Fire in Towanda. By Telegraph. Pennsylvania Legislature--Ses-Susquehannn County Ahead! We mentioned last week, that this play sion of 1853. THE DEMOCRAT At the State Fair, held week before last at Unexampled Triumph of the Debe lowered into the narrow house which is to Interesting Sketch and Romin-isconces of Mr. Webster — In-cidents of his Life, &c. The death of Mr. Webster was unexpected to the public, and even to many of his famil-in friends. Though somewhat feeble during into past twelve or fifteen monthand especial-ity since he was thrown violently from his car-tiage and much bruised, he was not considered From the Journal of Commerce, Oct. 28. had again been visited by a most disastron mocracy !- The Greatest Vic-SENATE. ancaster, Geo. Walker, Esq., of Dimock fire. The following is a list of the referen The Largest Circulation in Northern Pennsylvania-1632 Copics Weekly. took the premium on Corn; and we also untory ever achieved in 1. Philadelphia city-Wm. A. Crabb, Chas with the amount of less, as given 1y the Re O Neill. 2. Philadelphia county-Thomas S. Fo derstand that the premium on Butter and the Nation! porter : 2. Philadelphia county-Thomas S. syift S. G. HAMILTON, Wm. Goodwin.* Cheese was awarded to this County, but have MONTHOSE, NOVEMBER 4, 1852. Brick Rom-No 1, H. & A. Campbell, et not learned from whose dairy it was made .-Montgoinery-Benj. Frick.* thing store, goods damaged by removal-to. ered by insurance. The store, which is one Mr. Walker's promium was for 160 bushels of S. B. & E. B. CHASE, EDITORS. 4. Chester and Delaware-Henry ered by insurance. The store, which is tre-ed by Enos Tompkins, is much damaged, tu insured. No. 2—Owned by H. W. TRACT, tothy destroyed, not insured. Occupied by C. Bed Drug Store, who has an insurance in the la. NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1852. ans. Berks-Wm. M. Heister.* shelled Corn from an acre of ground! Well have a service and the service of th riage and much bruised, he was not considered to the eye and most imposing to the imagina as having any constitutional ailment, nor as ton. Nothing which the present or the pas This bright and beautiful morning witness may the agriculturists of our county be proud To our Patrons. es the election of Gen. FRANKLIN PIENCE to 6-Bucks-Edward K. Saeger. es the election of Gen. FRANKLAS LART This 7. Laurensies and This the Presidency of this yast Republic. This Lington, E. Kinzer. the Presidency of this vast Republic. This Lington, E. Kinzer. 8. Northumberland and Dauphin-John of these awards, and point to them in vindica-Wo find ourselves under the necessity of ab natring under any organic disease, not as be-ing in a fatal decline. For the greater part of wanting. Westminster Abbey, the metropoappealing to our patrons in arrears, for "nid and tion from the aspersions that other sections, of the State are wont to heap upon this, as city, complete, gives Pierce 11,029 majority. ing in a fatal decline. ing in a fatal decime. For the greater part of waiting. Westminister Abbey, the metrople the last year, he was in good spirits and in his usual health. So far from expecting death, he was engaged in deliberate preparations for protracted life. Had he been nominated as a have its storied windows looked upon a more sconing Company, sufficient to cover his ba Second story occupied by Dr. McIntosh, det, ist, whose, implements, dc., were mostly a moved, some what damaged. comfort" during the coming session of Court. Enough has been heard from the following States to determine the result. A few of them Northampton and Lehigh—Wm. Fry.* Money has been very scarce the past season, "the county of wild cats and sap troughs."-States to determine the result. A few of them The farmers of Susquelianna are fast showing 10. Carbon, Monroe, Pike and Wayneand we have endeavored to be as easy with our debtors as possible. The carth has yield- that their soil, though difficult at first to sub- are put down without returns, being conceded No. 3, and store house-owned by E. W. Baird-loss $3500; insured for $2,000. 0. candidate for the Presidency, it was his arow- gorgeous spectacle than will be presented by W. Hamlin. due, is rich in productiveness, and that when by all parties: He Adams and Franklin-Thos. Carson: red purpose to resign his present office, and the Queen in her royal robes; the pers in take a tour to the South this fall and winter. gold and ermine; the judges in their vest. Had Mr. Fillmore been nominated, he has been ments of state; the better knights in their head to asy; that he would resign and take istalls; and all the array of genus; and rank, ed her abundance, and we are convinced that Baird-loss 35000; insurea for $2,000 0. cupied by Phinney & Bowman, whose loss $2,000, upon which there is an insurance of $2500, sufficient to cover the loss y. Baird's law office wals in the second story for Picree. New York, 35 York-Jacob S. Haldeman.