congress. It was generally supposed, and reasonably so, that after the two Conventions had put in nomination their favorite candidates, they would immediately proceed to the discharge of important public business...

The National Agricultural Convention assembled at the Smithsonian Institute on Thursday the 24th, and temporarily organized by the appointment of Judge Watts, of Pennsylvania, as Chairman, together with a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries from all parts of the Union. A resolution was offered and adopted to form a National Agricultural Society...

The Whigs assembled in front of the City Hall on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of Scott and Graham. Owing to the rain which prevailed, threatening an increase to a storm, the meeting adjourned until the next evening at eight o'clock...

Not to pursue this subject further, we may draw a conclusion. Amid all its conflicts, in all the terrible political convulsions of the world, there has been no such thing as crippling the progress of Democratic sentiment...

A Novelty. Mr. ALFRED SAYRE, a young gentleman of our Borough, has manned a beautiful sail-boat and launched it on Jones Lake, about a mile from Town. This is no small novelty for our waters, and the way it drives up and down the lake, before a good breeze, is a compliment to the enterprise of its proprietor...

General Pierce and the Religious Test in New Hampshire

As we promised yesterday, we now give the record in full on this subject. We copy it from the official report of the proceedings of the New Hampshire constitutional convention, as published at the time of its session in the "Daily Patriot" of Nov. 14, 1850, and subsequently in the "New Hampshire Patriot" of April 24, 1851.

On motion of Mr. Parker, of Nashua, the convention resolved itself into the committee of the Whole on the report of the Committee on Property Qualifications and Religious Tests, (Mr. Sawyer, of Nashua, in the chair) and after reading the report, was taken up by Judge Woodbury made the following remarks...

Mr. CHAMBERLAIN: Being opposed to the test, that some of our private offices shall not be filled except by persons of the Protestant religion, I ask leave to offer a few reasons for it. I do it quite as much to vindicate our fathers in part for inserting it as myself for resisting it...

Without fatiguing the convention with more on this occasion, we would only add that considerations like these have led to the abolition of such tests in many other of our sister States, and in the constitution of the United States, and in my view, require us to imitate their wise example.

MR. PIERCE OF CONCORD, said: That he would concur heartily in all that the gentleman from Concord had said, except that so far from having taxed the patience of the committee, his speeches upon both the great subjects embraced in the resolutions under consideration had been listened to with attention and interest...

It is contrary to the Declaration of Independence, and of the very first article in your bill of rights, declaring all men equal. You do not thus give to all men equal privileges. It is also in the teeth of the same bill of rights, which says, we do not, that Catholics may vote, but not be voted for; and that they may be well qualified for one duty and not the other...

From the Washington Union

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. On motion of Mr. Parker, of Nashua, the convention resolved itself into the committee of the Whole on the report of the Committee on Property Qualifications and Religious Tests, (Mr. Sawyer, of Nashua, in the chair) and after reading the report, was taken up by Judge Woodbury made the following remarks...

Mr. CHAMBERLAIN: Being opposed to the test, that some of our private offices shall not be filled except by persons of the Protestant religion, I ask leave to offer a few reasons for it. I do it quite as much to vindicate our fathers in part for inserting it as myself for resisting it...

Without fatiguing the convention with more on this occasion, we would only add that considerations like these have led to the abolition of such tests in many other of our sister States, and in the constitution of the United States, and in my view, require us to imitate their wise example.

MR. PIERCE OF CONCORD, said: That he would concur heartily in all that the gentleman from Concord had said, except that so far from having taxed the patience of the committee, his speeches upon both the great subjects embraced in the resolutions under consideration had been listened to with attention and interest...

It is contrary to the Declaration of Independence, and of the very first article in your bill of rights, declaring all men equal. You do not thus give to all men equal privileges. It is also in the teeth of the same bill of rights, which says, we do not, that Catholics may vote, but not be voted for; and that they may be well qualified for one duty and not the other...

Gen. Scott's Letter to the Native Americans

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10, 1841. Dear Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of the 23rd inst., written as you are pleased to add, in behalf of several hundred Native American republicans of Philadelphia.

Now, having vindicated Gen. Pierce fully from the foul calumny charged upon him, we intend to give a charge back, which, unfortunately for Gen. Scott we have never been explained. The Whigs are the last cause that ever should have opened this matter, it seems to us...

Without fatiguing the convention with more on this occasion, we would only add that considerations like these have led to the abolition of such tests in many other of our sister States, and in the constitution of the United States, and in my view, require us to imitate their wise example.

MR. PIERCE OF CONCORD, said: That he would concur heartily in all that the gentleman from Concord had said, except that so far from having taxed the patience of the committee, his speeches upon both the great subjects embraced in the resolutions under consideration had been listened to with attention and interest...

It is contrary to the Declaration of Independence, and of the very first article in your bill of rights, declaring all men equal. You do not thus give to all men equal privileges. It is also in the teeth of the same bill of rights, which says, we do not, that Catholics may vote, but not be voted for; and that they may be well qualified for one duty and not the other...

LETTER

Of the Hon. James Buchanan, to the Democratic citizens of Springfield township, Berks county, Pa. WHEATLAND, near Lancaster, June 14, 1852.

GENTLEMEN:—I have delayed on purpose to answer your kind communication of the 20th ultimo, until the result of the Baltimore Convention should be known. With the intelligent and faithful Democracy of Springfield Township for their favorable opinion and in the earnest and friendly hope expressed by them, that the Democracy of the Union would respond to the wishes of Pennsylvania in its National Convention...

Without fatiguing the convention with more on this occasion, we would only add that considerations like these have led to the abolition of such tests in many other of our sister States, and in the constitution of the United States, and in my view, require us to imitate their wise example.

MR. PIERCE OF CONCORD, said: That he would concur heartily in all that the gentleman from Concord had said, except that so far from having taxed the patience of the committee, his speeches upon both the great subjects embraced in the resolutions under consideration had been listened to with attention and interest...

It is contrary to the Declaration of Independence, and of the very first article in your bill of rights, declaring all men equal. You do not thus give to all men equal privileges. It is also in the teeth of the same bill of rights, which says, we do not, that Catholics may vote, but not be voted for; and that they may be well qualified for one duty and not the other...