Nos op Telegraph. Preparations to receive the body in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 1, 1852.
The city councils have received a dispatch from the committee of arrangements stating that the remains of Mr. Clay will remain at altimore one night.
A committee has accordingly been appoint-of to leave for Baltimore at two o'clock, for ed to leave for Baltimore at two o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements so as to the body here to-morrow evening. A grand torch light procession will take place, and the body will stay over night in this city, and be placed in Independence Hall. Boston, June 28, 1852.