* 12. now we might be remembered. Will not our it finally yields to the scientific culture of our Penneyivaning, prost and proved at takin and a set of the set of t Cumberland and Perry-Joseph Baily 13. patrons take a little trouble to settle with us energetic and intelligent husbandmen, it can-14. Centre, Lycoming, Sullivan and Clin-ton-James W. Quiggle. the political field as the advocate of Mr. Fill-and beauty, gathered' from all parts of the mighty British realm in one danse mass about not easily be excelled by any section of the Court weeks? We desire it only because ر 121011 15. Blair, Cambria and Huntingdon-R. Baird's law office was in the second story fris which the books and papers were mostly and No.4 — owned by Tricy & Moore-one pied by H. P. Moore, whose loss is very heny — he having just opened a large stock of re-goods. _ Loss upon goods and building sti-mated at $9,500. Insured for $3500. 13 more's election. So far from having been mortified and heart the sarcophagus of Arthur, Duke of Welling frait of that will to our necessities demand it. To-publish a pa- country. Those who ridiculo our "big ma-Indiana. Illinois, 11 per, with the circulation of ours, requires "a ples and tall hemlocks," will finally learn that di 14 ting ed 16. Luzerne, Montour and Columbia-C. 1. C. 11V Maine, Michigán, broken, as some have said, by the loss of the ton. And never has that embowed roof ech รือเป็นประเทศ such do not grow in a barren soil. R. Buckalew. 17. Bradford, Susquehanna and Wyoming broken, as some nave shut, by the loss of the bold. And there has barben being organ and full voiced thoir, sufficient that he had thereby, escaped from strains of loftier beauty, sublimid7; and the pile." and a let me cu - how have the second show the second show the second seco Probably there is no county in the Common Missouri THE GREAT RESULT. wealth increasing more rapidly in agricultural anxiety, trouble, and detraction, and perhaps a umph, than will then wave through the sable Arkansas A. W. A.S. Actest. While the ballotings were going on, and especially during the time of their suspen-ising especially during the time of their suspen-sion Mr. Webster's conversation, as many can attest, surned entirely on literary and general St. Paul's will move a procession, glittering in street, surned entirely on literary and general St. Paul's will move a procession, glittering in No. 5-owned by H. W. Tracy-the thir Alabama independence than Susquehanna, We do not Enough returns will be found in to-day's and Jefferson-Byron D. Hamlin.* story only occupied by ite Bradjord Argu printing office from which nothing was said except a part of the books. Loss $1000. Ta building was not insured. Georgia, Mississippi, paper to sottle the result of the great day's speak of this from the impulses of egotism, -: 1 In? 19. Mercer, Venango and Warren-John work of Tuesday last. We have met and con- but from facts as they exist, visible and dis-Texas, Hoge. 20. Erie and Crawford-James Skinner. topics, among his familiar friends, and was ex- the sun like one broad stream of martial gle quered,-and such a victory ! The Waterloo | tinct. Our farmers should not, and will not Connecticut, in it. It is true, however, that he expressed in the eighteenthand Nelson in the nine the interest of the inte New Jersey, Mr. Tracy's loss is very heavy-besides: 1.11 21. Butter, Bedver and Lawrence-A. Roband Yorktown of all others to the hopes and make this the boast of arrogance, but will Rhodo Island, ertson* efforts of Whiggery; there is scarcely left a strive, with quickened energies, to improve 22. Allegheny-James Carothers, George New Hampshire, place on which the party can rest the soles of the advantages thus being developed, to their Darsie.* 8400-total 87,400-upon which there is Virginia, 23. Washington and Greene-Maxwell M' its feet. Before the charge of the torrible and own personal comfort and pecuniary compe legation, that the record of the convention all. It will be a great national solemnity, in nsurance. The wooden building next was owned by Delaware, did not coincide with the warm expressions of respect, confidence and gratitude, which he re-cvery institution of the nation, overy remnant deived from some of the Southern delegations. of ancient chivalry, will act its part. And Not ote i di Caslin. 24. Bedford, Fulton and Somerset-Ham-Maryland, A. S. Mercur, and insured for $800. The ga-cery was occupied by W. R. Smalley, whole moved in but a day or two previously al whose loss was not large. The shop was of unconquerable American Democracy, "the tence. Total, 213 Every year now leaves the traces of im-Universal Whig party" has been driven clean ilton B. Barnes. Electoral Votes Scott, 25. Armstrong, Indiana and Clarion . Not expecting that death would so soon the booming of canon, the tolling of bells, provement distinctly marked on the whole off the field, horse, foot, dragoons and baggage-Vermont 6. waggons, leaving such an innumerable host of surface of the country. Our lands are now Christian Meyers. 26. Juniata, Mifflin and Union-Eli Slifer. 13 Tennessee, whose icss was investiged. In our way was on cupied by A. M. Warner, jeweler, whose pro-erty was mostly removed. The next building was owned by Col. I.P. m preparing for a quiet and dignified retire- yons, and the wild tumultuous beating of milsick, wounded and killed, that it is said Presi- well "cleared up, and paid for," thus leaving Kentucky, 12 Westmoreland and Fayette-John M'lions of hearts, the flustrous dead will enter 27. ment from public and professional pursuits ofhis mansoleum like a recognized emperor of dent Pierce will immediately order Gen. Scott their owners in a situation to expend largely Massachusetts, 11 Farland. ter the expiration of the term of the present Farland. Hereit John Hendricks.