The Laborer's Noonday Hymn. BY WORDSWORTH.

Up to the throne of God is borne The voice of pmise at early morn, And had the tests the punctual hymn, Sang as the light of day grows dim.

Nor will he turn his ear aside From holy offerings at mountide; Then here reposing, let us raiso A song of gratitude and praise.

What though our burthen be not light. We need not toil from morn till night; The respite of the mid day-hour the thankful creature's power.

Blest are the moments-doubly blest-That drawn from this one hour of rest. Are with a ready heart bestowed Upon the service of our God! Why should we crave a hallowed spot?

An altar is in each man's cot, A church in every grove that spreads Its living roof above our heads. Look up to heaven! the industrious sun

Lord! since his rising in the east. Guide, from thy love's abundant source. What yet remains of this day's course :

Help with thy grave through life's short day, Our upward and our downward way; And giorify for us the west, When we shall sink to final rest.
