The Wife-

It needs no guilt to break a husband's heart. the absence of content the mutterings of spleen the untidy dress and cheerless home, the forboding scowl and deserted heart—these and other nameless neglects, without a crime Among them, have harrowed to the quick the heart's core of many a man, and planted there beyond the reach of cure, the germ of dark despair .- O! may woman, before that sight arrives dwell on the recollections of her youth and, cherishing the dear ideas of that tuneful time, awake and keep alive the promise she then so kindly gave. And though she may be injured, not the injuring one; the forgotten, not the forgetful wife, a hippy allusion to the hour of peaceful love-a kindly welcom to comfortable home—a smile of love to banish hostile words-kiss of peace to pardon all the past, and the hardest heart that ever locked content-the soother of the melancholy and sorrowing hour, the source of comfort and the spring of joy.

Laws of Health. Children should be taught to use the lef hand as well as the right. Coarse bread is much better for children than fine.

Children should sleep in seperate beds, and should not wear night caps. Children under six or seven years, should not be confined over six or seven hours in the house-and that time should be broken by frequent recesses. Children and young people should be made to hold their heads and their shoulders back while sitting standing or walking. The best beds for children are of hair, or, in winter, hair and cotton. From one to one pound and a half of solid food is sufficient for a person in the ordinary vocations of business. Persons in sedentary employments should drop one third of their tood, and they will escape dyspepsia. Young persons should walk at least two hours a day in the open air.

Young people and others cannot study much by lamp-light with impunity.

The best remedy for eyes weakened by night use, is a fine stream of cold water constantly applied to them.

An Efficacious Chastisement.

A most exemplary wife had the misfortune to wed a husband who shortly after their marriage, became almost a sot. He was not hard hearted nor an unjust man, but like umerous others, could not resist temptation, and when asked to drink had not the moral ourage to say "No." His wife, whom he eally loved, exposiniated and reasoned, until he promised never to take liquor again ; but is soon as thrown into company his resolutions were forgotten, and he fell into his old degrading habit. She wept bitter, bitter tears, and began to despair of ever weaning him from his nonstrous vice, especially as she had implored one of his false friends in vain not to lead her husband into evil company. Regularly, however, the corrupting associate called, and despite of her tears solicited her husband to visit such and such a place. The infatuated man could not resist, end went and came in of Boota, Shows and Findings, at the lowest prices in benstly state of intoxication.

United States Hotel, Saratoga Springs, July 5, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Sir : I have been afflicted with a painfol affection of the lungs, and all the symptoms of settled e manupiton, for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, until I commenced the use of your Cherry Pictural, which gave me gradual relief, and I have been steadily gaining my strength till my health is well aigh restored.

While using your medicine, I had the gratification of curing with it my reverend friend, Mr. Truman, of Sumiter District, who had been suspended from his parochial duties by a sevire attack of bronchitis.

I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you, And aim, ir, yours respectfully,

Whatevell concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of the most vanuable importance. I take it for grapted that every person will do all in their power to save the lives of their children and that every person will endewor to promote their own health at alt sacridees. I feel it to be my duty to solemily assure you that Worins according to the opinion of the most eclobrated Physicians, are the primary cause of a large-majority of disease to which children and adults are flable, if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, bad breath, pain in the stomach, picking at the nose, haracers and in ness of the belly, dry cough, low fever, pulse irregular, remember that all these denote Worms and you should at once-apply the remedy

Morris River, N. J., Aug. 13, 1851.

Mr. J. N. Hobensack—This is to certify that my child, 15 cars of age, having been sick for three years, was attended for a disease of the spine by Drs. Leper, Wallin, and Philster for a long time without recibing any benefit and consulted one of the best physicians, her disease still growing worse. It was at this time I was induced to try nobeneack's Worm Syrup, and after taking two bottles she cutledly agained her health, after passing a great quantity of worms. Hoping this will be a benefit to parents whose children are similarly affected, I am yours, &c.