* to proceed, by rapid marches, back to the Blue in the improving of them, by clearing of stone, Means, and not insured. Occupied by G H Bunting's clothing store. Calp & Kirbr Hr . administration. Devoted from vonth to rural his race. Total, 42 Licks to arrange, without delay, the most ex- walling, extra tillage, fine buildings &c. A employments and amusements, he was always From the Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 25. tensive enlargement of his Military Hospital, few years will suffice to so improve the face Other States will increase the vote for HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. impry when allowed leisure from public la-bors to enjoy them. He had the rural tastes ness shop, and Carpenter and Goodwin, but crs. The loss in each instance, is covered h Pierce largely. Necessary for a choice of the Mr. Webster, we believe, was not at the Adams-David Meilinger. for the accommodation of all his disabled for: of the country, even from what it is now, that Allegheny-Geo. F. Gilmore, Richard Cow of an English country gentleman; and, at the time of his death, a member of any religious insurance. On the East side of Main street-the birth Electoral College, 149. Pierce surplus over ces, whether " Native, adopted, or those who it will searcely be recognized by those who same time, as much inclination to literary pur-suits, as any scholar, or Fellow of an Univer-was in connexion with the Presbyterian an, G. Appleton, J. M. Porter, C. Eyster. Armstrong, Clarion and Jefferson-J. Alex-ander Fulton, Thos: Magée, Joseph B. Hutcha choice so far, 63. New Hampshire gives intend to become citizens of this great and glo- leave it now and return at a period of years dwelling of Andrew Irvine, which was not e enpied, though containing furniture & Prob bly not insurod. Mr. Irvine resides at Was Pierce from THIRTEEN TO FIFTEEN THOUSAND! We know that he had high regard ave " leisure to be wise"-to be Church. hence. And then, having reference to markrious Republic !" able to ramble whenever ho pleased in the for a public profession of religion in others, paths of literature and science-to become bet and rejoiced when such showed their fidelity His gain in the city of Boston over Taylor's ison. This result is the most signal triumph of ets, we are most favorably situated, with two Beaver, Butler, and Lawrence J. R. Harris, vote in '48, about 11,000. Scott's majority in principles and civil worth, over reckless fanat. Rail Roads passing though the county to the ren, Pa. B. B. Chamberlin, J. D. Rancy. Bedford, Fulton and Cambria-William P. for acquainted with God and himself-to med. to their professions by a corresponding life. Massachusetts, less than 5000. In Pennsylvaicism, military availability and low demagogue. best markets of the nation. the objects which he had in view in seeking a spending several days in company with Mr nia, Lancaster county, gives Scott 4,900. Al-Scholl, Thos. Coilins. These considerations, while they may just Scholl, Thos. Coilins. Berks-George Dengler, Isnac Yost, Daniel Zerbey, Jacob Wicklein. Blair and Huntingdon-S. S. Wharton, J. ism that has ever been achieved in this conntry. Resolved on success, the Whig party, ly be a source of pride to the inhabitants of Webster, at the residence of a mutual friend leghany, including Pittsburg, 2400. Phil'a city retifement. He had recently taken care that with $200 upon the furniture. his works should be compiled and published Harvey Ely, Esq., at Rochester. During that and co., Pierce 1,489, Luzerne gives Pierce true to its instincts first cast about for an our county, should stimulate to greater exerin a correct form, and they are a rich legacy intercourse, we had more than one opportuni-to his country, and a monument more durable ity of conversing on religious subjects—somearailable leader. No matter whether the coun. | tions in the future. Let our farmers strive 1,600. Wayne about 1,200. The above strong L. Gwin. 🗄 Bradford Wm. E. Barton, John Passmore for 8600. try would be safe in his hands,--no matter hard to improve, one upon another, and one Whig counties indicate a falling off from the than brass to his own memory. These vol-times embrace his diplomatic correspondence, on the importance of the Holy Scriptures, as and his chief parliamentary, forensic, and occa-containing the plan of man's salvation, flire Bucks-Noah Shull, Jonathan Elv. Edward whether he knew aught of civil life,-no mat- year over another,-read, study, and above all Whig vote of the State, in the aggregate. Thomas. things observe and experiment, and you will sional orations. But it is known that they do the attonement of Christ. So far as our not embrace all the works which it was his knowledge of the subject extends. Mr. Webter whether he would honor or disgrace the THE RESULT IN NEW YORK. Carbon and Lehigh-David Laury, Wm. R.

wish, at some time, to give to the public. He ster was as orthodox as any we ever convers wish, at some time, to give to the public. He ister was as orthouse as any we ever searcher has left treatise of an interesting and orig-inal character on subjects political, historical, and philosophical What directions he has ing-room with Mr. and Mrs. Ely, Mr. Webster given in regard to them is not known; but, of laid his hand on a copy of the Scriptures, say-course, they will see the light under the ans. press of some one of his personal and literary the Scriptures and the Scriptures and the two de the Scriptures to the treater of the Scriptures and the two de the Scriptures of the Scriptures of the Scriptures of the treater of the Scriptures and the two de the Scriptures of the Scripture of the Scriptures of the treater of the Scriptures of the two de the Scriptures of riences. Had he lived, he would, no doubt, of the Scriptures, and the tho trequent neghave given much of his leisure to a record of het of the study of the Biblo by gentlemen of have given much of his leisure to a record of fect of the study of the points of generative of Because of his known experience in civil af-his thoughts on religions, philosophical and the legal profession, their pursuits in life lead. Because of his known experience in civil af-political subjects. political subjects.

political subjects. "One can hardly realize that Daniel Webster is no more. His sudden departure, while yet his intellect was bright, unclouded and vigor-ous, and while his mind was still refentive of tice to go through it once a year; It is a book for the last of these was the acknowledged the normal while his mind was still refentive of the to go through it once a year; It is a book for the last of these was the acknowledged the normal while his mind was still refentive of the to go through it once a year; It is a book for the last of these was the acknowledged the normal while his mind was still refentive of the to go through it once a year; It is a book for the last of these was the acknowledged the normal value for division its accomulated treasures, and still capacions of all others for lawyers as well us for divines. Statesman and Intellect of the age." Where- ccrat, for the publication of matter concerning Bridgewater, of more, produces the impression of a death and I pity the man that cannot find in it a rich rather by accident, than in the ordinary course supply of thought and of rules for his con-of nature-like the foundering of a ship at duct; it fits man for life-it prepares him for ees in calm weather, or the death that encoundeath. The conversation then turned opon sudden ladecd, it appears that his death was caused deaths : and Mr. Webster adverted to the then bis nome unforseen organic disease. [recent death of lus brother, who expired sud More regretted is the death of Mr. Webster den'y at Concord, N. H. 'My brother,' he brought into the field as the champion of the as fullowing so soon the departure of the two continued, " knew the importance of Bible instrings patriots and statesmen whom the truths. The Bible led him to prayer and prayer " Universal Whig party." They virtually said by candidates for office, is a very poor busi- Great Bend, vices in the year 1850, were among his great which he died, he was engaged in an impor-vices in the year 1850, were among his great which he died, he was engaged in an impor-sufficient intelligence to discriminate between Bennett's sagacity should ever have been Harmony. est; and if he had rendered no other, he would tant cause in the court then in session. But sufficient intelligence to discriminate between Bennett's sagacity should ever have been ess cana is no may rendered no other, he would tant cause in the court then in session. But the qualifications of a man for the Presidency caught in that trap. It is the poorest shelter Jackson, of his country. His counsils and example him from his duty to his God; he found time and the field of War and we can, with a man with a man can possibly erect to cover him. Jesup, will not be forgotten, and never successfully for prayer, for on the desk which he had just he had just fitted for the latter post, humbug you of your American name and nation by his administra- reap great results ,-results that will astonish tion, only that he could succeed by some means, yourselves in a short time. Let the experienco derived from observing closely the caus--by imposition, by fraud, or otherwise, only that he should succeed and give them the es, effects and consequences of the productiveness of one year, prepare you for shunning Treasury of the government on which to riot disastrous results the next, and independence and to fat. Following up this one purpose, Webster and Fillmore were butchered and and wealth will flow into your garners.

Gen. Scott nominated. And why nominated ? A Libel. Hon. HENRY BENNETT, the Whig candidate for Congress in the Broome County District. Ararat. has brought a suit for libel against Hon. John Apolacon, R. Dickinson, editor, of the Binghamton Dem-Anhum, fore, then, was Gen. Winfield Scott brought the character of said Bennett, while a candi-Brooklyn. forward ! Simply because in war he was to date. The Editor of the Democrat does not hoconut, Clifford, America what Wellington was to England, seem to be much frightened for he repeats Dimock, and was therefore supposed to have the ele. the offensive article a fais week, and says fur. Dundaff, ments about him to attract and rivet the pop- ther that he can and shall prore them true if Franklin. Friendsville, ular suffrage. This was why Gen. Scott was the suit should ever be brought to trial. Forest Lake. This bringing Libel suits against Editors, Gibson Harmony, Jackson, self from the storm of a political canvass. The

Hickman. Clearfield, M'Kean and Elk-J. Arnold, State: Clinton, Lycoming and Potter-Joseph B. Torbett, J. M. Kilbourn. Columbia and Montour-George Scott. Crawford-Geo. Merriman, Ransom Kings-Beturns in the County We give below the Majorities in the differ ent townships in this county, so far as heard

117

32

-46

22

20

81

a mater ator

aa .omii53-si

Caught at last.

65

17

thus*

Senate,

House,

thing the set of the

Dem. maj. on joint ballot, 21

1.1 1 64 -71

57. Oct. 46

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.

Seymour. Democrat, is cleated Governor by about the same majority is Pierce in the

ey. Cumberland-David J. M'Kce, R. M. Henfrom at the the time of our going to press. Dauphin-I. S. Waterbury, Jacob Landis. Pierce. Scott. Delaware-J. P. Abrahams. Er'e-C. W. Kelso, H. A. Hills. Fayette and Westmoreland-L. L. Bigelow, Wun. A. Cook, P. U. Hook, A. M. Hill. 32

Franklin-John Rowe. Chas T. Campble. Greene-Fletcher Brock. Indiana-Alex. M'Connell. Lancaster-Daniel Herr, John C. Walton, M. Pownall, Juhn A. Heisland, Henry Gray. Lebanon-John C. Selzer. Luzerne-Trumin Atherton, A, B. Dun-

Struthers. Contro-Charles R. Foster.

Chester-Jesse James Wm. Chandler, Jos.

ing Mercer, Venango and Warren.—L. N. Mc-Granahan, John J. Kilgore, C.-V. Kinnear. Mittlin.—Henry P. Taylor. Monroe and Pike—H. S. Mott. 64 - 11 I

Monigomery-Oliver P. Fretz, Curtis W. Gabe, Henry Beyer, Northampton-Isaac Richards/Francis Bar, Northumberland -S. A. Bergstresser. nolds, Wm. Swetland &c., the Trasteen Perry-David Shaver. Perry-David Shaver. Philadelphia city-George, II. Hart, J. R. say, anxious to enlarge still farther the Ser andrean, Henry K. Strong, Wm Services in any buildings and diffuse wider than eter b Planagan, Henry K. Strong, Wm. Sergeant, Philadelphia county-Isaoe I.ceeh, Daniel the cost of taition, on a limited number Raticam, Isaac C. Bryant, Robt. B. Knight, scholarships, to one third of the present Smith Skinner, Isaac W. Moore, Geo, J. Piper, Andrew Hague, Richardson L. Wright, John J. Meany, Solomon Demers. Schuylkill-John Horn, Jr., Jacob Hammer. thousand scolarships for twenty-five dollars each ; each scholarship securing to the belies Somerset-Samuel L, Haller. four y'ears room rent and tuition in the Cas Susquehanna, Sullivan and Wyoming-E. B. Chase, J. W. Dennison. mon: English branches, or three years mes rent and tuition in the higher branches ut Tiogo-James Lowry. Union and Juniata-John Beale. Languages. They give six months for b payment of the first half and one year for the

A small building owned by Gen. Patto occupied by Mrs. Lynch, Next was Mn Burke's grocery, which was insured for 840 The building corner of Main and Bride streets was owned by Gen. Patton, and insur

Wy oming Seminary.

This institution was never more prospersy than at present, and never enjoyed the spa bation of a wider circle of pai

There are in attendance at the present fro ome two hundred students, gathered toget er from all parts of the surrounding courts Knowing the anxiety of students, before my ing an institution, to learn something of facilities we make a few statements for the information. The faculty consists of some ten tenhan among whom is a native Parisian teacher French ; and a Native German, instructor bis own language. The industry and all of this board of tuition are beyond questa There is a large and choice library, also reading room to which all the students in access. Lectures, debating societies, com sition and declamation all come in as me of improvement to the students. In a word, all the facilities and educated appliances found in any institution of the rade are found here. Board in the Hall costs one dollar and a ents per week. Some students board the selves at a much less expense. Tuilion the Common English branches costs tree lollars per year, and in the higher Eagle branches and Languages twenty fire dan per year. But Friends, Parents, and year eatning for wisdom, we have something t tell you; and now read slowly. The Train among whom are Judge Bennett, Judge Ber resisted; and his countrymen will ever cher-ish his high and well earned fame.

left, was found a paper written by him on votes and place ourselves in the civil trust of people will not sustain such, and Juries will that day, which, for fervent piety, n devoted

Mr. Webster then mentioned the satisfac- rebake as just and merited as it is significant. discuss the character and pretensions of men New Milford, choster, Mass.; occupying the mansion now owned by R. C. Winthrop. Upon his becomtion he had derived from the pretching of cering an inhabitant of the town, he called upon tain clergymen, observing that 'men were so constituted that we could not at all expect the ed a Presidential -canvass, if we may except the late Dr. Codman, with whom he held simi-Interingents opinions, and remarked-' Sir, I same spiritual benefit under the ministry of the Hard Cider campaign of 1840. For the of a virtuous and intelligent public. The disan come to be one of your parishoners, not the same clergymen.' He regret ted that there first time in the history of the country, has a criminating sense of community, is by far a one of your fashionable ones, but you will find was not more harmony of feeling among pro-me in my seat both in the morning and in the fessors generally, who believed in the great me in my seat both in the morning and in the fessors generally, who believed in the great protocol and the distance disguisted in sign part than the "Law of Libel." That protection afternoon.' He was true to his word, and a truths of our common Christianity. Difference tion by a journey through the country, mak of opinion, he admitted, was proper; but yet, ing an exhibition of himself to the people for at the same time that they would throw him being the law of Libel." That protection around the injured at the same time that they would throw him being a depraved enthusiant of the with that difference, the main objects should the purpose of arousing a depraved enthusiant the form the same time that they would throw him only of Count with the law of Edda low around the opinion. Hatter, a few years since, and to which Mr. be love to God-love to our fellow creatures. Webster alluded, shortly before his own de- In all Mr. Webster's conversations he mainparture, in terms of affectionate remembrance. 14. Codman was accustomed to relate the foltained, true entholicity of feeling. This brief sketch of Mr. Webster's religious off from his tongue of fulsome flattery, the Inwing anecdote of Mr. Webster, which shows views we give from memory ; we know that lowest appeals to the prejudices of the massin a singular degree, the wonderful power of it is correct in substance for his remarks made farcination which the great orator possessed- an impression upon our mind that cannot be effaced.

Cuba.

the unspoken eloquence, if it may so be term-ed, of his commanding appearance. One Sunday afternoon, the services of the church were to be conducted by a young sin-We have reason to believe that the organident from Andover, who was for the first time to address a large assembly. He commenced reading the opening hymn, but as he proceed-ed, his voice faltered, and he concluded with difficulty. He sat down, pleaded inability to proreed with the other exercises, which the Dector accordingly conducted in his stead.

When questioned after church as to the cause of his strange behavior, he replied that he felt ashamed to acknowledge the truth; but it was, to use his own expression, ' those great, black, piercing eyes in the broad aisle, that frightened every idea from my head.'-And he knew not till be was then told. that Daniel Webster was a member of the congregation.

From the C urier and Enquirer, Oct. 20. Wellington and Webster! The mightiest crisis. man of the old world and the mightiest man who bringeth the princes to nothing, who maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

The last and rites of both are approaching. The lifeless form of each is about to be borne to the tomb. But how different the scene! N.Y. Tribune At Marshfield the small circle of villagers will assemble, simple in garb and grave in mien, and yet with hearts that they could poar out like water for him they loved. The village like water for him they loved. The viltage pastor will, with broken utterance, put up one child-like, heart-felt supplication to Him who doeth all things well; meek voices will units Laporte Democrat gives the following item of the singing of some sweet village hymn; Tohn C. Wilson, of this place, has raised of Daniel Webster will be carried out on the shoulders of men, and amid a allence, broken hudred bashels to the acre. Will those who shulders of men, and amld a silence, broken hundred bushels to the acro. Will those who aver the second of the had everes of massaerines of water. From appearances he had everes of massaerines of massaerines of water. From appearances he had everes of massaerines of massaerin

Never before have such low resorts disgrac- who aspire to places of trusts in the governasm to carry his election. Demagogue-like has Gen. Scott traversed the States, throwing es, like an arch demagogue endeavoring to win to himself all sects, classes and conditions of men. Though but a few years since, he claimed to have formed the party that deluged the streets of Philadelphia with the blood of ration which contemplates the liberation of Irishmen, and burned down their Churches Cuba by means chiefly of military aid from when a candidate for the Presidency he could this country, is in a much more forward state lavish fulsome adulation upon their bravery than is generally supposed. Enlistments have taken place in most, if not all of the large towns from New York to Cincinnati and St. press his admiration for "the rich brogue" of Louis in the West, and to Charlestown and New their native tongue. He would deprive all of its predecessors. With all needful funds pressed of other nations, who come to our it is supplied from Cuba itself, and from the shores, the noblest national characteristics, and contributions of sympathisers here. At the the most worthy elements of patriotism and some time, the leaders mean to hazard noth-ing by hasty and premature action, unless unexpected circumstances should expedite the in these particulars has it been on all other path. to contradict his falsehoods in referelements of the canvass. It is worthy of re-changeless brow' of her regal children, and dragged from the protection of the Americum ted Statues, and to congratulate the mations of polled for a candidate of this county by hun- a year. that, deep answering to deep all nature sho'd flag, and east into prison. More than this, take up her wild lament and join in one uni. the letter bag of the ship was broken open versal wail of sorrow. It is the hand of Him and ransacked, and those letters which the 'who bringeth the princes to nothing, who police suspected of evil were taken from it. Such a result marks the second of November. As matters now stand this is intolerable; a 1852, as a day over to be remembered in the more decided outrage could not be committed annals of this vast Republic.

upon our flag, and we wait impatiently for further explanations from the other party.--A collision occurred on the L. W. & train standing upon the track was ran into by Little Sullivan County another moving up. Considerable damage was done to the trains, but no person was in-

Lenox. 167/ >>: Liberty, 70 72 mid fuld 59 Rush 40 39 ment, being amenable always to the judgment Springville, Silver Lake, 48 From the above returns the majority fo better protection to the character of candidates this County may be put down at about 1000. than the "Law of Libel." That protection

A gentleman calling himself Wm. H. Trexout of Court with the costs of a suit on his back. Such, we have no doubt, will be the let, was caught near Delhi, N. Y., Saturday result of this suit, before an intelligent Jury last, and brought here, charged with stealing Mr. Badger's horse, at New Milford, which we of Broome county, should childish folly ever mentioned some two weeks ago. He was recbring it to trial.

ognized by Mr. Badger, and others, and com-The Register very prudently drops the mitted to jail Monday. subject of the Fair, and the disreputable con-Mr. Badger was exceedingly generous in the nection of himself and others with keeping the reward offered, which may have had much to proceedings from the public, save through the do with bringing the fellow to a stopping place, 400 circulation of that paper, and endeavors to and thus securing community, against, future draw public attention from their disgraceful outrages. He offered $50 for the thief, and conduct, by making a long and low personal $25 for the horse, instead of the reverse as attack upon us. The young man is so elated most would have done. Community are more with the ten rotes he succeeded in getting in interested in the capture of a thief than the Lonis in the West, and to Charlesown and New much many the many the state of suffrage save upon the District Attorney, at the State circular, and rest the rough pursuit instead It has given him a wonderful opinion of him- to bear. Mr. Badger's generosity and discrim-

had best look to his own vote in Montrose be- ble.

Littell's Living Age No. 440-Contents, A path, to contradict his falsehoods in refer- Reminiscence of the Peninsular War; Sam-Meanwhile, activity and hope will be giv- mark, that every State which he visited has ence to us, though they reflect upon our char- ples of Uncle Sam's cuteness; In Egyptman of the old world and the mightiest man of the new. It has indeed been strangely or-dered that they both should be bying simul-tureously, on the opposite shores of that great tureously, on the opposite shores of that great twind the ship Cornella and the steamer of the associated the ship cornella and the steamer tureously, on the opposite shores of that great twee meant to teach manking some new les-that the share of having a passenger on board with-at the share of the call of his countrymen, which that the blocd and their converse of that great that the blocd and their converse of the great that the blocd and their converse of the section of the state blocd and their converse of that great the state blocd and their converse of the section of the state blocd and their converse of the section of the section of the state blocd and their converse of the termine the state blocd and their converse of the termine the state blocd and their converse of the termine the state blocd and their converse of the termine the state blocd and their converse of that great the state blocd and their converse of that great the state blocd and their converse of that great the state blocd and their converse of the termine the state blocd and their converse of the termine the blocd and their converse of that great the state blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the converse of the termine the blocd and the section of the termine termine of the termine termine of the termine of the converse of the termine termine of the termine of the termine of the converse of the termine termine of the termine of the termine of the termine termine of the termine of the termine of the termine of the termine termine the termine of the termine of the termine of the termine of the past have taught us that the more we are age; Shawls; The present Hollon time Lou. time, This horrible monster added, that he inary. If you wish the agent to rait of the dillade tillade to a start to rait of the start to rait to ra sono fitheir kindred blood and their common dut a passport i the man was sought for and has come up spontaneous as with one great a bove is fully shown from the course of that the fact that we versal Language; Poetry and short articlesnes 1.1y-inat number should be made to how to have another man who how another man who dreds. With such a vindication, we can afford let such attacks from such a source pass unheeded, and at any time when we wish our reputation strengthened we shall ask for more, -----

We notice by the papers that at very large mass meetings at Owego, Honesdale, R. R. at the Montrose Depot, Monday last. A Carbondale, Hawley, Millord and Stroudsburg. in the past two weeks, Hon. G. A. Grow was among the speakers. At the latter place Hon. James Buchanan' was present, and addressed the meeting. ----- fallen into the syster while in a fit to which by President Fillmore, Secretary of State, in an article having reference to Kingston Schil-the had long been subject.

Mr. MELVIN CHAMBEBLIN, & citizen of place.

Washington-J. N. AF Donald, J. W. Alexinder. Wayne-Richard Lancaster.

RECAPITULATION.

62 . 38.

57

56

55

York-James M. Anderson, Ezekiel Her. bert, David F. Williams, Democrats in Roman-Whigs in Italic-

ward. These scholarships are transferable, s Nativo in SMALL CAPS-new members marked never outlaw, each admitting one student at time. The three or four years years tend will be given whenever called for.

payment of the balance ; unless the bolder

a scholarship wishes to receive taition bear

the expiration of the six months, in which case he pays the first instalment on entering the school and the balance six months ale

Dem. Whig. Native. 15 17 1 Now parents if your children grow up w out education you must not blame the first ming Seminary, for it tenders you its prints ges at a cost within the reach of well algebric tenders at a cost within the reach of well algebric ry individual. My brother, have you the children the pride and joy of your heart! Ba Ĩ a scholarship for twenty-five dollars and the will secure to each, one year's instruction, as good a school as there is in the state; buy three and that will give each three Ju

A Man Wolf. instruction: But mark you, one thousand only are to The Clamour Publico, of Madrid, has the following from Corunna, dated the 5th - sold at this price, and aside from these There has just been denounced to the tribu- rates of tuition remain unchanged; so the nal of this city a man wolf, who, upon his them while they are in the market. The agent has been operating if the man own contession, has been in the habit of going into the forests and killing and eating men, women and children. He was captured in mearly one tenth of the whole number. In Castille. He has declared to the examining megistrate that he had declared to the examining lecturing upon Education and distribut magistrate that he had two accomplices belonging to Valencia and that they carried on a these certificates. They may also be obtained traffic with Portugal for the fat of their vie by writing to R. Nelson, Principal of the Section district, lecture upon Education, and district had killed and eaten his mother and slater.

at Owego, the Gozette, Says. Tho meeting jouraging prospect. here repaired to the public square, and order GEO. LANDON, Agril being restored, the chairman introduced the N. B. The next term of the Seminar fit. Hon. G. A. Grow, who proceeded to address commence Nov. 17th. Hon, G. A. Grow, who proceeded to address the meeting upon the distinctive principles of Kingston, Oct. 25th 1852.

THE ABTIC EXPEDITION .- A dispatch to Aberdeen, Thursday evening, says the fran Aberdeen, Thursday evening, says the fran Albert has just arrived, bringing no second Sir John Franklin. She wintered in 1651 Bay, searched Prince Regent's Inlei, discord B, channel in the most of block Sources. h channal in the west of North Sources, ar-breed it with sledges, and round by Portle pold; but found no traces of the missing er dilion. The Prince Albert got as faratha Becchy Head. On the 19th of Augusting with which the table is supplied, and the gene, suming soung man. He has recently received had passed up Wellington Channel with the providest compliments that could be as the providest of the providest compliments that could be as the channel was open as the as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the second was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the second be as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the second be as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complements that could be as the channel was open as the complement of the channel was open as the complement of the could be as the co nau passed up Wellington Channel and the Beason.—The Channel was open and the free from ice. The Prince Albert left be on the 93d of August, and brings distant from the North Star. The officers and err were all well. The Davis Straits faher, and a failure. Un to August only of fah had be the Democratic and Federal parties as they WARD House, Towanda Pa .-. This splon- existed during the administrations of Adams did house, one of the largest and most com- and Jefferson, and as they, still exist in one modious hotels in Northern Pennsylvania, is of the most congent and well reasoned speechnow under the charge of R. BROWER, formerly Es that we have listened to in many a day. The eloquent gentleman then apprended the of Bath, N. Y., who has already acquired for it tite. Tariff question and we will do him the a wide reputation as a well-kept house. Mr. justice to say that we never before heard that B's, long experience abundantly qualifies him great and important subject discussed so ably for the post, while the attention paid to the and well. It was really an intellectual tract to wants and comfort of travellers, the liberality vincing arguments of this eloquent and unas-

Ward House' a most desirable stopping possibly be given to n young man-a unanimous renomination and a smanimous re-elec-tion to Congress from the, Susquehanna Dis-trict at the recent election in Pennsylvania.

these scholarships address him a line at hit Speaking of the Democratic Meeting ton, and he will come if you present and